

House Subcommittee Cripples Securities Commission By Cut

WASHINGTON — There is an unhealthy smell about the action of the House Appropriations subcommittee in gutting the appropriation of the Securities Exchange Commission.

It has all the earmarks of covert sabotage.

The committee cut the independent offices appropriation bill by a total of $700,000 under the amount recommended by the Budget Bureau. Of this, almost all—or $690,000—was at the expense of the SEC.

At the time the subcommittee conducted its secret hearings on the entire appropriation it consisted of five members, three Democrats, two Republicans. Yet when the SEC appropriation was considered only three of these were present. They were:

Chairman Clifton A. Woodrum, Old Guard Virginia Democrat, close friend of Senator Carter Glass who sought to emasculate the Securities Exchange Act when it was in committee last session. Woodrum has a long record of trying to gut appropriations of government agencies which are cracking down on big business. He repeatedly recommended drastic slashing of funds of the Federal Trade Commission during the course of its probe of the power industry.

Richard B. Wigglesworth, wealthy Old Guard Massachusetts Republican, who fought the enactment of the SEC act.

William P. Lambertson, Old Guard Kansas Republican, also against the establishment of the SEC.

In its report on the SEC appropriation, the subcommittee declares that it reached its decision after "thorough and extended hearings."

Actually Chairman Joe Kennedy and several of his assistants appeared before the committee only once, and then for not more than one hour.

In its original budget request, the SEC asked for $4,200,000. Its organization is still uncompleted, and three investigations it is required to make by law have not been touched—all for lack of funds.

The Budget Bureau cut the $4,200,000 estimate to $2,340,000. Then the Appropriations subcommittee lopped off another $690,000. If this figure is allowed to stand it will mean that for the fiscal year 1935-36, the SEC will be bound and gagged—limited to its present restricted sphere of activity.

There should be no shedding of tears in Wall Street.

No Chance

Edward J. White, counsel for the trustees of the Missouri Pacific Railroad, was aligned with the Government in arguing the cold cases before the Supreme Court.

And in defending the constitutionality of the law, he made the point that the preamble of the Constitution contains a "general welfare" declaration that gives Congress the power to determine what shall constitute currency.

To emphasize his contention he read that section of the preamble to which he referred. "But that is not all there is to the preamble," snapped Justice Willis VanDevanter, oldest and one of the most conservative members of the court. "There is more to it than what you have read."

"Of course," White said suavely. "And I wouldn't think of attempting to deceive this court on the contents of the Constitution."

Even the august Judges of the Court—except VanDevanter—joined in the ensuing laugh.

Whereases

The Administration is not worrying about the action of the Supreme Court in holding unconstitutional the "hot oil" provision of the NIRA.

And there was nothing in the court's decision to cause any alarm about other phases of New Deal legislation.

The court very carefully did not hold the oil clause unconstitutional on the ground that the government did not have the right to prohibit or restrict interstate transportation of oil.

What the Court did was to

FISCH FORGED RANSOM NOTES, DEFENSE SAYS

Try to Pin Letters, Bruno's Name to Dead Man, as Trial Continues

HEAR MORE EXPERTS

State Ready to Change Plan of Attack

By JAMES L. KILGALLEN
COURTROOM, FLEMINGTON, N. J., Jan. 16—Two more handwriting experts took the stand today at the trial of Bruno Richard Hauptmann for the murder of the Lindbergh baby and declared their conviction that Hauptmann was the man who wrote the fourteen Lindbergh ransom notes.

They were Harry E. Cassidy, handwriting expert of Richmond, Va., and Wilmer T. Souder, of Washington, D. C., United States government authority on questioned documents.

This made a total of six experts who have expressed the opinion that the tight-lipped, phlegmatic German on trial for the murder of the baby wrote the ransom notes.

FLEMINGTON, N. J., Jan. 16—Bruno Hauptmann's lawyers, in attacking the powerful testimony given by state handwriting experts, are seeking to prove that the dead Isidor Fisch—and not Hauptmann—wrote the Lindbergh ransom notes.

OUTLINE DEFENSE PLANS
This was made plain today by Egbert Rosecrans, of defense counsel, who said: "The defense will prove that Fisch, using Hauptmann's diaries and other documents, forged the ransom notes."

Four state handwriting experts have already testified that in their opinion Hauptmann wrote the fourteen ransom notes. They are: Albert Osborn, of Montclair, N. J., one of the foremost handwriting authorities; Elbridge W. Stein of New York; John F. Tyrrell of Milwaukee; and Herbert J. Winter of Chicago. The latter two said forgery of the ransom notes would have been impossible.

Defense Attorney Rosecrans in cross-examining Walter asked this significant question:

"If a clever copyist, a clever

Continued On Page Eight

WORLD COURT FIGHT NEARS

President Urges Adherence While Many Staunch Domestic Supporters Differ

WASHINGTON, Jan. 16—In one of the shortest presidential messages on record, President Roosevelt today asked the senate to vote American adherence to the League of Nations world court.

Mr. Roosevelt's message was delivered to the senate as foes of American entry into the league court, among them some of the administration's staunchest supporters on domestic policies, were launching their fight against ratification.

In his brief message, the president stated that American sovereignty will in no way be affected by adherence to the court, and that by ratification the "United States has an opportunity once more to throw its weight into the scale in favor of peace."

He Taught Amelia

Meet the man who taught Amelia Earhart Putnam to fly. He is J. G. Montijo, now an air-mail pilot flying between Pueblo, Colo., and El Paso, Texas. It was in 1922 that Mrs. Putnam had enough money to buy a small plane. Not having an automobile, she had to walk six miles to and from the airport near Los Angeles for her daily lessons.

To Testify at Hauptmann Trial

Pincus Fisch and Hanna Fisch, brother and sister of the late Isidor Fisch, friend of Bruno Hauptmann, who is alleged to have given the defendant the Lindbergh ransom money, are indicated by

Fisch Witnesses Ready to Appear In Bruno's Trial

All Four Removed From Coney Island Hotel Today; Deny Isidor Had Any Part.

NEW YORK, Jan. 16—The four Fisch witnesses, imported from Germany by the prosecution at the Hauptmann trial, today left their hotel at Coney island for an unannounced destination.

It was reported that the quartet was being taken to Trenton, N. J., where they would be more available for a sudden call to the court room at Flemington.

"We are here to clear Isidor's name," said Pincus Fisch, brother of Isidor, who was brought here with his wife, Czerna, and his sister, Hannah. Minna Stein, nurse who attended Hauptmann, also he died in a Leipzig hospital, also was a member of the party.

WILL TELL OF LIFE

"We will tell all we know," Pincus said, "about Isidor's life, his friends and his movements from the time he was born. We are positive he could never have been mixed up in anything like the Lindbergh kidnapping."

Fisch was amazed at the statement of Henry Uhlig, friend of both Fisch and Hauptmann, who expressed conviction the latter was innocent and commented on Fisch's "strange" actions before and after the kidnapping.

"I can't understand Uhlig's attitude," he said. "Why, Isidor lent Uhlig the money to pay his fare to Germany when they went there in 1933. Isidor worked for his money. As for Hauptmann, I never heard of him before his arrest and I can't tell how shocked I was when I learned he had implicated my brother."

SENATE APPROVES DAVEY APPOINTEES

COLUMBUS, Jan. 16—The Ohio senate today confirmed Governor Martin L. Davey's appointments of Alfred A. Benesch of Cleveland, as state commerce director, and Samuel H. Squire of Elyria, as state superintendent of banks.

HOUSE TO REDUCE INAUGURAL COSTS

COLUMBUS, Jan. 16—When the Ohio house of representatives considers the partial appropriation bill upon which a vote was expected today it will find the amount for the inauguration of Gov. Martin L. Davey reduced from an original $8,000 to $5,000.

Republican members of the temporary finance committee, led by Rep. Grant Ward, Columbus, endeavored to slash the figure to $3,500, the amount spent by former Governor White for his first inauguration four years ago, but were repulsed by the Democrats who outnumbered them, 4 to 3.

New Arrivals

Mr. and Mrs. Alex Watt, of Cleveland, announce the birth of a nine pound son, Tuesday, Jan. 15. Mr. Watt is a former resident of this city and a brother of Donald H. Watt, N. Court-st.

Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Brungs, E. Union-st., announce the birth of a son, Tuesday.

WORLEY ASKS PROBE OF GAS

Columbus Mayor to Summon Officials to Conference On Alleged Waste.

COLUMBUS, Jan. 16—Mayor Henry E. Worley, of Columbus, chairman of the Ohio Conference of Mayors, today issued a call for a meeting here in the near future to inaugurate plans to force a congressional investigation of natural gas corporations.

The latest attack on the utilities according to Mayor Worley, was prompted by charges that natural gas corporations maintained monopolistic practices and withheld from the Midwest millions of cubic feet of gas now being wasted in the Texas panhandle.

Mayor Worley added that the investigation would seek to determine whether or not a statewide reduction in gas rates would be possible if the Texas panhandle gas were piped into Ohio instead of allegedly being valved into the air.

The dynamic Columbus mayor, who led the recent fight of Ohio city governments for an "equitable share" of sales tax receipts, said that invitations would be forwarded today to all cities represented in the mayors conference and to officials of Milwaukee, St. Louis, Indianapolis and Detroit.

Actual date for the intercity conference, he said, would be set as soon as he was able to confer with representatives of Milwaukee and Toledo. Mayor Hoan of Milwaukee already has requested the conference and Councilman William McCullick of Toledo will introduce a resolution in the city council there Monday to pave the way for participation of the city of Toledo representatives in the meeting.

JOHNSON TO SPEAK

E. F. Johnson, of the Raiston-Purina Co., will speak at the Rotary club meeting Thursday noon explaining the industrial use of soy beans.

MARRIAGE LICENSE

George William Heeter, 45, Circleville, farmer, and Lucille Irene Clark, Circleville.

HOUSE TO REDUCE INAUGURAL COSTS

COLUMBUS, Jan. 16—When the Ohio house of representatives considers the partial appropriation bill upon which a vote was expected today it will find the amount for the inauguration of Gov. Martin L. Davey reduced from an original $8,000 to $5,000.

Republican members of the temporary finance committee, led by Rep. Grant Ward, Columbus, endeavored to slash the figure to $3,500, the amount spent by former Governor White for his first inauguration four years ago, but were repulsed by the Democrats who outnumbered them, 4 to 3.

New Arrivals

Mr. and Mrs. Alex Watt, of Cleveland, announce the birth of a nine pound son, Tuesday, Jan. 15. Mr. Watt is a former resident of this city and a brother of Donald H. Watt, N. Court-st.

Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Brungs, E. Union-st., announce the birth of a son, Tuesday.

OVER MILLION IN U. S. CCC CAMPS

WASHINGTON, Jan. 16—More than 1,000,000 men from the states and the insular possessions, 825,000 of them between 19 and 25 years old, have been given jobs lasting from six to 15 months by the CCC since April 5, 1933, Director Robert Fechner, reported today. Practically all of the January replacements, totaling 68,000, were completed by Jan. 10.

"There are now 360,000 men, including the new enrollment, in the 1,242 regular camps, and 107 Indian, insular and territorial camps," Fechner said.

SHANER TALKS ON CITY BILLS

Says Hospital Superintendent Has Authority To Have Bills Collected.

L. T. Shaner, safety director, came back at Dr. C. C. Beale, county health commissioner, today in a statement answering Dr. Beale's action in telling the county commissioners and township trustees to ignore bills sent to them by a collection agency employed by the city.

"Replying to the statement in Monday's paper about the hospital bills that were given to a collector for collection.

"As your safety director I wish to say that more than $5,000 is due the Berger municipal hospital from the different townships throughout the county and other sources. The date of these past due accounts ranges from the early part of 1931 on—and I fully believe they should have been paid long before this and I know any sensible business man would think the same.

"In spite of our efforts to collect these accounts, along comes some one who thinks he has the authority, advises the townships and the county commissioners not to pay these accounts—perhaps he thinks it 'too sudden'."

"Also I wish to state that by act of council the superintendent of Berger hospital has the right to collect any and all bills due the hospital, and also has the right, I believe, to ask any assistance that might be necessary.

"We are getting along nicely out there, we think, and we do not need a guardian."

HEAVY SNOW HALTS WESTERN RAILWAYS

DENVER, Jan. 16—Railroad officials waited today for a letup in the blizzard that raged through southwestern Colorado before sending snowplows from Alamosa and Durango to dig out two freight and a passenger train marooned at the top of Cumbres pass, more than 10,000 feet above sea level.

A dozen passengers were reported aboard the train. They had comfortable quarters, however, with steam heat in the cars and provisions brought from a supply house on the pass.

Another Denver and Rio Grande Western railroad passenger train was held at Chama, N. M., a few miles south of the pass.

Groce Again Named Insurance Director

Col. C. E. Groce, S. Court-st., was re-elected a director and vice president of the Ohio Grain Dealers Insurance Co. at its meeting held in Columbus Tuesday.

Leon Friedman, of New York City, visited Tuesday night with his mother, Mrs. B. Friedman, E. Mount-st., while on a business trip in this territory.

DAVEY DRAFTS HIS MESSAGE; TO EVADE TAX

Abolition of Liquor Tax, Creation of New Safety Department Seen

TO APPEAR TUESDAY

Moratorium, Bond Issue Moves Delayed

COLUMBUS, Jan. 16 — Scheduled to appear for the first time before a joint session of the Ohio legislature next Tuesday, Gov. Martin L. Davey today set to work drafting a message which will embody many of his most important legislative recommendations.

Still feeling the effect of shaking hands with countless thousands at the inauguration, the new chief executive was favoring his right hand as much as possible, using his left hand to welcome visitors.

He will recommend in his initial message to the legislature that it abolish the $1 a gallon tax on spirituous liquor, which netted the state about $1,700,000 the first year since repeal.

PLANS SAFETY UNIT

His proposal for creation of a state department of public safety to coordinate police powers of the state into a solidified unit for the purpose of squelching racketeers and gangsters will be laid before the general assembly at the same time.

His message was fairly certain to contain a recommendation that the state employ salary reduction act which expired last Dec. 31, thus automatically raising the payroll about $1,500,000 annually, be re-enacted.

"I see no occasion to mention taxation in my first message," said Davey, who feels that sufficient time should elapse to ascertain with some degree of accuracy how much the 3 per cent sales tax will produce before taking further action.

He decided to address the assembly next Tuesday after a long conference with Republican as well as Democratic leaders of both the house and senate. All of them, he said, "indicated a cordial spirit of cooperation."

On the subject of liquor, Governor Davey reiterated his belief that the state should be satisfied with either a tax or a profit and should not collect both. If the legislature should reject his plan for lifting the $1 a gallon tax, he indicated the liquor department will be instructed to slash its present profits.

He also will propose that the present 15 per cent discount allowed on liquor purchased from the state by persons holding permits to re-sell it by the glass, be increased to discourage them from buying illicitly from bootleggers.

(Continued On Page Eight)

BEATTY INJURED BY AFRICAN LION

ROCHESTER, Ind., Jan. 16.—Clyde Beatty, wild animal trainer, suffered today from an assortment of cuts, fractured ribs and bruises inflicted by Sampson, a newly imported African lion that attacked him in the training cage.

Holding a straight backed chair before him as a shield, Beatty was putting the black maned lion through a few simple tricks at the winter quarters here when the animal suddenly charged the noted trainer.

Beatty was hurled across the 40 foot steel grided training arena but managed to fight off the lion with the chair legs until attendants beat Sampson away from the injured trainer. Beatty backed painfully to the door while the others diverted the animal's attention.

In addition to severe cuts and bruises Beatty was found to be suffering from several fractured ribs.

WEBER BACKS BILL FOR $1 TRANSFER

Senator August W. Weber, representing the Pickaway-Franklin district, has presented a bill to permit automobile owners selling cars to transfer plates to the new owners with a fee of $1.

COUNTRY CLUB'S MEMBERS TO MEET

The annual meeting of active members of the Pickaway Country club will be held this evening at 8 o'clock at the club. Trustees are to be elected and other business of importance transacted.

Slays Slapper of Son

Frank Hughes, above, deputy sheriff of Cass-co, Missouri, was charged with first degree murder after police said he admitted he shot and killed Guy George, 42, who supposedly slapped Hughes' son for not having his car parked properly. Authorities said Hughes went to the George home to arrest him but had no warrant.

BANK ROBBERY SUSPECT HELD

Ross-Co Sheriff Asks Custody of Rose, 40, Under Arrest In Kentucky.

Sheriff Joe Vincent, of Ross-co, notified authorities of Mt. Vernon, Ky., and Hamilton, O., that he would like to question William Rose, 40, of Newark as a suspect in the recent blasting-robbery of the Adelphi Banking Co.

Rose is under arrest in the Kentucky town.

It is Vincent's belief that Rose got "the lay of the land" in advance for the Adelphi gang by going to the village about Dec. 1 and representing himself as a buyer of walnut timber.

He started several timber deals and engaged a young man named Nevin Hettinger to assist him. On Dec. 6, Rose took Hettinger and a boy named Queen with him on a trip to Huntington, W. Va. Before leaving Adelphi he made out a check for $15 drawn on the Cincinnati Bank and Trust Company and made payable to Hettinger. At his request, Hettinger endorsed the check and got the money.

At Huntington Rose abandoned his two passengers and they were required to hitch-hike back to Adelphi. Then it was learned that Rose had no such account as the one on which the check was drawn. Rose was not seen after that date. Hettinger filed a charge against him in Squire Hickey's court on the check matter.

More significance attached to his disappearance after the Adelphi bank robbery. On Jan. 4, when it became definitely known here that Rose was said to have been involved in a Hamilton filling station robbery of that date, local officials were more than ever of the belief that he might have had a leading part in the Adelphi crime. Hettinger told officers that while he and Queen waited in the car at Huntington, Rose went into a telephone office and sent a telegram.

(Continued On Page Eight)

FARM BUREAU PLANS FORMED

The Pickaway-co farm bureau has started to make preparations for its annual meeting Tuesday, Jan. 29, at the Methodist Episcopal church.

The feature speaker of the day will be Chester Gray, national farm authority now connected with the administration of the AAA. Other speakers will include Guy Dowdy, AAA compliance officer for Ohio, whose subject will be: "Highlights of the AAA Program for 1935," and "The Status of Extension Work in Pickaway-co," by F. K. Blair, county agent.

A complete program is planned beginning at 10:15 a. m. with a plate lunch to be served at noon by ladies of the church. The program will be completed about 3:30 p. m. with distribution of farm bureau dividend checks.

COGNOVIT IS FILED

A cognovit action for $3,616.13 has been filed in common plea court by Benjamin O. and Aaron Keller against A. S. and Ida Thomas.

COUNTY SHARE OF SALES TAX STAMPS HERE

Pickaway Is Sent $27,300 By Sales Division; All Must Be Counted

10 DIFFERENT UNITS

E. W. Weiler Is Assigned To Toledo District

As soon as $27,300 worth of sales tax stamps can be counted in the office of Treasurer Earl L. Hoffman by Mrs. Anna Kiger, who will have complete charge of the work, retail merchants of Circleville and Pickaway-co can obtain stamps which will be necessary when the sales tax is placed in operation, probably within the next ten days or two weeks.

The stamps were received in the treasurer's office Wednesday morning and immediately the tiresome task of counting the stamps was started. It is impossible to say at this time just when the stamps will be ready for distribution.

They come in denominations of 1, 3, 6, 9, 12, 15, 30 and 60 cents $1.50 and $3.

It is necessary for retailers to present the receipt they received when applying for their licenses in order to receive the stamps.

Weiler Is Assigned To Toledo District

Ernest W. Weiler, this city, has been appointed an assistant examiner of the Toledo district under the state sales tax set-up.

Weiler was appointed to the department last week but was not certain when called to Columbus where his territory would be.

The salary of an assistant examiner is $1,600 annually.

Salaries announced by the sales tax division include: district managers, $3,000; senior examiners, $2,400; junior examiners, $2,000 and assistant examiners, $1,600.

County Committee Endorses Six More

The Pickaway-co Democratic executive committee endorsed six more persons for positions, Tuesday evening, when a meeting was held in the auditor's office.

They include: Ernest Weiler, Virgil May, Leo White and W. E. Maloney for positions in the sales tax division of the state tax department.

W. H. Fitzgerald, Monroe-twtp, for time-keeper in the highway department.

Worley Timmons, Monroe-twtp, for a post as farm enumerator. Timons will take the place originally intended for J. M. Tootle, who has declined the post.

EX-SERVICE MEN GATHER TONIGHT

All ex-service men of Circleville and Pickaway-co are urged to attend the meeting at Memorial hall at 8 o'clock this evening at which time many of the veterans' problems will be discussed by John M. Brockie, Mt. Sterling publisher, and other speakers.

While the meeting is sponsored by Howard Hall post American Legion, all veterans will be welcome, legionnaires or not. Brockie's message is of importance to all war vets.

Entertainment and lunch will also be provided for those attending.

RALSTON PURINA PRODUCT DAMAGED

Meal and feed hauled for the Raiston-Purina Co. by William Teets was destroyed Tuesday as a result of a collision in the Paint creek bridge, Chillicothe.

The truck was enroute to Charleston and Kenova, W. Va., when the driver crashed into a guard rail after blinded by lights of an approaching car.

No one was injured but much of the feed was lost.

NEW LICENSE TAG FEE IS PROPOSED

COLUMBUS, Jan. 16—A new schedule of automobile license fees is proposed in a bill on file in the Ohio senate today.

Introduced by Senator W. H. Herner (D), Norwalk, the measure would change the license fee schedule to a graduated system of automobile license charges based on the cost of motor vehicles.

Fees provided in the bill range from $9 on a $500 car to $72.75 for cars costing more than $5,000. Fees are scaled down, however, each year for four years.

THE CIRCLEVILLE HERALD

Consolidation of The Circleville Herald established in 1883, and the Daily Union-Herald, established in 1894.

A Democratic newspaper, published evenings except Sunday by THE CIRCLEVILLE PUBLISHING COMPANY
West Main St., Circleville, Ohio

K. J. HERRMANN, Manager
E. K. JENKINS, Editor GLEN GEIB, Managing Editor

Member Ohio Newspaper Association, International News Service, Central Press Association, Ohio Select List, Bureau of Advertising.

NATIONAL ADVERTISING REPRESENTATIVE
JOHN W. CULLEN COMPANY
No. 8 South Michigan Ave., Chicago, 501 Fifth Ave., New York City
General Motors Building, Detroit, Mich.

SUBSCRIPTION RATES
By carrier in Circleville, 15c per week, $6 per year, in advance. By mail, Pickaway County and Circleville trading territory, per year, $3; Zones one and two, $4 per year, beyond first and second postal zone, per year, $5.50.

Entered at Postoffice at Circleville, Ohio, as Second Class Matter.

OLD-FASHIONED HOME

AFTER 37 years on the bench listening to tales of domestic troubles, Judge John J. Brady of Albany on his retirement offers a plea for the old-fashioned home headed by the proper sort of parents. In the last analysis it comes down to the parents, he says, despite all the talk of "modernity," with too much speed in arriving at vital decisions lurking in the background.

The judge does not think the fault lies wholly with the children. There are too many hasty marriages and lack of proper matings. There is too much "temperament"—an easy excuse for many things. The so-called problem child is the result. Originally the child was not a problem if the parents were not themselves problems to begin with. The average child is of the most plastic material, capable of being trained from the very start to grow into a fine adult, regardless of sex. He most certainly is not born a problem, no matter what "modernity" may say.

"Wild parties" are not held in homes ruled in the "old" fashion, and "flaming youth" is not nurtured in them. An outworn attitude? Maybe—like the spirit that animates the Ten Commandments.

RIGHT TO CRITICIZE COURTS

A DECISION of importance to the right of free speech has been given by the Indiana supreme court in reversing the order of a lower court holding the editor of a Wabash paper, who has since died, in contempt for publishing editorials criticizing the appointment by the lower court of a receiver for a bank in Wabash. The defendant was sentenced to serve 10 days in jail and to pay a fine of $100.

"The right to comment freely and criticize the actions, opinions and judgments of courts is of primary importance to the public generally," the opinion of the supreme court says. "Not only is it good for the public, but it has a salutary effect on the courts as well. Courts and judges are not, and should not be,—above criticism, and as long as they are not impeded in the conduct of judicial business by publications having the effect of obstructing the enforcement of their orders and judgments, or of impairing the justice and impartiality of verdicts, there is no right to enforce a contempt proceeding."

This is a sensible judgment, one which recognizes the fallibility of the human element, even when exalted by circumstances, also the fundamental rights of the people. It will contribute to greater respect for, and confidence in, the courts.

GARLIC AND CABBAGE

AMONG right-thinking people there will be general regret over the report from Paris that a distinguished French scientist has succeeded, after lengthy experimentation, in grafting garlic and cabbage plants. This is just another evidence of the trivial, futile and even vicious ends which science is compelled to serve by men lacking in a proper conception of its dignity and importance in the scheme of life.

There are varying opinions concerning the palatability of cabbage. There are hearty, robust souls who sing its praises, others with whom it finds little favor. Friends and critics alike agree, however, that it is an honest sort of vegetable, redolent of the soil, and with certain health-giving qualities that are really important to physical welfare. French encyclopedias define garlic as "an onion of an odor very strong." This is but a half-truth, gently expressed. Garlic is, in fact, something far different and infinitely worse than an onion with a strong odor. Its introduction into civilized society can be described only as cruel and inhuman.

Why then should the pure art of science be corrupted by the utilization of its powers for the grafting of garlic and cabbage plants? No acceptable answer can be given and righteous people can only lament the sins committed in the fair name of science.

As a rule, as you look so are you looked upon.

Time cures everything, but it takes such a long time.

Practice makes perfect, but who wants to be a perfect liar?

You can tell about how a boy will turn out if you know what time he turns it.

The ideal tax is one that gets the greatest possible revenue from the least possible number of voters.

The University of Nevada is establishing a school in divorce. The faculty, no doubt, will be recruited in Hollywood.

Now that it's been decided that there are no people on Mars, the joke seems to be on those citizens of our own planet who have been receiving messages from there.

Looking Back In Pickaway County

FIVE YEARS AGO

Appropriations for the city's operating expenses for the year totaled $76,000, an increase of $10,000 over the previous year because of the added expense of the new city hospital.

Dr. D. V. Courtright, Robert Brehrer and C. A. Weldon were re-elected as members of the board of trustees of the Pickaway County club.

Mrs. Telitha Curni Wolford, 74, prominent Jackson-twp. woman, died at her home, death being due to paralysis.

15 YEARS AGO

Frank W. Grice purchased the 90-acre farm of Ned Bell in Jackson-twp and expected to build a modern home there.

R. B. Anderson of Williamsport, miraculously escaped injury when a car which he was driving was struck by a train at Woodlyn. The car was demolished.

Stephen R. Washburn was checked in as local agent for the American Railway Express company. He succeeded R. E. Swope who had been in charge of the office for eight years. Theodore Hatzio succeeded Washburn as cashier.

25 YEARS AGO

The Circleville postoffice in 1909 showed the largest volume of business in its history. The receipts amounted to $15,470.05.

Oliver Lannan, farmer near Robtown, was seriously burned about the face, neck, arms and legs when he attempted to revive the fire in a heating stove with kerosene. His clothing caught fire from the explosion.

George Roth, Jr., resigned as local agent for the Scioto Valley Traction company. He was succeeded by Harry B. Welch, who had been assistant agent. E. E. Reichelderfer was named as assistant to Welch.

Little Sister

by MARGARET WIDDEMER

READ THIS FIRST:

"Lella Maany, an orphan, has been trying to halt the elopement of her reckless young sister, Bet, with Addison Huntington, a romantic radical. Jerry Redmond, a newspaper reporter, has been helping her because of his friendship for Addison's brother who was Jerry's roommate at Yale. They are all at Lella's home in Westchester where Addison and Jerry meet Aunt Minnie and Mrs. Johnston-Hedges, mother of Lella's sweetheart and aristocratic neighbor, Orton Johnston-Hedges. They have just come from Bet's New York apartment where Addison narrowly escaped the police who sought him for questioning in connection with the whereabouts of an acquaintance and alleged forger named Jarecki. Addison makes an excellent impression upon Aunt Minnie and Mrs. Johnston-Hedges. Addison makes it clear he and his wealthy father do not get along, but Aunt Minnie doesn't know this. Bet borrows $5 from Lella to buy Addison a collar to replace the one he left in New York when he disguised himself as a girl to fool the police. To Lella's surprise the dinner goes off very pleasantly. (NOW GO ON WITH THE STORY!)"

CHAPTER 17

"AUNT MINNIE, do stop rambling," said Bet. Addison looked at Bet, a little shocked. He already liked Aunt Minnie. But Aunt Minnie was so used to being sat on by Bet that she answered her, sweetly unconscious.

"Rambling, darling? Why, I wasn't rambling at all. I was explaining to Mr. Huntington why I was so sure of dear Florrie's loyalty. Because of course poor papa's selling off the land made a difference. It changed our status with many of the more unthinking and purse-proud people. Especially when papa didn't get any money after all, owing to something they called reorganizing. Though it was all the same men and really I think they must have been dishonest. But Florrie simply said, 'Well, dear Minnie, my advice to you is to call on all the new people in these houses and keep in touch with them. They will be so socially welcomed and will not be an antagonistic element, and yet (as you can't give large affairs any more) it won't obligate the rest of us beyond my own New Year's reception yearly, which is free to all.'"

"That whole group makes me simply ill," she said. "So earnest and civic and what have you, and managing everything better than Tammany."

Addison took a hand here. "Elizabeth, my dear," he said, "I hope you are not in earnest in saying that you disapprove of anything earnest and civic. In these times it is a cause for great regret that more earnestness and civic interest are not displayed."

If Lella had been Bet she would have turned on him. Lella even became slightly clamorous for the moment, and felt furious with a strange young man for walking in here and telling her sister how to behave. But to and behold, Bet took it all and liked it!

"I didn't mean that," she said, even with a slight note of apology in her voice. It was the first time anybody (except her nurse, who had spanked her) had ever heard an apology out of Bet. "It's just that the Johnston-Hedges run things the way they want them themselves, and pretend it's unselfish and noble."

Lella said nothing to this. She had never considered it much one way or the other. If you have a childlike aunt and an irresponsible sister, you are tied down to the concrete problems of the days as they come. At least it did not deserve the further rebuke Addison gave her. Lella's collar and tie and shirt on him at that moment, and their guinea hen inside him—calmly offered.

"Elizabeth!" Addison said in a voice that he certainly must have inherited from his father. It was so dogmatic, "I don't approve of old-fashioned dogma. But don't you realize that you have no right to judge your friends as easily as you do? What have you done for the state?"

And Bet never pouted even. She continued to look at him with reverence.

As for Aunt Minnie, she smiled absently and said, "Yes, indeed." To her, men were a species of all powerful children, unreasonable deities, capable of the gift or the thunderbolt, but not what you paid attention to really.

"As I was saying," she went on, "Florrie came today with little Orton to tell me about this dreadful performance on the part of the improvements."

As Aunt Minnie spoke the word, an improvement might have been either a low type of plague germ or a band of irreclaimable savages. "Not that some of my best friends don't live in improvements," she said charitably. "Now where is that list of people to be telephoned to that Florrie gave me? Some of them I'll have to call on personally, of course. She says perhaps a small tea party might be the easiest way."

Trees & Forests

BY W. M. REID

As I travel over the roads of this and adjoining counties in the Scioto valley, I try to imagine the whole country covered as it once was with the magnificent forests that have been destroyed to make the fertile farms that now produce food for the thousands.

All that remains of the woods are a few scraggly woodlots and fringes of trees along the steep sides of the streams. One in a while a magnificent specimen may be sighted, but its top is broken and shattered by the storms from which it has no protection from the presence of its fellows.

When trees grow singly in open spaces or fields the branches grow near the earth, the tree spreads itself out over a wide space and is not of much account for lumber, but when it grows in a group with many of its fellows crowding it, the growth is upward toward the sunlight and the result is a long saw-log and fine cleargrained lumber. When a forest is lumbered off the remaining trees are soon ruined by storms and the top is battered by the winds and the body is split, or, as the lumber men say, wind-shaken. Very seldom do these trees last long. So it was unusual for us today to see a really large tree such as the early settlers saw when the country was new. Many of the original forest trees were three, four, and five or more feet in diameter.

Until a few years ago, there stood in the middle of the road, between Saltcreek and Pickaway-twps, a bur oak seven feet in diameter.

Henry Howe, in his Ohio Historical Collections, tells of a sycamore at Waverly that was used as a blacksmith shop, the hollow of which was so large that a man with a ten-foot fence rail could stir around inside without touching the sides. I remember when a boy of seeing the hollow stumps of a sycamore at Westfall that housed a dozen or more good-sized hogs. We admire the great size of Logan Elm, but in the primeval forest that covered the country there must have been many that surpassed it in size. This tree has grown in a comparatively open space as the height of its limbs indicate. It will be difficult to keep it alive very many years longer as it has probably reached the age of penury for its species and, like all living things, die of old age.

The early botanists had less difficulty in identifying the different species of trees than we have today. Then the trees were full size and their characteristics were outstanding. Today we have stunted counterparts of the originals, and saplings that have had a struggle to exist, on which to base identifications.

It is still possible to find specimens of all the trees that composed the original forest. No variety is believed to have disappeared but that specimens can be found growing yet. But the nut-bearing trees from now on are not likely to be perpetuated on account of the prevalence of insect enemies that destroy most of the fruits before they can mature. The elms and sycamores are not so affected, and whenever opportunity is given they soon cover the surface with seedlings. So with the pines of southern and eastern Ohio.

Plants are so persistent that I believe that if Pickaway-co was to be depopulated for 25 years and then we could come back to find the entire surface covered with forest, that the mature growth that formerly existed, but forest trees nevertheless, elms, sycamores, and shrubs would first come because of their profuse seeding qualities with the others following as protection became better. The hardier trees, such as the oaks, ashes, hickories, will grow best when in competition with other trees of less hardiness.

We sometimes deplore the destruction of the original magnificent forest, but man must have food and as he could not eat trees he must destroy them to make place for fields of wheat and corn. But there are vast areas in the state that should be, and I hope soon, covered again with trees as conservators of water and producers of wood for the benefit of mankind.

GRAB BAG

Who said: "I purpose to fight it out on this line, if it takes all summer?"

What phantom ship may be seen off Cape of Good Hope in stormy weather?

What Spanish city and what Syrian city were famous for the quality of the steel weapons which they manufactured?

Correctly Spelling—

Capitalize club, company, society or any other common noun, when it is made a component part of a proper noun.

Words of Wisdom

When we desire to confine our words, we commonly say they are spoken under the rose.—Sir Thomas Browne.

Today's Horoscope

Persons born on this day do not fling money away lavishly, and have much ambition.

Answers to Foregoing Questions

1. Ulysses S. Grant, in a dispatch to Washington, May 11, 1864.
2. The Flying Dutchman.
3. Toledo, Spain, and Damascus, Syria.

Today's Yesterdays

January 16.
1580—English parliament imposed a fine of $100 for absence from church.
1793—King Louis XVI of France sentenced to death.

1874—Birth of Robert W. Service.
1893—Hawaiian monarchy overthrown and throne abolished.

1915—All manufacturing plants east of Mississippi, Minnesota and Louisiana ordered to close for 10 following Mondays.
1920—18th (prohibition) amendment went into effect at midnight.

One Minute Pulpit

For thus saith the Lord: Like as I have brought all this great evil upon this people, so will I bring upon them all the good that I have promised them.—Jeremiah 33:42.

Heard & Seen

BY KAY JAY

BACK IN 1906

Circleville and Pickaway-co were well represented at the inauguration ceremonies, and, as the old-time cross-roads correspondent would express it, "a good time was had by all." The news dispatches tell us that the party was a success from every standpoint and that the reins of government were given into new hands without any casualties. The old boys stepped down and out, and the new ones stepped in—just like that—and when the smoke cleared away, the music and hilarity faded out, the state's business was resumed as usual.

Many local people have recalled the inauguration of Governor John M. Pattison, which took place early in January, 1906, and I've heard quite a number of remarks concerning the inclement weather of that day. That reminds me that this was the only inauguration I ever attended in the state of Ohio, and I well remember that there was from six to eight inches of snow and slush on the ground. But this did not prevent a big mob of humanity gathering for the festive occasion, and enjoying it to the fullest extent. Business houses, particularly the type that did a rushing business on that eventful day (the kind that provided a brass rail in front of a long counter) were shootop deep in slush carried in on the feet of the customers, and it required a number of "hot ones" to offset the effects of atmospheric conditions and wet feet. Imbibing was freely indulged in by saint and sinner alike, as it was on another memorable occasion—November 11, 1918. Remember?

Pattison's inauguration was a colorful event. The Democrats were hungry for the limelight, as they had been entirely out of the political picture in Ohio since Governor Harmon retired in 1890, and they gathered in Columbus from all parts of the state to celebrate the first Democratic gubernatorial victory in 16 long years. And what a day of celebration it was!

Governor Pattison was not well the day of the inauguration. He returned to his home in Clermont county that night, and was never in his office afterward. He died the following June. Many believed that exposure to the inclement weather during the inauguration ceremonies hastened his death.

So far as this writer knows, he was the last of Ohio's governors to wear a full beard.

Factographs

Stock exchanges as institutions had their origin at the time of the creation of public debts on the modern plan, at the close of the seventeenth century.

An inquiline is an insect which lays its eggs in a nest of some other insect, thus living parasitically at the expense of the host.

A severe epidemic in 412 B. C. described by Hippocrates and Livius, is thought to have been influenza.

Limestone consists of carbonate of lime and some impurity which gives the stone its color.

BACK ON THE CONCRETE AGAIN

THEATRES

AT THE GRAND

"Grand Canary," the fascinating best seller, by A. J. Cronin, is Warner Baxter's next starring vehicle, coming to the Grand Theatre, Wednesday. It is a truly magnificent love story, which gives Baxter one of his finest romantic roles.

The story opens with Baxter as an eminent young doctor and scientist boarding a ship for Canary Islands. His career is apparently wrecked, and he believes he is sailing to oblivion. On the same ship is Madge Evans, sailing from an unhappy marriage. Although they are irresistibly drawn to one another, their sense of honor prevents them from admitting their love.

AT THE CLIFTONA

Is an officer of the law justified in protecting his sweetheart by allowing her to escape from the scene of murder? Must the aged problem of love versus duty again be decided in favor of the latter?

These questions are dramatically answered in Columbia's "White Lies," featuring Walter Connolly, Fay Wray and Victor Jory, which comes tonight and Thursday to the Cliftona Theatre. In one of its most poignant situations, Victor Jory, as the officer, is called upon to arrest his affianced, Fay Wray, who has been found in an apartment with a murdered man. The drama is effectively heightened when it is known that only Jory is aware of her presence, and by permitting her to leave can save her from any implication in the crime.

How Jory acts in this predicament and the dramatic consequences that follow make for one of the most interesting and nerve-tugging climaxes.

The screen play is from the pen of Harold Shumate and was directed by Leo Bulgakov, former member of the Moscow Art Theatre, who is now in Hollywood for the first time.

Poems That Live

A KISS

Rose kissed me today.
Will she kiss me tomorrow?
Let it be as it may,
Rose kissed me today
But the pleasure gives way
To a savor of sorrow;
Rose kissed me today.
Will she kiss me tomorrow?
—Austin Dobson

GLAD DAY

Here's another day, dear,
Here's the sun again
Peeping in his pleasant way
Through the window pane.
Rise and let him in, dear,
Hail him "hip hurrah!"
Now the fun will all begin
Here's another day!

Modern Treatment for Rheumatic Heart

Vaccine Has Been Successfully Used in Lessening Severity of This Dreaded Complication of Rheumatic Fever

By ROYAL S. COPELAND, M. D.
United States senator from New York
Former Commissioner of Health,
New York City

EVERYBODY IS familiar with the term "rheumatism" and applies it to all sorts of aches and pains. The real disease, known to the doctors as "acute rheumatic fever," is one of the most serious ailments of modern life. It is especially dangerous because it commonly afflicts undisciplined children and leads to that dreaded complication known as "rheumatic heart."

In former years little was known about this serious disorder. Even now it continues to prove fatal or disabling. Though the actual cause of the disease has not been discovered, various methods of treatment have been developed which have lessened its severity.

Dr. Copeland

Yet it took its annual toll of lives and even now continues to prove fatal or disabling. Though the actual cause of the disease has not been discovered, various methods of treatment have been developed which have lessened its severity.

Modern Treatment

The use of a vaccine has been of considerable value in the treatment of rheumatic heart. This vaccine is obtained from a growth of a special strain of a germ with a big name, the "streptococcus." Even though this particular germ has not been proved to be the actual cause of rheumatic fever, it is commonly encountered in most cases of the disease. It is taken from the throat of a patient suffering from acute rheumatic fever or from one who has recently recovered.

In addition to the use of this vaccine, successful results have been obtained from the reaction produced by the injection of other substances, such as milk or horse serum. The chosen substance is injected under the skin.

Following the injection, the patient has a chill, increased fever, and an increase in the number of white cells in the blood. After this there is a decline in fever and lessening of the symptoms. The results have been extremely beneficial in some cases, but I am sorry to say, equally disappointing in others.

Local Infections

Of great importance in the treatment of children and adults suffering from rheumatic fever, is the elimination of all centers of infection. Infected tonsils, teeth, nasal sinuses and similar conditions anywhere else in the body are detrimental to the health and recovery of the patient. Of course, such localized infections cannot be given attention during an acute attack. But it is advisable to take care of them as soon as the acute symptoms subside.

Since rheumatic fever is rarely encountered in tropical and subtropical climates, it is sometimes advisable for the sufferer from this affliction to move to a warm climate. For those who can afford it, a prolonged stay in Florida, Bermuda, Cuba or in Puerto Rico is of great benefit. I realize that for most of us this is impossible, but in any event sunshine, fresh air and a nourishing and liberal diet will be of great help to the sufferer.

It is probable that it won't be long before a definite cure for rheumatic fever will be developed. But at present careful and prolonged medical attention is essential to recovery. Every effort should be made to prevent such serious complications as rheumatic heart.

Answers to Health Queries

R. M. Q.—What do you advise to clear the complexion of pimples and other blemishes? I am a boy of sixteen and feel embarrassed by the condition of my face.

A.—Proper diet and regular habits should bring about general improvement. For full particulars send a self-addressed, stamped envelope and repeat your question.

ON THE AIR

WEDNESDAY EVENING

7:15—Just Plain Bill, CBS; Plantation Echoes, NBC.

7:30—Arthur Tracy, the street singer, WGN.

8:00—Mary Pickford, modern plays and players, NBC; Jenthouse party, Mark Hellinger and Gladys Glad, WLW.

8:15—Edwin C. Hill, "The Human Side of the News," CBS.

8:30—Lanny Ross, NBC; Everett Marshall's Broadway Varieties, CBS; Henry Thies, WLW.

9:00—Town Hall Tonight, Fred Allen, WLW; 20,000 Years in Sing Sing, Warden Lewis E. Lawes, NBC.

9:30—John McCormack, tenor, NBC; Burns and Allen, CBS.

THURSDAY EVENING

6:00—Xavier Cugat's orchestra, NBC.

7:15—Whispering Jack Smith, NBC.

7:30—Al Bernard and the Merry Minstrel, NBC.

7:45—Boake Carter, news, CBS.

8:00—O. Henry stories, NBC; Vallee's hour, WLW.

8:30—Forum of Liberty with Edwin C. Hill, CBS.

9:00—Show Boat with Lanny Ross, NBC; The Caravan, Walter O'Keefe, Annette Hanshaw and others, CBS.

9:30—Fred Waring's music, CBS; Unsolved Mysteries, WLW.

Modern Treatment for Rheumatic Heart

Vaccine Has Been Successfully Used in Lessening Severity of This Dreaded Complication of Rheumatic Fever

By ROYAL S. COPELAND, M. D.

United States senator from New York
Former Commissioner of Health,
New York City

EVERYBODY IS familiar with the term "rheumatism" and applies it to all sorts of aches and pains. The real disease, known to the doctors as "acute rheumatic fever," is one of the most serious ailments of modern life. It is especially dangerous because it commonly afflicts undisciplined children and leads to that dreaded complication known as "rheumatic heart."

In former years little was known about this serious disorder. Even now it continues to prove fatal or disabling. Though the actual cause of the disease has not been discovered, various methods of treatment have been developed which have lessened its severity.

Yet it took its annual toll of lives and even now continues to prove fatal or disabling. Though the actual cause of the disease has not been discovered, various methods of treatment have been developed which have lessened its severity.

The use of a vaccine has been of considerable value in the treatment of rheumatic heart. This vaccine is obtained from a growth of a special strain of a germ with a big name, the "streptococcus." Even though this particular germ has not been proved to be the actual cause of rheumatic fever, it is commonly encountered in most cases of the disease. It is taken from the throat of a patient suffering from acute rheumatic fever or from one who has recently recovered.

In addition to the use of this vaccine, successful results have been obtained from the reaction produced by the injection of other substances, such as milk or horse serum. The

IN SOCIETY

Miss Helen Crist, Editor, Phone 581

D. A. R. Has Annual Dinner at Watts Home; Dr. Murphy Talks

When Pickaway Plains chapter Daughters of the American Revolution held its annual covered-dish dinner in honor of husbands and guests of the organization, a large attendance was noted. The pleasant evening was spent at the home of Dr. and Mrs. C. C. Watts, E. Main-st., Tuesday.

A bountiful dinner was served at 6 o'clock under the chairmanship of Mrs. Watts. Mrs. Anna Ball, Mrs. William T. Elm, Mrs. R. R. Bales, Mrs. Charles Edward Wright, Miss Mary Wilder and Miss Charlotte Caldwell.

A brief business session ensued with Mrs. James Moffitt serving as acting recording secretary and corresponding secretary. The treasurer's report was given by Mrs. William Mack.

Letters were read from Lancaster and Washington C. H. D. A. R. chapters responding to the invitation to the benefit card party, Jan. 24, at 8 p. m. at Memorial hall post room sponsored by the local chapter. The public is invited and those desiring to attend can make reservations with Mrs. George Foreman, Mrs. Frank Bennett and Mrs. Harry Heffner.

Mrs. Frank Bennett, chairman of 1935-36 program committee, made a few requests in regard to committee's work. Delegates were elected to the State D. A. R. conference in Cleveland in March. They include Mrs. Harry J. Dunlap, Mrs. G. P. Hunsicker, Mrs. Bryce Briggs and Mrs. Orion King. Alternates are Mrs. Glenn I. Nickerson, Mrs. Ella Hornbeck, Mrs. William Mack and Miss Sallie Caldwell.

Mrs. G. K. Hunsicker will attend the conference as a state officer.

Delegates to the National D. A. R. congress in Washington

in April will be Mrs. Harry J. Dunlap and Mrs. G. P. Hunsicker; Alternates, Mrs. George P. Foreman, Mrs. Ella Hornbeck, Mrs. Bryce Briggs and Mrs. Orion King.

Music for the program was furnished by Hillaire Haacker, who played a number of entertaining accordion selections.

Dr. D. J. Murphy, head doctor of the Veterans' hospital near Chillicothe, was introduced as the speaker of the evening by Mrs. Harry Dunlap, presiding regent.

He told of the care of World War veterans in that institution, which was turned over to the U. S. Public Health Service. Many hospitals were erected. In 1924 a reorganization took place and in 1931 congress asked the President to consolidate.

There are two classes of veterans administration buildings, the hospitals and domiciles or homes to the number of seventy-seven. While there were accommodations for only 450 patients at the hospital in the opening of that institution there are now accommodations for the 1115 individuals being cared for there.

Dr. Murphy stated there was a manager over the Medical, Finance, Supply and Utility service. Graduate nurses, only, are employed and expert dieticians plan the menus for the day when some 1500 persons are fed.

A vineyard, orchard, dairy and garden with poultry, hogs and beef are available as a source of food

TENNESSEE'S REIGNING BEAUTY

Mary Ellen Baldock

Picked from more than 2,000 students, Mary Ellen Baldock is the new beauty queen at the University of Tennessee, at Knoxville.

A senior, she was selected by a committee of prominent artists from a group of 24 beauties chosen by the student body.

and employment to the hospital patients.

For recreation a theatre, radio, swimming pool, golf course and athletic field provide amusement. Dr. Murphy expressed deep appreciation of the part Circleville citizens have played in furnishing entertainment at the hospital. Mrs. James Moffitt, chairman of the Pickaway-co recreational unit, has been most active in her district and has been responsible for the direction of this work so admirably accomplished.

Guest day and a tea will be held in February at the home of Mrs. Henry Lewis, E. Main-st. Members are kindly reminded to communicate with Mrs. Lewis if they anticipate attending.

SCIOTO VALLEY GRANGE TO SPONSOR PLAY JAN. 17

The Scioto Valley Grange will sponsor a play, a three act comedy, at the Ashville high school auditorium, Thursday evening, Jan. 17, at 8 o'clock. The public is invited.

"Here Comes Charlie" is the name of the production which will be presented by Miss Frances Lincoln, Junior Ruff, Mrs. Herman Berger, Carl Cordray, Harry Speakman, Miss Helen Dresbach, Ralph Fischer, Miss Jean Vause, Miss Virginia McCord and John Peters.

MRS. DAVISON ENTERTAINS

Miss Mary Heffner, Mrs. Charles Smith and Mrs. Clarence Hoti were substituting guests when Mrs. L. B. Davison, W. Franklin-st., entertained the members of her bridge club at her home Tuesday evening.

Three tables of cards were in play and favors for high score went to Mrs. Ralph Bell and Miss Florence Dunton.

A delicious lunch was served after the game. The club will meet in two weeks at the home of Miss Florence Dunton, S. Court-st.

DAUGHTER OF HALLSVILLE RESIDENTS IS MARRIED

Of interest here and in the Hallsville vicinity is the marriage of Miss Pauline Elliot, daughter of Rev. and Mrs. H. C. Elliot of Hallsville, to a noted Mexican baritone and opera singer, Senor Alejandro Rosas, which took place recently in New York.

The bride formerly made her home in Columbus. She is a distinguished pianist and organist having studied pipe organ in Columbus with William Dalton and later piano at Cincinnati Conservatory of Music. She is at present a member of the dance, music and drama faculty of the University of the State of New York. Her brother, Mr. Floyd E. Elliot, is an instructor of violin and conductor at the Capital Conservatory of Music in Columbus.

Senor Rosas has studied music in New York and Milan, Italy. He made his debut in Italy and toured that country in an operatic career. At present he is singing over the National Broadcasting company.

The marriage took place at the West Park Presbyterian church in New York-city with Dr. Alexander Evans officiating.

LARGE CROWD EXPECTED AT FIRST OF DANCE SERIES

A large crowd is expected to attend the first of a series of three dances to be sponsored by the Monumental association at Memorial hall. The first is to be held this Friday night.

Walt Sears and his eleven piece orchestra of Chillicothe will furnish the music from 9 until 11 o'clock. The orchestra features Chet Grimm, vocalist, and Bobby Meeks, accordionist.

Proceeds of the dance will help pay for material used on the hall during the remodeling last fall.

Salt Absolute Necessity

Salt is an absolute necessity to human life because it is necessary to form the hydrochloric acid in the stomach.

Marian Martin Pattern

Complete, Diagrammed Marian Martin Sew Chart Included. PATTERN 9195

The mother of an active little girl, knows there are two things to ask when selecting her play frocks—first, "is it pretty" and second, but just as important, "will it be pretty after hard wear and many tubbings?" Here's a demure little design that is just right for any of the wearable, washable cotton fabrics. It's certainly full of small-girl chic as you can see by the perky little round collar, scalloped bodice closing and patch pockets. There isn't one little fussy detail to catch and tear either when sister is romping in it or when you are laundering it. Well-cut, roomy bloomers are included in the pattern.

Pattern 9195 may be ordered only in sizes 2, 4, 6 and 8. Size 4 requires 2 1/2 yards 36 inch fabric. Send FIFTEEN CENTS in coins or stamps (coins preferred) for EACH MARIAN MARTIN pattern. Be sure to write plainly your NAME, ADDRESS, the STYLE NUMBER and SIZE of each pattern.

Do not miss our WINTER PATTERN BOOK of smart, easy-to-make clothes designed by our style authority, MARIAN MARTIN. Styles for every age and all occasions. PRICE OF BOOK FIFTEEN CENTS. BOOK AND PATTERN TOGETHER TWENTY-FIVE CENTS.

Send your order to The Herald Pattern Department, 124 W. Main-st., Circleville, O. cleville, O.

Social Calendar

WEDNESDAY

Ladies' society of Ringgold Lutheran church to meet at 2 p. m. at the home of Mrs. William May and Mrs. Roy May.

You Go I Go sewing club meets at 2 p. m. at the home of Mrs. Ada Wilson, W. High-st.

Intermediate choir of Trinity Lutheran church will have a special rehearsal at 7 p. m.

Sewing circle of the D. U. V. will meet at 2 p. m. in the Post room at Memorial hall.

THURSDAY

Shining Light Bible class of the United Brethren church will meet for a short business session at 7 p. m. in the class room of the church. After the business the class will attend in a body the union services at the church at 7:30 p. m.

Majors' temple Pythian Sisters have bimonthly meeting at 7:30 p. m. in the temple. New officers will serve the lunch.

Papyrus club will have meeting at 2:30 p. m. at the home of Mrs. Charles Gilmore, S. Court-st.

Tarleton Presbyterian Ladies' Aid will meet at 7:30 p. m. at the home of Mrs. Earl Ketterman of Leistville.

FRIDAY

Women's Social club of the Presbyterian church will meet Friday at 7:30 p. m. in the church basement. Mrs. George McDowell is chairman of the program-committee and Mrs. J. O. Eagleson, chairman of the hostess committee.

Pickaway-co Garden club will meet at 7:30 p. m. at the home of Mrs. Harry Lewis, E. Main-st. Dr. Howard Jones will be the speaker of the evening.

Merrill-makers sewing circle of the Eastern Star will meet at the home of Mrs. Robert Denman, N. Pickaway-st. at 2 p. m.

MONDAY

Monday club to meet in Library trustees' room at Memorial hall at 7:30 p. m. The World government's division, under the chairmanship of Mrs. Charles Gerhardt, will be in charge of the program. Papers will be given by Miss Carrie Johnson and Mrs. Arthur Wilder.

TUESDAY

Circleville chapter Order of the Eastern Star will have a regular business meeting at 7:30 p. m. followed by initiation after which a social hour will be enjoyed. Each member is requested to bring sandwiches.

Logan Elm Grange will have installation of officers at 7:30 p. m. at the Pickaway-twp school.

MRS. GIVEN ENTERTAINS CLUB AT DINNER PARTY

A delightful informal dinner party was entertained by Mrs. Bishop Given, S. Court-st., Tuesday evening, when she assembled members of her Tuesday night card club and two guests, Mrs. Melvin Yates and Miss Virginia Given, at her home for dinner at 6 o'clock.

Calendulas centered the attractively appointed tables for the delicious dinner. The gaiety of the dinner hour was prolonged throughout the evening spent at the card tables.

At the conclusion of the interesting contract bridge game Miss Helen Hitler was awarded high score prize.

Enjoying the affair were Mrs. Yates, Miss Given, Mrs. Mark Armstrong, Mrs. Glen Geib, Mrs. Joseph Burns, Mrs. Ralph Wallace, Miss Thelma O'Hara, Mrs. Sterling Lamb and Miss Helen Hitler.

Miss Hitler, W. Mound-st., invited the club to meet at her home in two weeks.

D. U. V. INSTALLS THREE OFFICERS

Following the regular meeting of the Daughters of the Union Veterans Tuesday evening at Memorial hall in charge of the new president, Mrs. Charles Stoffer, three officers were installed.

The officers, installed by Mrs. Stoffer, who were unable to be present at regular installation services, included Mrs. Adie V. Morris, secretary; Miss Nellie Palm, guide, and Mrs. Irene Jenkins, color bearer No. 4.

SALLY'S SALLIES

The best example of a square meal is a dog biscuit.

GRAND Theatre
Tonight and Thursday
WARNER BAXTER WITH MADGE EVANS in
"Grand Canary"
News Vitaphone Act Comedy
Family Night Prices.

Eggshell Pajamas

These sleeping pajamas are in a dainty eggshell color and are almost like a nightgown. The scalloped edges and the sashlike belt-line add to their daintiness. Josephine Hutchinson, formerly of the New York Theater Guild, but now starring in films, is the model.

OBITUARY

Stephen A. Douglas Burgoon, the son of John and Elizabeth Hurrell Burgoon, was born in Vinton-co, Ohio, Aug. 19, 1860; and departed this life in Circleville, Ohio, Dec. 29, 1934 at the age of 74 yrs., 4 months and 10 days.

Death was due to complications from which he had suffered for a long period of time.

He was united in marriage with Elizabeth Wyatt, n Vinton-co, Ohio, on Jan. 14, 1881; and to this union six daughters were born.

His wife, father, mother, four brothers, four sisters and three daughters having preceded him in death, he leaves to mourn their loss: three daughters, Mrs. Charles Graham, Mrs. John Peters of Circleville, O.; one sister, Mrs. Margaret Woodruff of Bloomingsville, O.; 18 grandchildren and 7 great-grandchildren. Also a host of other relatives and friends.

He was converted several years ago and became affiliated with The Bible Christian Church at that time; remaining under that faith until his untimely departure. He testified just short time before going, saying "It won't be long until I will cross the river of Jordan."

He will be remembered as a very good neighbor and will be greatly missed by those who knew and loved him.

We read in Ecclesiastes 12:13-14 "Let us hear the conclusion of the whole matter: Fear God and keep his commandments: for this is the whole duty of man."

For God shall bring every work into judgment, with every secret thing, whether it be good, or whether it be evil."

Father Dear! We'll miss you now, that you have gone away.

Just how much, it would be, Oh! so hard to say:

We'll miss your company and song And memory, naturally will linger on;

When evening comes, and the lights are low, We'll think of you, with your kindly brow,

Remember your songs, you sang for years, We too, will try to sing them through our tears.

God loved us all; and Jesus gave his life, That we might have a right to the "tree of life"

And to His will and wishes we bend, And to His righteous judgment, we'll say,

"Amen."

"When you tries to fool yuh fellow man," said Uncle Eben, "you simply gives him a good excuse foh foolin' you if he gits a chance."

"BUY YOUR ICE CREAM FROM A FURNAS DEALER"
furnas
Ice Cream
The Cream of Quality.

COUNTY BILLS ARE REPORTED

The following bills were allowed by the County Commissioners, Monday, January 14.

J. D. Adams Company, repair parts for grader, $17.51; Allis-Chalmers Mfg. Company, repair parts for grader, $13.85; Barrere & Nickerson, hardware supplies, $22.23.

The Circleville Publishing Company, publishing notice "Drawing of Jurors," $1.50;

Circleville Iron & Metal Company, material for repairing trucks, $7.76;

E. E. Clifton Parts & Service, repairs and parts for trucks, etc., $48.81;

Circleville Lumber Company, lumber for bridges, etc., $44.37;

Turney Clifton, hauling and spreading gravel, $62.56;

A. B. Cooper, gasoline for motor grader, $14.50;

J. H. Drum, mileage distributing food, $10.00;

Fitzpatrick's Printery, supplies for Probate Judge, $48.50;

Fitzpatrick's Printery, supplies for Clerk of Courts, $4.25;

Fitzpatrick's Printery, pencils for County Recorder, $2.95;

Herman Goldfrederick, assisting Food Distributor, $4.00;

Elmer Gheen, sharpening saws, $2.60;

Gordon Tire & Accessory Company, tire repairs and batteries, $30.39;

W. & L. E. Gurley, supplies for Deputy Sealer of Weights, $6.00;

Hamilton & Ryan, supplies for jail, $8.31;

Hamilton & Ryan, janitor supplies, $1.60;

A. Hulse Hays, stamps for Common Pleas Judge, $10.00;

Helvering & Scharenberg, gasoline for motor grader, $8.71;

The F. J. Heer Printing Company, supplies for County Treasurer, $23.80;

Hubman Supply Company, supplies for Court House janitor, $17.00;

Paul A. Johnson, supplies for Probate Judge, $53.45;

Johnson Insurance Agency, premium on bond of Deputy Sheriff, Robert Armstrong, $20.00;

Jack Justus, hauling and spreading gravel, $75.90;

D. Kiger, hauling and spreading gravel, $35.53;

The Ohio Law Reporter Company, subscription for Common Pleas Judge, $6.00;

Railway Express Agency, expressage for County Auditor, 73c;

Shell Petroleum Corporation, gasoline and oil for trucks, etc., $218.76;

Vernon Shellhammer, hauling and spreading gravel, $68.20;

Ed Shellhammer, hauling and spreading gravel, $63.80;

Sinclair Refining Company, gasoline for motor grader, $42.21;

Total—$995.78.

Wife Preservers

When you cut icebox cookies for baking, wet your knife. The knife cuts through cleanly, leaving no ragged edges.

PUBLIC SALES

(Mr. Farmer, let us print your sale bills and advertise your sale in The Herald. We will then list the sale in this column daily without charge to you.)

Thursday, January 17.—J. S. Mossbarger.

Saturday, January 19.—Harry Short.

Tuesday, January 22.—Charles Gentzel.

Friday, January 25.—Administrator of estate of Barton Walters.

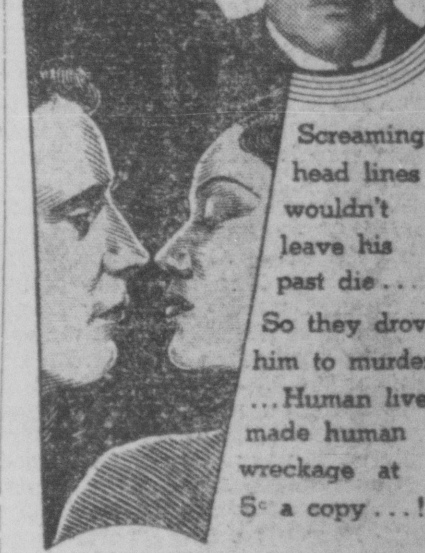

Unique Chateau

The Chateau of Chenonceaux in France is unique in its position, having been built right over the River Cher.

CLIFTONA

MODERN THEATRE
Tonight & Thursday

CRUCIFIED for a HEADLINE!

WHITE LIES

Also "Rugby," Cartoon and Travel.

STATE OF OHIO DEPARTMENT OF AUDITOR OF STATE Bureau of Inspection and Supervision of Public Offices

ANNUAL FINANCIAL REPORT

WASHINGTON TOWNSHIP, PICKAWAY COUNTY, OHIO For the Fiscal Year Ending December 31, 1934

Population—775 1930
Total Salaries and Wages Paid During the Year 1934 $ 3,534.92
Tax Valuation 1,206,186
Tax Levy 2.30

STOUTSVILLE, OHIO, JANUARY 15, 1935
I hereby certify the following report to be correct:
HOWARD HUSTON, Township Clerk.

GENERAL TOWNSHIP FUNDS RECEIPTS

General Property Tax $ 1,570.00
Gasoline Tax 1,700.00
Inheritance Tax 16.94
Cash Payment for Coal 4.00
TOTAL MISCELLANEOUS RECEIPTS 36.68
Depository Interest 4,670.72
TOTAL RECEIPTS 8,981.74

GENERAL EXECUTIVE SERVICES

Compensation of Trustees 672.50
Compensation of Clerks 250.00
TOTAL GENERAL SERVICES 922.50
BOUNTIES ON ANIMALS—
Sparrows 6.75
TOTAL BOUNTIES 6.75

POOR RELIEF—
Medical Services 288.00
Burial Expenses 28.90
Other Poor Relief 115.54
TOTAL POOR RELIEF 456.54

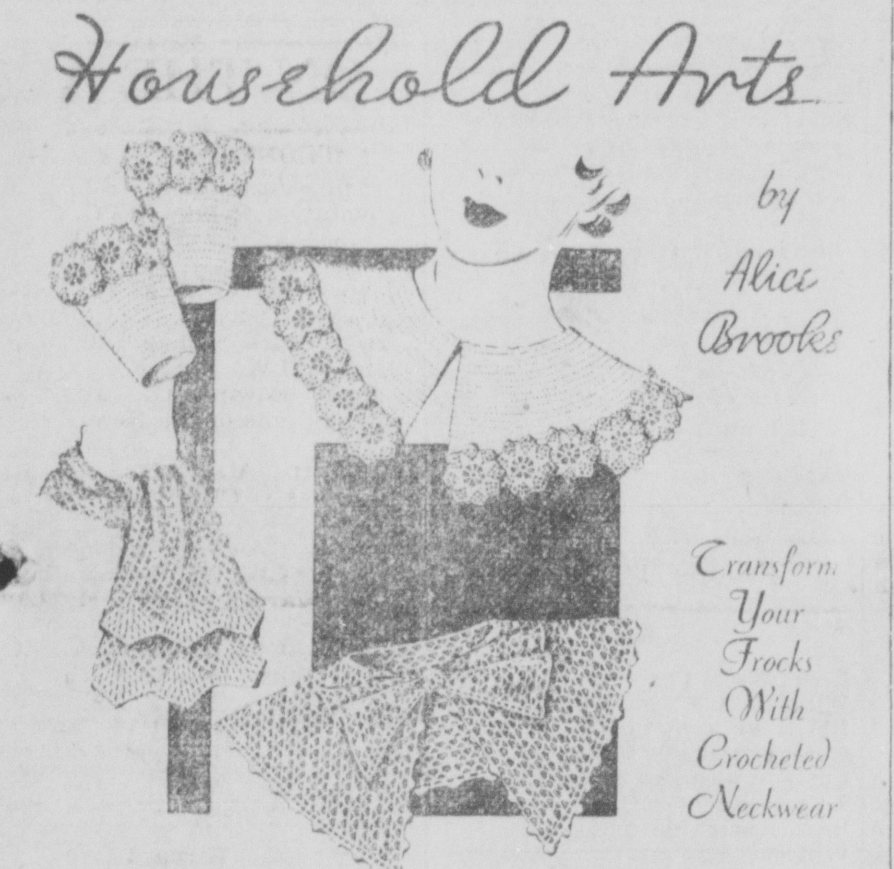

HIGHWAYS—
Road Maintenance and Repair—Labor and Materials 2,957.75
Road Machinery and Tools 16.85
TOTAL HIGHWAYS 2,974.60

CEMETERIES—
Compensation of Officers and Employees 11.20
TOTAL CEMETERIES 11.20

MISCELLANEOUS—
General Supplies 31.91
TOTAL MISCELLANEOUS 31.91
TOTAL PAYMENTS 4,403.80

WILL YOUR CHILD GROW UP TO BE STRONG and STURDY ?

McKesson's COD LIVER OIL
Solves the problem for you. It guards your baby against rickets, strengthens bone structure, and helps little bodies to grow. McKesson's Plain, Mint-flavored and High Potency Cod Liver Oils are sold by druggists everywhere.

PATTERN 5288

Are you looking for something real feminine to add to your clothes? Here is your answer in crocheted neckwear at its daintiest. The collar and cuff set, decorated with the dainty crocheted medallions, can be made of net or georgette and is especially lovely in white or a delicate pink. The scarf is the sort of thing that is flattering to every woman. Done in cotton, it is made entirely in the well-known knot stitch that gives such a lacy effect. Only the border introduces a different stitch to get the fan-like design. The collar, in the simple net pattern, with the dots the only design employed, is as pretty in back as in front, for it has the square sailor effect so popular now. The bow is done in the same stitch as the collar and could, of course, be omitted entirely if desired. This collar, too, is made of cotton.

In pattern 5288 you will find complete instructions for making the set shown; an illustration of it, of the stitches needed; material requirements and color suggestions.

To obtain this pattern send 10 cents in stamps or coin (coin preferred) to The Herald Household Arts Dept., 124 W. Main-st., Circleville, O.

NOTICE!
SEWING MACHINES REPAIRED
SAWS FILED
LOCKS FIXED
CLOCKS CLEANED
SHEARS SHARPENED
TOOLS OF ALL KINDS SHARPENED.
Sausage grinder plates and knives sharpened.
Any article around the house that is broken bring it to the
FIXIT SHOP
E. E. GHEEN, PROP.
212 Mingo St. Circleville, O.

PARK HOTEL
MAGNETIC SPRING, OHIO
HEALTH AND PLEASURE RESORT
Open Entire Year
Medical and Nurse Service
Treatment Baths

TIGERS BEAT BEXLEY, 26 - 19

GRANT LEADS QUINT TO WIN

Knocks East Columbus Crew Out of First Place Tie; Lineup Juggle Helps.

Coach Pete Herderholz' Tigers upset the apocryphal of the Bexley Lions, Tuesday evening, and today Grandview rested in first place in the Central Buckeye league all by its lonesome.

The Tigers put on a second half spurt that bewildered the invading gladiators of Carlton Smith. The half ended 11-10 with Bexley on the long end but its not long ere Freddie Grant and his team mates heated the C. A. C. court to a queen's, or king's taste, and it was too bad for Bexley.

Last night's Central Buckeye league scores were:
Circleville, 26; Bexley, 19.
Grandview, 32; Delaware, 27.
Westerville, 29; Marysville, 19.

TAKE EARLY LEAD
After the first few moments of the game it was evident that a struggle would ensue. Jenkins, Speakman, Kirwin and Grant all connected from the floor to give the Red and Black a lead of 8-5 at the end of the period. Bexley scored once from the floor and three times from the free throw line in this section. The second period found the play hot and heavy with Bexley holding the edge. The period ended 11-10 in favor of the Lions.

But the intermission proved of benefit to the Red and Black and immediately a barrage of basketball flying through the air found their way into the Circleville net. Grant scored six points in this quarter while Jenkins' pretty follow shot and Speakman's long one from the side just about sewed up the contest. Two free throws by Startzman were all Bexley could get in this period, and the final quarter started with Circleville leading 20-13.

The fourth period was just as hard fought as any of the others but the Tigers protected their lead each team scoring six points. Grant scored again in this session with Kirwin's pretty execution of a follow shot proving a highlight.

MANY WITH FOULS
The game ended with three Circleville men, Kirwin, Melson and Speakman, all sporting three personals. Grant and Jenkins each had two.

The contest was rough from the go and was not efficiently officiated. Boyd, of Lancaster, who last year was one of the best to appear on the local court, appeared all evening as though he had a chip on his shoulder. We'll wager he missed a lot more fouls committed by Bexley men than he called.

The victory, surprising as it was, was the result of a lineup juggle. Grant went to forward with Melson at center and they remained that way throughout. Melson failed to score any points but his defensiveness in which he held Myers, starting center scoreless, and Neutzling, the big fellow who succeeded him, to three points. Grant's offensive work was the best he has ever shown in high school while

About This And That

BY THE SECOND GUESSER

BOOK HOUSE OF DAVID

A real court attraction will be brought to Circleville Monday, February 4, when the House of David basketball team provides opposition for the Circleville Athletic club. Manager Judy Gordon announced today that he has booked the bewhiskered team, one of the best attractions in the nation today.

MCKINNON ANGERED

Appointment of Fritz Mackey, Ohio Wesleyan line coach, as Dick Larkins' successor at Ohio State handling the frosh grid squad, was put on the pan Tuesday evening by Bill McKinnon, WBNS sports commentator—McKinnon said he believed the appointment was made without the sanction of Coach Francis Schmidt who would have named his freshman coach from Texas Christian University—Though Mackey may be what Ohio State, rather Director L. W. St. John wants, we doubt very much if he can be compared with Dick Larkins.

STOOGES IN FORM

The Stogie club should receive a lot of credit for the showing of the high school varsity team Tuesday evening—The Stooges couldn't go on the court and help the Tigers play the game but they put out a better brand of noise-making than we've heard at a high school game for a long while—The Stogie cheerleaders, Harold Rummel and George Rader, are the Stoogiest Stooges of them all—Two weeks ago Westerville followers lauded the Stooges and last night it was Bexley's turn to praise the enthusiasm created by the club.

Some cage scores:
High School
Academy, 24; Canal Winchester, 22.
Central, 47; Aquinas, 32.
Middletown, 23; Dayton Steele, 15.
College
Capital, 32; Ohio Northern, 26.
Columbia, 44; Yale, 31.
Carnegie Tech, 34; Geneva, 29.
Akron, 29; Kent, 24.
Wittenberg, 36; Heidelberg, 17.
Muskingum, 36; Marietta, 27.

George Speakman's long shots came at critical points in the game.

The lineup:
CIRCLEVILLE—26
Kirwin f (C) 2 0 0 3 4
Grant f 4 2 6 2 10
Melson c 0 0 0 3 0
Speakman g 2 1 0 3 5
Jenkins g 3 1 0 2 7
Startzman g 1 1 4 6 13 26

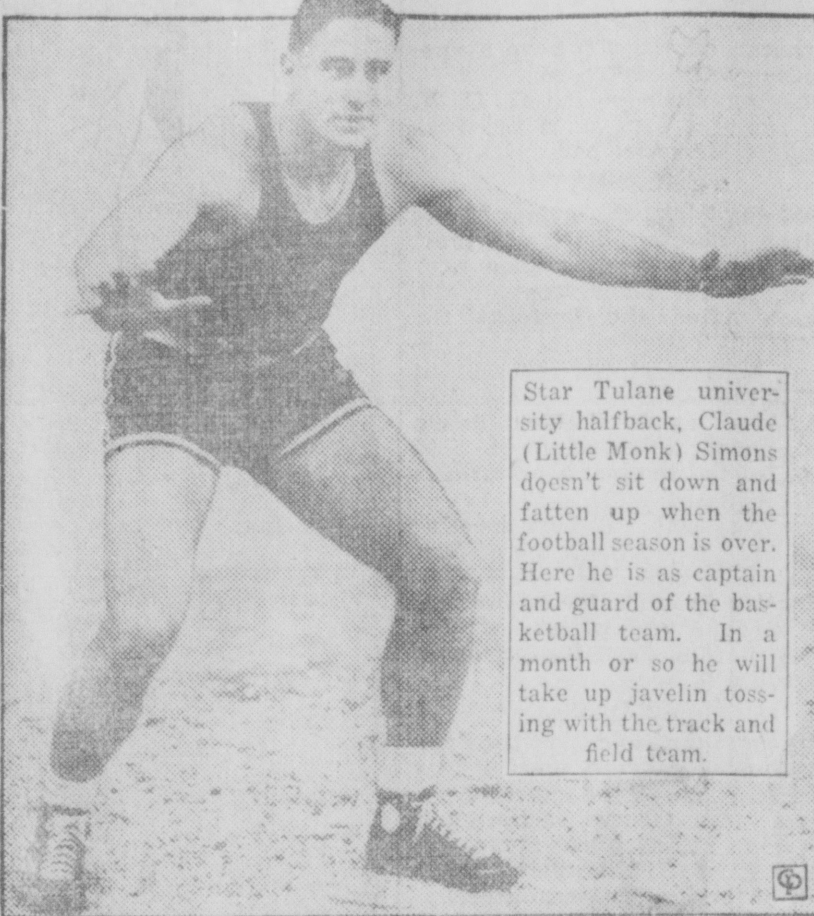

BEXLEY—19
Bailey f 2 1 1 1 5
Emig f 0 1 0 1 1
Hutchins f 1 0 1 1 2
Myers c 0 0 0 2 0
Neutzling c 1 2 2 3 5
Startzman g (C) 1 4 2 1 6
Burgert g 0 2 1 0 2
..... 5 9 7 8 19

RESERVES BEATEN

The high school reserves wilted in the second half Tuesday evening and lost 21-14 to the Bexley reserves.

The lineups:
BEXLEY—21
Ehrlensbach f 4 0 8
Hogan f 3 1 7
Brooke c 0 0 0
Holzbacher c 0 0 0
Hamilton g 1 1 3
Emig g 1 1 3
Cahill g 0 0 0
..... 9 3 21
CIRCLEVILLE—14
Plum f 0 0 0
Jackson f 0 0 0
Bell f 1 0 2
Griffith c 2 1 5
Andrews g 2 0 4
Friley g 1 1 3
..... 6 2 14

"LITTLE MONK" KNOWS NO REST

Claude (Little Monk) Simons

Star Tulane university halfback, Claude (Little Monk) Simons doesn't sit down and fatten up when the football season is over. Here he is as captain and guard of the basketball team. In a month or so he will take up javelin tossing with the track and field team.

MACKEY GETS POST AS BUCKEYE COACH

COLUMBUS, Jan. 16.—Regarded as one of the up-and-coming football mentors, Frederick Charles (Fritz) Mackey, named yesterday to succeed Dick Larkins as freshman football coach at Ohio State University, is looked upon by observers here today as a strong addition to the Buck's gridiron staff.

Although only 30 years old, Mackey already has a reputation built up as a result of his coaching experience at Ohio Wesleyan and at Butler University in Indianapolis. His experience, which has given him a firm belief that offensive football is the best, is expected to jibe completely with the technique of Head Coach Francis A. Schmidt.

STUDENT OF GAME

Observers here, who have watched Mackey's activity at Ohio Wesleyan, looked upon him as a serious student of the game who gets a big kick out of studying gridiron tactics and plotting styles of attacks against the known quantities of his opponents.

Part of Mackey's reputation is built upon his ability as a scout, which is expected to be a valuable asset to the Buck's gridiron campaign.

Even before he took up coaching as a career, Mackey had a reputation established on the Ohio State campus here. He was a star tackle for State through three years of his student life here and he also was a member of the Buck's baseball team for three years, serving as captain in his senior season.

In coming to Ohio State, Mackey will replace Larkins who has accepted the post of head football coach at the University of Rochester—a job that will carry about twice the salary he received here.

BEGIN NEXT FALL

Mackey will assume his new post next fall when Larkins goes to Rochester to take over his new job.

The new frosh coach is married and is the father of a ten-month-old baby. He is a native of Gallon.

CLEVELAND AFTER NOTRE DAME FRAY

CLEVELAND, Jan. 16.—A merry battle between Columbus and Cleveland for the Ohio State Notre Dame football game next fall was forecast here today following the announcement that Cleveland stadium had lost the 1935 Pittsburgh - Notre Dame game.

Walter Davis, stadium commissioner, returned from South Bend last night and announced that the underwriters of the Irish stadium have insisted on holding the Pitt-Rambler fracas in the Notre Dame bowl next fall.

Davis also said he is working on plans to bring the Ohio State Notre Dame game here next Nov. 3 and that he is planning on visiting L. W. St. John, athletic director at Ohio State, in the near future to try to complete the arrangements.

"One-Punch" Lee

Billy Lee

"Bring on Baez, bring on Dempsey, bring on anybody—I'm ready for 'em!" Billy Lee, child actor, puts a little tough when he puts the gloves on for the picture, "Kids on the Cuff". Max had better look to his laurels.

HORSE SALE

Will sell at Public Auction at the Floyd Duplap cattle barn, W. Main-st, rear of old tannery property, in Circleville, Ohio, on

Saturday, Jan. 19, '35
Commencing at 1 P. M. sharp, the following head of horses:

25 Head of Mares 25
Good Farm Mares Weighing from 1300 to 1700 Pounds.
Mostly all young. Colors are grays, sorrels, roans, bays, browns and blacks.

Several Mated Teams
Two colts coming two years old. If you are interested in buying a horse, or any horses, you should not miss this sale.
All sold on a guarantee to be as represented.
TERMS CASH.

Harry Short

Circleville's Most Popular Buying and Selling Medium

The CIRCLEVILLE HERALD and THE UNION-HERALD CLASSIFIED ADVERTISING INFORMATION

All ads are restricted to their proper classification and to the regular Circleville Herald style of type. The publishers reserve the right to edit or reject any classified advertising copy.

Advertising orders for irregular insertions takes the one-time rate. No ad is taken for less than a basis of three lines. Count five average words to the line on paid advertisements.

Charged ads will be received by telephone and if paid at Circleville Herald office within six days from the first day of insertion cash rate will be allowed.

Ads ordered for three or seven times and stopped before expiration will be charged for only the number of times the ad appeared, and adjustment made at the rate earned. All ads ordered seven times will be published in the Union-Herald (Weekly) and will be counted as one insertion, as will three-time ads ordered printed in Tuesday's or Wednesday's issues of the Daily.

Ads received up to 10:30 A. M. will be inserted the same day. A charge of 50 cents is made for publishing Cards of Thanks. Special rates for yearly advertising upon request.

Careful attention given to mail orders.

Rates per line for consecutive insertions:
One time 9c per line.
Three times for the price of two.
Seven times for the price of three.

Prices on Display Classified furnished on request.

The publishers will be responsible only for one incorrect insertion of any advertisement.

Announcements

7—Personals

NOTICE
To Descendants of JOSHUA BROWNELL and his Daughter ELIZABETH BROWNELL wife of CALEB EVANS, Jr.

Joshua Brownell came from New York State to Pickaway County, about 1820 and had a daughter, Elizabeth Brownell, who married Caleb Evans, Jr., October 16, 1822, the son of Caleb Evans, Sr., the first pioneer in Pickaway Township who built the first log cabin in 1796.

The undersigned—E. E. Brownell—would like information as follows:

1. When and where did Joshua Brownell die, the name of his wife and his children.
2. When and where did Elizabeth Brownell, wife of Caleb Evans, Jr., both die and were buried.
3. Did Caleb Evans, Jr., and wife have any children, if so, give their names and their descendants.
4. To all parties interested, please address E. E. Brownell, 1418 Walnut Street, Philadelphia, Penna. This very important to all descendants. THANK YOU for your assistance.

DAD, I've resolved not to eat between meals. A stick of Wigley's Juicy Fruit is just as good and does not spoil my dinner. Bud.

STOMACH ULCER, GAS PAINS, AND INDIGESTION victims, who suffer? For quick relief get a free sample of Udgas Tablets, a doctor's prescription, at Hamilton & Ryan.

10—Lost, Strayed, Found
LOST—2 Second National Bank books. Mrs. Mary F. Schleyer. Reward.

Business Service
18—Business Services Offered
AUCTIONEERING—Reasonable rates. Boyd Horn, 225 Walnut St. Phone 1073.

CIRCLEVILLE Transfer Co. Local and long distance moving. Storage. All loads insured. Phone 1227, 117 N. Scioto-st.

JOB PRINTING—Done at Fair Prices. Let us do your next printing job. Quality and Service. ALFRED THE HERALD Job Shop, Phone 782.

Employment
33—Help Wanted—Male
MAN WANTED in this locality as Direct Representative of well known oil company to sell small town and farm trade. Experience not necessary. No investment required. Chance for immediate steady income. Write P. T. Webster, General Manager, 6610 Standard Bank Building, Cleveland, Ohio.

You Can't Go Wrong on Using Classified Ads

GOOD Used Cars PRICED RIGHT
1932 Chev. Coach $365
1930 Chev. Coach $210
1929 Chev. Coach $165
1930 Chev. Coupe $215
1931 Studebaker Sedan $195
1928 Ford Sport Coupe $ 85
1930 Ford Sedan $225

The Harden Stevenson Co.
132 E. Franklin St.

BUS SCHEDULE
VALLEY PUBLIC SERVICE CO.
NORTH BOUND
Leave Circleville, A. M.—6:38 8:08 10:08. P. M.—12:08 1:08
2:08 3:08 5:08 6:08 7:08 9:08 11:08

SOUTH BOUND
Leave Circleville, A. M.—6:57 8:37 10:37. P. M.—12:37 1:37
2:37 3:37 5:37 6:37 7:37 9:37 11:37

North Bound Buses leaving Circleville at 6:38 a. m., 6:08 p. m. go through Ashville.
South Bound Buses leaving Circleville at 6:57 a. m., 12:37 p. m., 11:37 p. m. go through Kingston.

Bus Terminal . . . Cook's Confectionery
128 N. Court St.

Livestock
49—Poultry and Supplies

BABY CHICKS—All from selected flocks well culled and Blood-tested. First hatch-off Jan. 23. Cromans Poultry Farm and Hatchery, Circleville, O. Phone 1834.

BABY CHICKS—From improved and Blood-Tested flocks. Special discount on orders placed now for delivery anytime later. First hatch on Jan. 28th. SOUTHERN OHIO HATCHERY, Circleville, O. Phone 55.

Merchandise
51—Articles for Sale
DELAVAL Cream Separator, The Farmers Choice, only $92.50. Bartere & Nickerson.

FOR SALE—1 used gas range in first class condition, priced reasonable. Mrs. John Strawser, cor. Walnut & Clinton-sts.

57—Good Things to Eat
MIXED NUTS, still warm when sold. Take home a pkg. from Ebert's Soda Grill.

Specials at the Stores
USED AUTO RADIOS, 6 tube Majestic $18; Philco $25. Pettit Tire & Battery Shop.

25% off on every Jacket in our store, Caddy Miller Hat Shop.

Real Estate For Rent
69—Rooms for Housekeeping
FOR RENT—Rooms for light housekeeping. Call 1265.

FURNISHED ROOM FOR RENT
—Steam heated and soft water bath. Phone 359.

76—Farms and Farmlands
FOR RENT—Farm 70 acres grain rent, good location. Call 1234, Circleville Exchange.

"FOR RENT on half shares, fine 300 Acre Farm located in Licking County. Excellent soil. Write C. W. Irwin, 29 East Locust Street, Newark, Ohio. Phone 2957."

77—Houses for Rent
FOR RENT—7 room Stucco house, bath and garage. E. Union-st. Phone 842.

Real Estate For Sale
84—Houses for Sale
FOR SALE—5 room frame building, located at 357 East Mound Street, at $1400.00. Circle Realty Co. Rooms 3 and 4 Masonic Temple.

83—Farms for Sale
FOR SALE—A Country Home of 34 acres and the Justus Hotel and West Building on West Main Street at bargain prices. Circle Realty Company, Rooms 3 & 4 Masonic Temple.

FOR SALE—A dandy 172 acre Country Home on a good pike. A modern frame, double with garage, good location. Store-room building, including stock and fixtures, price $3000.00; A two story modern frame dwelling, including garage and shop, good location and investment; A dandy modern home, good location; Two story frame dwelling, $1600.00 and several other properties. Several business propositions and buildings. For further information, see or call Circle Realty Company, Rooms 3 and 4 Masonic Temple, Phone 234 or 162.

Classified Display
Automotive
GOOD Used Cars PRICED RIGHT

1932 Chev. Coach $365
1930 Chev. Coach $210
1929 Chev. Coach $165
1930 Chev. Coupe $215
1931 Studebaker Sedan $195
1928 Ford Sport Coupe $ 85
1930 Ford Sedan $225

The Harden Stevenson Co.
132 E. Franklin St.

FEEDS
FOR ANY PURPOSE
Poultry, Dairy, Stock and Horse Feeds. Bran, Middlings, Meal Scraps, Cottonseed meal and Tankage.

We can sell them to you at a price that will save you money—see us first!

WE ALSO GRIND AND MIX YOUR OWN GRAINS.

PICKAWAY GRAIN CO.
Western Ave. Phone 91

DO YOU NEED STOVE REPAIRS?
We can take care of all your requirements on stove repairs for any make stove. We also carry stove pipe and fittings.

Trade in your old stove on a new Moors Air Tight heater or range.

J. R. WILSON
Pythian Castle Alley

FEEDS
FOR ANY PURPOSE
Poultry, Dairy, Stock and Horse Feeds. Bran, Middlings, Meal Scraps, Cottonseed meal and Tankage.

We can sell them to you at a price that will save you money—see us first!

WE ALSO GRIND AND MIX YOUR OWN GRAINS.

PICKAWAY GRAIN CO.
Western Ave. Phone 91

BUY SOMETHING YOU NEED . . . NOW
Automotive

ATTENTION!
If you are going to buy a New Car, do it NOW and save the Sales Tax.

Place Your Order Now!
BUICK—DE SOTO—PLYMOUTH

E. E. CLIFTON & DEWEY SPEAKMAN
Circleville, O. 119-121 S. Court St. Phone No. 50.

Classified Display
Automotive

GUARANTEED USED CARS

1934 V8 Tudor
1933 V8 Coupe
1932 V8 Sedan
1932 V8 Tudor
1933 Plymouth Coupe
1932 DeSoto Sedan
1931 Chevrolet Coach
1929 Pontiac Sedan
1929 Dodge Coupe
1934 V8 131 In. Truck
1931 Ford Pickup.

RELIABLE MOTOR CO.
W. Main St.
Authorized Ford Dealers.

Here It Is!
New 13 Plate Batteries
$2.89
And Your Old Battery.

Francisco Hot Water Heater
$6.45
Auto Glass for Any Car
$1.50 up

2 Gal. Motor Oil 88c
ANYTHING FOR YOUR AUTO.

Gordon Tire & Accessory Co.
432 E. Mound St. Phone 297.

Dead Stock
PHONE 104
Reverse Charge
CHILLICOTHE FERTILIZER

Classified Display
Merchandise
FOR THE BEST LUNCH IN TOWN
Come To
THE MECCA RESTAURANT
128 W. Main St.

Livestock
CALL
CIRCLEVILLE FERTILIZER
Reverse Charge TEL 1364 Reverse Charges
Circleville, Ohio
E. G. Buschlieb, Inc.

Financial
FARM LOANS
We are making first mortgage loans on choice farms at 5 per cent interest. Appraisals within one week. Quick closing. No abstract.

Write or Call
W. D. HEISKELL
Williamsport, Ohio.
Authorized agent for Prudential Insurance Co. of America.

Real Estate For Sale
SMALL FARM BARGAIN
5-Acres—5 miles from city on good road. Especially equipped for poultry raising. Stocked with cows and chickens and necessary tools and implements. Good barn and out-buildings. 7 room 2 story frame house in excellent condition with blinds, floor coverings, stoves etc. Priced low for quick sale. See
MACK PARRETT, JR.
Phone 7 or 393

Automotive

ATTENTION!
If you are going to buy a New Car, do it NOW and save the Sales Tax.

Place Your Order Now!
BUICK—DE SOTO—PLYMOUTH

E. E. CLIFTON & DEWEY SPEAKMAN
Circleville, O. 119-121 S. Court St. Phone No. 50.

BASKETBALL

FRIDAY, 9 O'clock
WATERLOO
Ohio's Wonder Team
Vs.
ASHVILLE
AT ASHVILLE HIGH SCHOOL

THE CLASSIC OF THE YEAR
No Seats Reserved.
Admission 50 Cents.

Theo. DeWitt Says—
Now

In TOLEDO It's THE NEW HOTEL SECOR
Completely Renovized and Re-equipped
Popular Priced
Coffee Shop
AND Parisian Cocktail Bar

Rates from — $2.50 Single

Now

In TOLEDO It's THE NEW HOTEL SECOR
Completely Renovized and Re-equipped
Popular Priced
Coffee Shop
AND Parisian Cocktail Bar

Rates from — $2.50 Single

Now

In TOLEDO It's THE NEW HOTEL SECOR
Completely Renovized and Re-equipped
Popular Priced
Coffee Shop
AND Parisian Cocktail Bar

Rates from — $2.50 Single

Now

In TOLEDO It's THE NEW HOTEL SECOR
Completely Renovized and Re-equipped
Popular Priced
Coffee Shop
AND Parisian Cocktail Bar

Rates from — $2.50 Single

Now

In TOLEDO It's THE NEW HOTEL SECOR
Completely Renovized and Re-equipped
Popular Priced
Coffee Shop
AND Parisian Cocktail Bar

Rates from — $2.50 Single

Just Among Us Girls

It's surprising what some women can coax out of their husbands without even half crying.

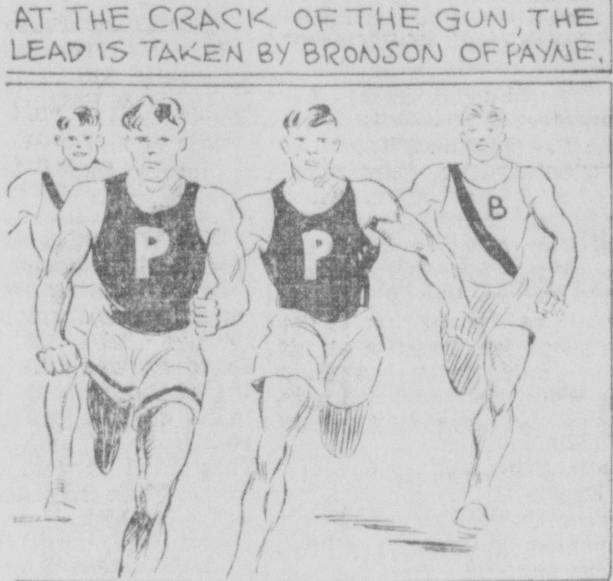

Etta Kett
By Paul Robinson

High Pressure Pete
By George Swan

Chip Collins' Adventures

Big Sister
By Les Forgrave

Muggs McGinnis
By Wally Bishop

Brick Bradford With Brocco the Buccaneer
By William Ritt and Clarence Gray

Dorothy Darnit
By Charles McManus

THE TUTTS

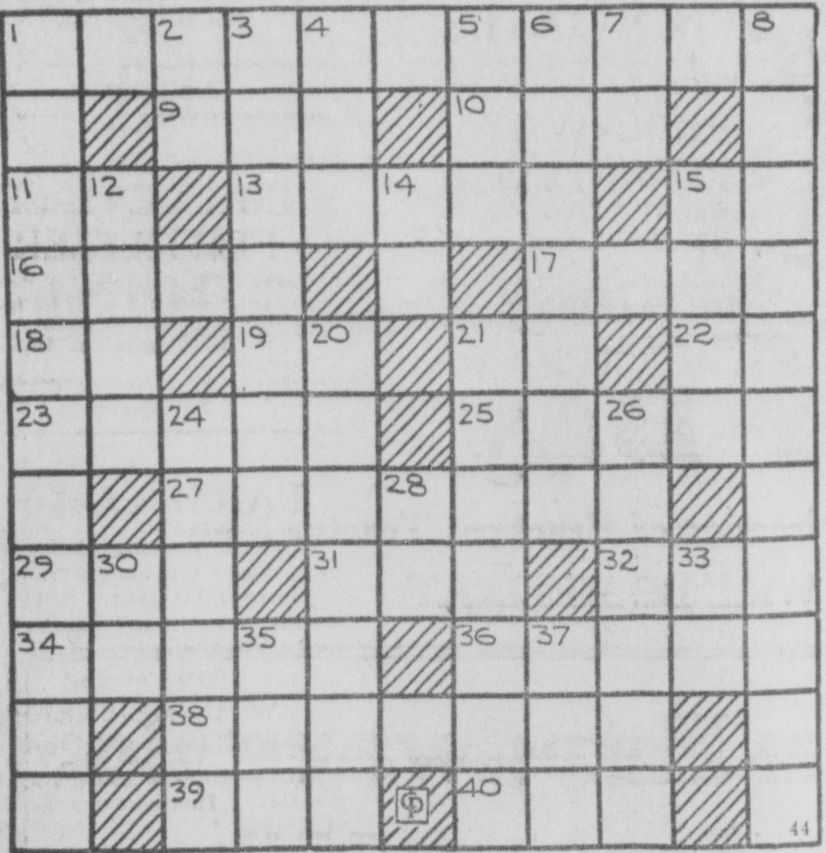

By Crawford Young

DAD HATES A NICE LONG TETE-A-TETE AT THE DOOR.

CROSSWORD PUZZLE

ACROSS

- 1—Betterment
- 9—Compensation
- 10—An iniquity
- 11—To render
- 13—Cupidity
- 15—Florin (abbr.)
- 16—Inactive
- 17—Female horse
- 18—Company (abbr.)
- 19—New Providence (abbr.)
- 21—An Italian river
- 22—Egypt (abbr.)
- 23—Vestige
- 25—A kind of flower
- 27—Successive race of kings
- 29—Conclusion
- 31—Doctor (nickname)
- 32—Vim
- 34—A clamor
- 36—Exclamation to attract attention
- 38—Weights of one hundred pounds
- 39—To make an edging
- 40—Ignited

DOWN

- 1—Formal accusations
- 2—Preferred (abbr.)
- 3—Deputed government
- 4—Over (poetic)

Answer to previous puzzle

GERMAN EQUALITY DEMANDED BY HITLER IN INTERVIEW

VOTE IN SAAR THRILLS NAZI

No Substitute For Equality Will Suffice, He Tells American Reporter.

BY PIERRE J. HUSS
(Copyright, 1935, by International News Service.)

OBERSALZBERG, Germany, Jan. 16.—In his snow-blanketed Bavarian mountain home, Adolf Hitler, chancellor and fuhrer of Germany, today gave the first interview he has granted to an American newspaperman since his assumption of complete power in the Reich and demanded full equality for Germany.

Sitting on a glass-enclosed porch within glimpsing distance of the Austria where he was born, Hitler reiterated to me in his expressive and compelling manner that actual equality only is acceptable to Germany, and that no substitute will suffice.

Below us spread a Germany madly celebrating its victory in the Saar.

The fuhrer does not ask for charity. He offers France, as a return for her consent to Germany's equality, a complete renunciation of all the fatherland's other territorial claims.

But the Versailles treaty as a whole will once more be excoriated by him as an instrument incapable of giving peace to the world.

EXTENDS GOOD WILL

To the Saar's former dissidents, willing to renounce their former opposition creeds, he offers full assurances and extends good will.

He asks the American people to look upon the Saar plebiscite as a graphic reflection of present-day Germany.

Dressed in a gray golfing outfit with a simple black tie, Hitler appeared in the best of health and a jovial mood.

The Saar victory had obviously had a tonic effect upon him. General Hermann Wilhelm Goering, premier of Prussia and still Hitler's busiest aide, was present at the interview, genial and fit in his mountain clothing.

Dr. Otto Dietrich, press chief of the Nazi party, also was there, as well as Dr. Karl Boerner, head of the press department of cultural chief Alfred Rosenberg's foreign political office.

He laughed heartily with Goering over some incidents I related to him concerning the Saar, where I spent four days including last Sunday, when the fateful vote was cast. Both he and Goering were

IF YOUR BREATH HAS A SMELL YOU CAN'T FEEL WELL

When we eat too much, our food decays in our bowels. Our friends smell this decay coming out of our mouth and call it bad breath. We feel the poison of this decay all over our body. It makes us gloomy, grouchy and no good for anything.

What makes the food decay in the bowels? Well, when we eat too much, our bile juice can't digest it. What is the bile juice? It is the most vital digestive juice in our body. Unless 2 pints of it are flowing from our liver into our bowels every day, our movements get hard and constipated and 40% of our food decays in our 25 feet of bowels. This decay sends poison all over our body every six minutes.

When our friends smell our bad breath (that we don't) and we feel like a whipped tomato, don't use a mouthwash or take a laxative. Get at the cause. Take Carter's Little Liver Pills which really start the flow of your bile juice. But if "something better" is offered you, don't buy it, for it may be a calomel (mercury) pill, which loosens teeth, gripes and scalds the rectum in many people. Ask for Carter's Little Liver Pills by name and get what you ask for—24¢. ©1934, C.M. Co.

THESE PICTURES SHOW

Modern Three-Minute Way to Ease Sore Throat

Ease Pain, Rawness, Soreness Almost Instantly

Here's a safe, modern and effective way to relieve sore throat. A way that eases the pain, rawness and irritation in as little as two or three minutes. Many doctors advise it and millions are following this way. Try it.

All you do is crush and stir 3 BAYER Aspirin Tablets in 1/2 glass of water and gargle with it twice—as pictured here. (If you have signs of a cold, take BAYER Aspirin and drink plenty of water.)

Get real BAYER Aspirin Tablets for this purpose. They disintegrate quickly and completely, making a gargle without irritating particles.

BAYER Aspirin prices have been decisively reduced, so there's no point now in accepting other than the real Bayer article you want.

NOW 15¢

PRICES on Genuine Bayer Aspirin Radically Reduced on All Sizes

SCOTT'S SCRAPBOOK

By R. J. Scott

Copyright, 1935, by Central Press Association, Inc. 1-16

BANK ROBBERY

(Continued From Page One)

eager for impressions brought from there by a neutral observer.

"But what do you think of the plebiscite results, Herr Reichschancellor?" I asked finally.

"The plebiscite result," he said, "fills me as well as every single one of my collaborators with everlasting pride for the German people."

"It is at the same time a subsequent condemnation of the Versailles treaty that is of veritable historical importance. For in this treaty, this territory was torn away from Germany with the assertion that in it lived 150,000 Frenchmen."

RULED BY LEAGUE

"After 15 years of mastery by the League of Nations, that is to say indeed by France, it has been established that not 150,000, but hardly 2,000 Frenchmen live in this territory."

"In any one thousand inhabitants, one does not find even four Frenchmen. Can one be astonished that a treaty which was built upon such untrue arguments cannot bring to mankind happiness and blessings?"

ROSE'S AUTOMOBILE

Rose's automobile was used by two men who robbed 10 stores and gasoline stations in Hamilton but it was by others, the writer said.

Rose has been sought by Hamilton county authorities since Jan. 4, when Jos Vollmer, Newark, died in General hospital, Cincinnati, of the wound suffered when he was shot by a Hamilton officer in an attempted gasoline station hold-up.

Fay Knott Vollmer's girl companion told the police on the trail of Rose. He was traced to Florida and back to Chattanooga from where he mailed the letter to the Hamilton police chief. Authorities at Hamilton believed he would stop at Mt. Vernon and asked officers of that town to apprehend him.

Wahl Appointed By Highway Head

COLUMBUS, Jan. 16.—Carl G. Wahl, defiance-co surveyor, has been appointed assistant state highway director by John Jaster, Jr., Whitely, Merrell's successor.

F. F. Bulkeley, Cuyahoga-co, has been named Jaster's secretary. It was necessary for Wahl to resign as surveyor.

Presbyterians Have Preparatory Service

Rev. E. S. Toensmeier, of the First Presbyterian church, will use as his topic at preparatory services this evening, "Waking From Sleep."

The meeting starts at 7:30 and is in preparation for communion next Sunday.

Bandits Murder Bank President

STRETOR, Ill., Jan. 16.—Charles Bundy, 42, president of the Lenore, Ill., state bank near here, was shot and killed today by four robbers. After the shooting, the bandits fled empty-handed.

CUT LIQUOR COST!

COLUMBUS, Jan. 16.—Governor Martin L. Davey is expected to recommend to the legislature that prices on liquor sold in the state stores be reduced.

NEW TALKING MOTION PICTURE TO BE SHOWN

Interesting New Sound Picture Will Show Latest Tractor Developments.

A new talking motion picture entitled "Partners" will provide a full hour of entertainment and education to farmers who attend John Deere Tractor Day, to be conducted at the Davidson Hardware Co., Friday, local farm equipment dealer, aided by representatives of the John Deere organization.

This picture which is being enthusiastically received by farmers in other localities, takes the audience into the huge John Deere Tractor plant at Waterloo, Iowa and shows how tractors are built and tested.

From the factory, the cameraman takes the audience out into the field to see John Deere Tractors at work.

Woven into the picture is a story of how a father and his son became partners on the farm.

The meeting will be in session beginning at 10 a. m. in the Davidson Hardware store in Circleville.

"We invite every farmer in this section to be our guest and we particularly want the boys to come, too," says Mr. Davidson.

"The program will be in charge of men who are thoroughly familiar with tractors. In plain, understandable language and illustrations they will demonstrate the latest developments in tractors and the best ways to keep the farm tractor tuned up for greatest efficiency."

"We are planning to make this a sociable affair, but at the same time a very worthwhile affair to farmers and their families. We are counting on a big crowd coming in to enjoy the big day with us."

John Deere Tractor Day is proving exceptionally popular with farmers as evidenced by the picture above which shows an interested group at one of these meetings.

DAVEY DRAFTS

(Continued From Page One)

"I am told that 60 to 75 per cent of the liquor now sold by licensed retailers is the product of bootleggers," he declared. "Our present discount of 15 per cent to legitimate dealers is insufficient."

"No one can operate on that basis. We either force the legitimate dealers to put his prices so high that dealers in bootleg liquor have a great advantage, or we force them to cheat."

DELAY NAMING SPAGHT

Davey said he would not send the appointment of Oakley Spaght of Stow, to the senate for confirmation as liquor director until after further investigations that Spaght, being a member of the legislature that created the office, would not be eligible under the constitution to fill it prior to Jan. 1, 1936, or one year after his term expired.

If he becomes convinced of Spaght's ineligibility, the governor said he hoped to find someone "equally well fitted" for liquor director. While paying highest tribute to the ability and integrity of Joseph H. Scobell, appointed liquor director by former Governor White, Davey said Scobell will not get the position if Spaght cannot qualify.

"Whoever I appoint as liquor director must be someone responsible to me alone," he reflected.

Davey hopes that he can prevail upon Lucas-co Prosecutor Frazier Reams to head his envisioned public safety department, which would take over the work now being done by the highway patrol, the liquor department enforcement division, the fire marshal, bureau of criminal identification (now operated by convicts at London prison farm), and motor vehicle records.

Reams, often mentioned as a potential candidate for attorney general in the future, would be ideal in the public safety position, in the governor's opinion, because of his success in coping with gangsters in Toledo where he is credited with breaking up the notorious Licavoli gang.

DELAYS MORATORIUM

For the time being Davey is going to forget about the 2-year moratorium on the principal of maturing subdivision bonds, he indicated. He feels no necessity for such measure, one that brought him much criticism in the election campaign, now that the sales tax has been enacted and will provide revenue immediately.

Discussing the financing of poor relief, the governor said he is opposed to raising the necessary revenue through sale of bonds, saying it is "wrong in principle to borrow against the future to pay for the present."

In the past the state has raised its share of poor relief funds almost entirely through sale of poor relief bonds issued by counties, but underwritten by the state and to be retired from selective sales tax receipts collected prior to suspension of that tax on Jan. 1, due to enactment of a general sales tax. Under the latter levy, a certain amount is to be earmarked annually for retiring outstanding poor relief bonds.

Davey was asked whether his aversion to borrowing against the future might be taken to mean he had abandoned his campaign idea of floating a huge state bond issue to finance a gigantic Ohio public works program in the interest of the unemployed.

He said he had not discarded it, but that with the federal government contemplating a four billion dollar work-relief program, he hoped Ohio's share in this would be large enough to make an independent state public works program unnecessary.

COLUMBUS, Jan. 16.—Governor Martin L. Davey is expected to recommend to the legislature that prices on liquor sold in the state stores be reduced.

Jocelyn Lee Weds Producer

Jocelyn Lee Seymour and "Hubby."

Only relatives and close friends attended the quiet Hollywood wedding of Jocelyn Lee, red-headed screen actress, and James Seymour, associate film producer. They are planning a honeymoon as soon as the bridegroom is able to leave work at his studio.

FISCH FORGED

(Continued From Page One)

German copyist, were to have sufficient of the writing of Hauptmann or any one else, he would be able to do a pretty good job of copying the ransom notes, wouldn't he?"

But Walter answered: "In my opinion, impossible."

In questioning Tyrell, who starred in the celebrated Loeb-Leopold murder trial in Chicago, the defense showed him the handwriting of Fisch, from whom Hauptmann says he got the $14,600 ransom money found in his garage.

They tried hard to bring out that the tell-tale hyphen which appeared in Hauptmann's writing between the word "New" and "York" in New York also was evident in Fisch's writings, if placed somewhat differently than in Hauptmann's. But Tyrell was confident beyond all doubt that Hauptmann wrote the ransom notes and nobody else.

When the handwriting experts finish their testimony, the state plans to switch to another phase—the finding of the slain Lindbergh baby. William Allen, negro, of Trenton, who found the baby near a roadway not far from the Lindbergh home, and Orville Wilson, who was with him, will take the stand and describe this happening. They will be followed by the coroner of Mercer-co, the doctor who conducted the autopsy, various police officials and possibly Mrs. Dwight Morrow, mother-in-law of Colonel Charles A. Lindbergh.

Hospital News

Forest Valentine, W. High-st., is improving at University hospital, Columbus, where he underwent a major operation last week.

DANCE!

MEMORIAL HALL

Friday, January 18

Auspices Monumental Association of Howard Hall Post, American Legion.

MUSIC BY WALT SEARS

AND HIS 11 PIECE BAND

Admission 50c per person.

YOU ARE INVITED TO ATTEND FREE

John Deere Tractor Day

Under the Direction of Practical Tractor Men WILL BE HELD AT

Davidson Hardware Co. Friday, January 18th

Beginning at 10 a. m.

As this is a short, practical course, we suggest that you be on hand early and get the benefit of both the educational features and entertainment.

SEE AND HEAR—The New Power Farming Picture—

"PARTNERS"

—A Full Hour of Entertainment and Education

LEARN ALL ABOUT THE IMPROVED JOHN DEERE MODEL D TRACTOR . . .

Davidson Hardware Co.

107 E. Main St.

House Subcommittee Cripples Securities Commission By Cut

WASHINGTON — There is an unhealthy smell about the action of the House Appropriations subcommittee in gutting the appropriation of the Securities Exchange Commission.

It has all the earmarks of covert sabotage.

The committee cut the independent offices appropriation bill by a total of $700,000 under the amount recommended by the Budget Bureau. Of this, almost all—or $600,000—was at the expense of the SEC.

At the time the subcommittee conducted its secret hearings on the entire appropriation it consisted of five members, three Democrats, two Republicans. Yet when the SEC appropriation was considered only three of these were present. They were:

Chairman Clifton A. Woodrum, Old Guard Virginia Democrat, close friend of Senator Carter Glass who sought to emasculate the Securities Exchange Act when it was in committee last session. Woodrum has a long record of trying to gut appropriations of government agencies which are cracking down on big business. He repeatedly recommended drastic slashing of funds of the Federal Trade Commission during the course of its probe of the power industry.

Richard B. Wigglesworth, wealthy Old Guard Massachusetts Republican, who fought the enactment of the SEC act. William P. Lambertson, Old Guard Kansas Republican, also against the establishment of the SEC.

In its report on the SEC appropriation, the subcommittee declares that it reached its decision after "thorough and extended hearings."

Actually Chairman Joe Kennedy and several of his assistants appeared before the committee only once, and then for not more than one hour.

In its original budget request, the SEC asked for $4,200,000. Its organization is still uncompleted, and three investigations it is required to make by law have not been touched—all for lack of funds.

The Budget Bureau cut the $4,200,000 estimate to $2,340,000.

Then the Appropriations subcommittee lopped off another $600,000. If this figure is allowed to stand it will mean that for the fiscal year 1935-36, the SEC will be bound and gagged—limited to its present restricted sphere of activity.

There should be no shedding of tears in Wall Street.

No Chance

Edward J. White, counsel for the trustees of the Missouri Pacific Railroad, was aligned with the Government in arguing the cold cases before the Supreme Court.

And in defending the constitutionality of the law, he made the point that the preamble of the Constitution contains a "general welfare" declaration that gives Congress the power to determine what shall constitute currency.

He read that section of the preamble to which he referred. "But that is not all there is to the preamble," snapped Justice Willis VanDevanter, oldest and one of the most conservative members of the court. "There is more to it than what you have read."

"Of course," White said suavely. "And I wouldn't think of attempting to deceive this court on the contents of the Constitution."

Even the august Judges of the Court—except VanDevanter—joined in the ensuing laugh.

Whereas

The Administration is not worrying about the action of the Supreme Court in holding unconstitutional the "hot oil" provision of the NIRA.

And there was nothing in the court's decision to cause any alarm about other phases of New Deal legislation.

The court very carefully did not hold the oil clause unconstitutional on the ground that the government did not have the right to prohibit or restrict interstate transportation of oil.

What the Court did was to (Continued On Page Four)

FISCH FORGED RANSOM NOTES, DEFENSE SAYS

Try to Pin Letters,
Bruno's Name to Dead
Man, as Trial Continues

HEAR MORE EXPERTS

State Ready to Change
Plan of Attack

By JAMES L. HILGALLAN
COURTROOM, FLEMINGTON, N. J., Jan. 16.—Two more handwriting experts took the stand today at the trial of Bruno Richard Hauptmann for the murder of the Lindbergh baby and declared their conviction that Hauptmann was the man who wrote the fourteen Lindbergh ransom notes.

They were Harry E. Cassidy, handwriting expert of Richmond, Va., and Wilmer T. Souder, of Washington, D. C., United States government authority on questioned documents.

This made a total of six experts who have expressed the opinion that the tight-lipped, phlegmatic German on trial for the murder of the baby wrote the ransom notes.

FLEMINGTON, N. J., Jan. 16.—Bruno Hauptmann's lawyers, in attacking the powerful testimony given by state handwriting experts, are seeking to prove that the dead Isidor Fisch—and not Hauptmann—wrote the Lindbergh ransom notes.

OUTLINE DEFENSE PLANS
This was made plain today by Egbert Rosecrans, of defense counsel, who said:

"The defense will prove that Fisch, using Hauptmann's diaries and other documents, forged the ransom notes."

Four state handwriting experts have already testified that in their opinion Hauptmann wrote the fourteen ransom notes. They are: Albert Osborn, of Montclair, N. J., one of the foremost handwriting authorities; Elbridge W. Stein of New York; John F. Tyrrell of Milwaukee; and Herbert J. White of Chicago. The latter two said forgery of the ransom notes would have been impossible.

Defense Attorney Rosecrans in cross-examining Walter asked this significant question:

"If a clever copyist, a clever

Continued On Page Eight

WORLD COURT FIGHT NEARS

President Urges Adherence While Many Staunch Domestic Supporters Differ

WASHINGTON, Jan. 16.—In one of the shortest presidential messages on record, President Roosevelt today asked the senate to vote American adherence to the League of Nations world court.

Mr. Roosevelt's message was delivered to the senate as foes of American entry into the league court, among them some of the administration's staunchest supporters on domestic policies, were launching their fight against ratification.

In his brief message, the president stated that American sovereignty will in no way be affected by adherence to the court, and that by ratification the "United States has an opportunity once more to throw its weight into the scale in favor of peace."

He Taught Amelia

Meet the man who taught Amelia Earhart Putnam to fly. He is J. G. Montijo, now an air mail pilot flying between Pueblo, Colo., and El Paso, Texas. It was in 1922 that Mrs. Putnam had enough money to buy a small plane. Not having an automobile, she had to walk six miles to and from the airport near Los Angeles for her daily lessons.

To Testify at Hauptmann Trial

Pincus Fisch and Hanna Fisch, brother and sister of the late Isidor Fisch, friend of Bruno Hauptmann, who is alleged to have given the defendant the Lindbergh ransom money, are indicated by arrows (heads bowed), as they arrived in New York from Germany. The relatives and nurse who attended Fisch at his deathbed, will testify for the state that Fisch returned home penniless.

Fisch Witnesses Ready to Appear In Bruno's Trial

All Four Removed From Coney
Island Hotel Today; Deny
Isidor Had Any Part.

NEW YORK, Jan. 16.—The four Fisch witnesses, imported from Germany by the prosecution at the Hauptmann trial, today left their hotel at Coney Island for an unannounced destination.

It was reported that the quartet was being taken to Trenton, N. J., where they would be more available for a sudden call to the court room at Flemington.

"We are here to clear Isidor's name," said Pincus Fisch, brother of Isidor, who was brought here with his wife, Emma, and his sister, Hannah. Emma Steinitz, nurse who attended Fisch before he died in a Leipzig hospital, also was a member of the party.

"We will tell all we know," Pincus said, "about Isidor's life, his friends and his movements from the time he was born. We are positive he could never have been mixed up in anything like the Lindbergh kidnapping."

Fisch was amazed at the statement of Henry Uhlig, friend of both Fisch and Hauptmann, who expressed conviction the latter was innocent and commented on Fisch's "strange" actions before and after the kidnapping.

"I can't understand Uhlig's attitude," he said. "Why, Isidor told Uhlig the money to pay his fare to Germany when they went there in 1933. Isidor worked for his money. As for Hauptmann, I never heard of him before his arrest and I can't tell how shocked I was when I learned he had implicated my brother."

SENATE APPROVES DAVEY APPOINTEES

COLUMBUS, Jan. 16.—The Ohio senate today confirmed Governor Martin L. Davey's appointments of Alfred A. Benesch of Cleveland, as state commerce director, and Samuel H. Squire of Elyria, as state superintendent of banks.

HOUSE TO REDUCE INAUGURAL COSTS

COLUMBUS, Jan. 16.—When the Ohio house of representatives considers the partial appropriation bill, upon which a vote was expected today it will find the amount for the inauguration of Gov. Martin L. Davey reduced from an original $3,000 to $5,000.

Republican members of the temporary finance committee, led by Rep. Grant Ward, Columbus, endeavored to slash the figure to $3,500, the amount spent by former Governor White for his first inauguration four years ago, but were repulsed by the Democrats who outnumbered them, 4 to 3.

New Arrivals

Mr. and Mrs. Alex Watt, of Cleveland, announce the birth of a nine pound son, Tuesday, Jan. 15. Mr. Watt is a former resident of this city and a brother of Donald H. Watt, N. Court-st.

Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Brungs, E. Union-st., announce the birth of a son, Tuesday.

WORLEY ASKS PROBE OF GAS

Columbus Mayor to Summon Officials to Conference On Alleged Waste.

COLUMBUS, Jan. 16.—Mayor Henry E. Worley, of Columbus, chairman of the Ohio Conference of Mayors, today issued a call for a meeting here in the near future to inaugurate plans to force a congressional investigation of natural gas corporations.

The latest attack on the utilities according to Mayor Worley, was prompted by charges that natural gas corporations maintained monopolistic practices and withheld from the Midwest millions of cubic feet of gas now being wasted in the Texas panhandle.

Mayor Worley added that the investigation would seek to determine whether or not a statewide reduction in gas rates would be possible if the Texas panhandle gas were piped into Ohio instead of allegedly being valued into the air.

The dynamic Columbus mayor, who led the recent fight of Ohio city governments for an "equitable share" of sales tax receipts, said that invitations would be forwarded today to all cities represented in the mayors conference and to officials of Milwaukee, St. Louis, Indianapolis and Detroit.

Actual date for the intercity conference, he said, would be set as soon as he was able to confer with representatives of Milwaukee and Toledo, Mayor Hoan of Milwaukee already has requested the conference and Councilman William McCullough of Toledo will introduce a resolution in the city council there Monday to pave the way for participation of the city of Toledo representatives in the meeting.

JOHNSON TO SPEAK
E. F. Johnson, of the Ralston-Purina Co., will speak at the Rotary club meeting Thursday noon explaining the industrial use of soy beans.

MARRIAGE LICENSE

George William Heeter, 45, Circleville, farmer, and Lucille Irene Clark, Circleville.

HOUSE TO REDUCE INAUGURAL COSTS

COLUMBUS, Jan. 16.—When the Ohio house of representatives considers the partial appropriation bill, upon which a vote was expected today it will find the amount for the inauguration of Gov. Martin L. Davey reduced from an original $3,000 to $5,000.

Republican members of the temporary finance committee, led by Rep. Grant Ward, Columbus, endeavored to slash the figure to $3,500, the amount spent by former Governor White for his first inauguration four years ago, but were repulsed by the Democrats who outnumbered them, 4 to 3.

New Arrivals

Mr. and Mrs. Alex Watt, of Cleveland, announce the birth of a nine pound son, Tuesday, Jan. 15. Mr. Watt is a former resident of this city and a brother of Donald H. Watt, N. Court-st.

Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Brungs, E. Union-st., announce the birth of a son, Tuesday.

OVER MILLION IN U. S. CCC CAMPS

WASHINGTON, Jan. 16.—More than 1,000,000 men from the states and the insular possessions, 825,000 of them between 19 and 25 years old, have been given jobs lasting from six to 15 months by the CCC since April 5, 1933, Director Robert Fechner, reported today. Practically all of the January replacements, totaling 68,000, were completed by Jan. 10.

"There are now 360,000 men, including the new enrollment, in the 1,242 regular camps, and 107 Indian, insular and territorial camps," Fechner said.

SHANER TALKS ON CITY BILLS

Says Hospital Superintendent Has Authority To Have Bills Collected.

L. T. Shaner, safety director, came back at Dr. C. C. Beale, county health commissioner, today in a statement answering Dr. Beale's action in telling the county commissioners and township trustees to ignore bills sent to them by a collection agency employed by the city.

"Replying to the statement in Monday's paper about the hospital bills that were given to a collector for collection.

"As your safety director I wish to say the more $5,000 is due the Berger municipal hospital from the different townships throughout the county and other sources. The date of these past due accounts ranges from the early part of 1931 on,—and I fully believe they should have been paid long before this and I know any sensible business man would think the same.

"In spite of our efforts to collect these accounts, along comes some one who thinks he has the authority, advises the townships and the county commissioners not to pay these accounts—perhaps he thinks it 'too sudden.'"

"Also I wish to state that by act of council the superintendent of Berger hospital has the right to collect any and all bills due the hospital, and also has the right, I believe, to ask any assistance that might be necessary.

"We are getting along nicely out there, we think, and we do not need a guardian."

HEAVY SNOW HALTS WESTERN RAILWAYS

DENVER, Jan. 16.—Railroad officials waited today for a letup in the blizzard that raged through southwestern Colorado before sending snowplows from Alamosa and Durango to dig out two freight and a passenger train marooned at the top of Cumbres pass, more than 10,000 feet above sea level.

A dozen passengers were reported aboard the train. They had comfortable quarters, however, with steam heat in the cars and provisions brought from a supply house on the pass.

Another Denver and Rio Grande Western railroad passenger train was held at Chama, N. M., a few miles south of the pass.

Groce Again Named Insurance Director

Col. C. E. Groce, S. Court-st., was re-elected a director and vice president of the Ohio Grain Dealers Insurance Co. at its meeting held in Columbus Tuesday.

Leon Friedman, of New York City, visited Tuesday night with his mother, Mrs. B. Friedman, E. Mount-st., while on a business trip in this territory.

DAVEY DRAFTS HIS MESSAGE; TO EVADE TAX

Abolition of Liquor Tax,
Creation of New Safety
Department Seen

TO APPEAR TUESDAY

Moratorium, Bond Issue
Moves Delayed

COLUMBUS, Jan. 16.—Scheduled to appear for the first time before a joint session of the Ohio legislature next Tuesday, Gov. Martin L. Davey today set to work drafting a message which will embody many of his most important legislative recommendations.

Still feeling the effect of shaking hands with countless thousands at the inauguration, the new chief executive was favoring his right hand as much as possible, using his left hand to welcome visitors.

He will recommend in his initial message to the legislature that it abolish the $1 a gallon tax on spirituous liquor, which netted the state about $1,700,000 the first year since repeal.

PLANS SAFETY UNIT
His proposal for creation of a state department of public safety to coordinate police powers of the state into a solidified unit for the purpose of quenching racketeers and gangsters will be laid before the general assembly at the same time.

His message was fairly certain to contain a recommendation that the state employ salary reduction act which expired last Dec. 31, thus automatically raising the payroll about $1,500,000 annually, be re-enacted.

"I see no occasion to mention taxation in my first message," said Davey, who feels that sufficient time should elapse to ascertain with some degree of accuracy how much the 3 per cent sales tax will produce before taking further action.

He decided to address the assembly next Tuesday after a long conference with Republican as well as Democratic leaders of both the house and senate. All of them, he said, "indicated a cordial spirit of cooperation."

On the subject of liquor, Governor Davey reiterated his belief that the state should be satisfied with either a tax or a profit and should not collect both. If the legislature should reject his plea for lifting the $1 a gallon tax, he indicated the liquor department will be instructed to slash its present profits.

He also will propose that the present 15 per cent discount allowed on liquor purchased from the state by persons holding permits to re-sell it by the glass, be increased to discourage them from buying illicitly from bootleggers.

(Continued On Page Eight)

BEATTY INJURED BY AFRICAN LION

ROCHESTER, Ind., Jan. 16.—Clyde Beatty, wild animal trainer, suffered today from an assortment of cuts, fractured ribs and bruises inflicted by Sampson, a newly imported African lion that attacked him in the training cage.

Holding a straight backed chair before him as a shield, Beatty was putting the black maned lion through a few simple tricks at the winter quarters here when the animal suddenly charged the noted trainer.

Beatty was hurled across the 40 foot steel gridded training arena but managed to fight off the lion with the chair legs until attendants beat Sampson away from the injured trainer. Beatty backed painfully to the door while the others diverted the animal's attention.

In addition to severe cuts and bruises Beatty was found to be suffering from several fractured ribs.

WEBER BACKS BILL FOR $1 TRANSFER

Senator August W. Weber, representing the Pickaway-Franklin district, has presented a bill to permit automobile owners selling cars to transfer plates to the new owners with a fee of $1.

COUNTRY CLUB'S MEMBERS TO MEET

The annual meeting of active members of the Pickaway Country club will be held this evening at 8 o'clock at the club. Trustees are to be elected and other business of importance transacted.

Slays Slapper of Son

Frank Hughes, above, deputy sheriff of Cassco, Missouri, was charged with first degree murder after police said he admitted he shot and killed Guy George, 42, who supposedly slapped Hughes' son for not having his car parked properly. Authorities said Hughes went to the George home to arrest him but had no warrant.

BANK ROBBERY SUSPECT HELD

Ross-Co Sheriff Asks Custody of Rose, 40, Under Arrest
In Kentucky.

Sheriff Joe Vincent, of Ross-co, notified authorities of Mt. Vernon, Ky., and Hamilton, O., that he would like to question William Rose, 40, of Newark as a suspect in the recent blasting-robbery of the Adelphi Banking Co.

Rose is under arrest in the Kentucky town.

It is Vincent's belief that Rose got "the lay of the land" in advance for the Adelphi gang by going to the village about Dec. 1 and representing himself as a buyer of walnut timber.

He started several timber deals and engaged a young man named Nevlin Hettinger to assist him. On Dec. 6, Rose took Hettinger and a boy named Queen with him on a trip to Huntington, W. Va. Before leaving Adelphi he made out a check for $15 drawn on the Cincinnati Bank and Trust Company and made payable to Hettinger. At his request, Hettinger endorsed the check and got the money.

At Huntington Rose abandoned his two passengers and they were required to hitch-hike back to Adelphi. Then it was learned that Rose had no such account as was one on which the check was drawn. Rose was not seen after that date. Hettinger filed a charge against him in Squire Hickey's court on the check matter.

More significance attached to his disappearance after the Adelphi bank robbery. On Jan. 4, when it became definitely known here that Rose was said to have been involved in a Hamilton filling station robbery of that date, local officials were more than ever of the belief that he might have had a leading part in the Adelphi crime. Hettinger told officers that while he and Queen waited in the car at Huntington, Rose went into a telephone office and sent a telegram.

(Continued On Page Eight)

FARM BUREAU PLANS FORMED

The Pickaway farm bureau has started to make preparations for its annual meeting Tuesday, Jan. 29, at the Methodist Episcopal church.

The feature speaker of the day will be Chester Gray, national farm authority now connected with the administration of the AAA.

Other speakers will include Guy Dowdy, AAA compliance officer for Ohio, whose subject will be "Highlights of the AAA Program for 1935," and "The Status of Extension Work in Pickaway-co." by F. K. Blair, county agent.

A complete program is planned beginning at 10:15 a. m. with a plate lunch to be served at noon by ladies of the church. The program will be completed about 3:30 p. m. with distribution of farm bureau dividend checks.

COGNOVIT IS FILED

A cognovit action for $3,616.13 has been filed in common pleas court by Benjamin O. and Aaron Keller against A. S. and Ida Thomas.

COUNTY SHARE OF SALES TAX STAMPS HERE

Pickaway Is Sent $27,300
By Sales Division; All
Must Be Counted

10 DIFFERENT UNITS

E. W. Weiler Is Assigned
To Toledo District

As soon as $27,300 worth of sales tax stamps can be counted in the office of Treasurer Earl L. Hoffman by Mrs. Anna Kiger, who will have complete charge of the work, retail merchants of Circleville and Pickaway-co can obtain stamps which will be necessary when the sales tax is placed in operation, probably within the next ten days or two weeks.

The stamps were received in the treasurer's office Wednesday morning and immediately the tiresome task of counting the stamps was started. It is impossible to say at this time just when the stamps will be ready for distribution.

They come in denominations of 1, 3, 6, 9, 12, 15, 30 and 60 cents $1.50 and $3.

It is necessary for retailers to present the receipt they received when applying for their licenses in order to receive the stamps.

Weiler Is Assigned
To Toledo District

Ernest W. Weiler, this city, has been appointed an assistant examiner of the Toledo district under the state sales tax set-up.

Weiler was appointed to the department last week but was not certain when called to Columbus where his territory would be.

The salary of an assistant examiner is $1,600 annually. Salaries announced by the sales tax division include: district managers, $3,000; senior examiners, $2,400; junior examiners, $2,000; and assistant examiners, $1,600.

County Committee
Endorses Six More

The Pickaway-co Democratic executive committee endorsed six more persons for positions, Tuesday evening, when a meeting was held in the auditor's office.

They include: Ernest Weiler, Virgil May, Leo White and W. E. Malone for positions in the sales tax division of the state tax department. W. H. Fitzgerald, Monroe-twp. for time-keeper in the highway department.

Worley Timmons, Monroe-twp. for a post as farm enumerator. Timons will take the place originally intended for J. M. Tootle, who has declined the post.

EX-SERVICE MEN GATHER TONIGHT

All ex-service men of Circleville and Pickaway-co are urged to attend the meeting at Memorial hall at 8 o'clock this evening at which time many of the veterans' problems will be discussed by John M. Brockie, Mr. Sterling publisher, and other speakers.

While the meeting is sponsored by Howard Hall post American Legion, all veterans will be welcome, legionnaires or not. Brockie's message is of importance to all war vets.

Entertainment and lunch will also be provided for those attending.

RALSTON PURINA PRODUCT DAMAGED

Meal and feed hauled for the Ralston-Purina Co. by William Teas was destroyed Tuesday as a result of a collision in the Paint creek bridge, Chillicothe.

The truck was enroute to Charleston and Kenova, W. Va., when the driver crashed into a guard rail after blinded by lights of an approaching car.

No one was injured but much of the feed was lost.

NEW LICENSE TAG FEE IS PROPOSED

COLUMBUS, Jan. 16.—A new schedule of automobile license fees is proposed in a bill on file in the Ohio senate today.

Introduced by Senator W. H. Horner (D), Norwalk, the measure would change the license fee schedule to a graduated system of automobile license charges based on the cost of motor vehicles.

Fees provided in the bill range from $5 on a $500 car to $25 on cars costing more than $5,000. Fees are scaled down, however, each year for four years.

THE CIRCLEVILLE HERALD

Consolidation of The Circleville Herald established in 1883, and Daily Union-Herald, established in 1894.

A Democratic newspaper, published evenings except Sunday by THE CIRCLEVILLE PUBLISHING COMPANY
West Main St., Circleville, Ohio

K. J. HERRMANN, Manager
G. K. JENKINS, Editor
GLEN GEIB, Managing Editor
Member Ohio Newspaper Association, International News Service, Central Press Association, Ohio Select List, Bureau of Advertising.

NATIONAL ADVERTISING REPRESENTATIVE
JOHN W. CULLEN COMPANY
No. 8 South Michigan Ave., Chicago, 501 Fifth Ave., New York City
General Motors Building, Detroit, Mich.

SUBSCRIPTION RATES
By carrier in Circleville, 15c per week, $6 per year, in advance. By mail, Pickaway County and Circleville trading territory, per year, $3; Zones one and two, $4 per year, beyond first and second postal zone, per year, $5.50.

Entered at Postoffice at Circleville, Ohio, as Second Class Matter.

OLD-FASHIONED HOME

AFTER 37 years on the bench listening to tales of domestic troubles, Judge John J. Brady of Albany on his retirement offers a plea for the old-fashioned home headed by the proper sort of parents. In the last analysis it comes down to the parents, he says, despite all the talk of "modernity," with too much speed in arriving at vital decisions lurking in the background.

The judge does not think the fault lies wholly with the children. There are too many hasty marriages and lack of proper mating. There is too much "temperament"—an easy excuse for many things. The so-called problem child is the result. Originally the child was not a problem if the parents were not themselves problems to begin with. The average child is of the most plastic material, capable of being trained from the very start to grow into a fine adult, regardless of sex. He most certainly is not born a problem, no matter what "modernity" may say.

"Wild parties" are not held in homes ruled in the "old" fashion, and "flaming youth" is not nurtured in them. An outworn attitude? Maybe—like the spirit that animates the Ten Commandments.

RIGHT TO CRITICIZE COURTS

A DECISION of importance to the right of free speech has been given by the Indiana supreme court in reversing the order of a lower court holding the editor of a Wabash paper, who has since died, in contempt for publishing editorials criticizing the appointment by the lower court of a receiver for a bank in Wabash. The defendant was sentenced to serve 10 days in jail and to pay a fine of $100.

"The right to comment freely and criticize the actions, opinions and judgments of courts is of primary importance to the public generally," the opinion of the supreme court says. "Not only is it good for the public, but it has a salutary effect on the courts as well. Courts and judges are not, and should not be,—above criticism, and as long as they are not impeded in the conduct of judicial business by publications having the effect of obstructing the enforcement of their orders and judgments, or of impairing the justice and impartiality of verdicts, there is no right to enforce a contempt proceeding."

This is a sensible judgment, one which recognizes the fallibility of the human element, even when exalted by circumstances, also the fundamental rights of the people. It will contribute to greater respect for, and confidence in, the courts.

GARLIC AND CABBAGE

AMONG right-thinking people there will be general regret over the report from Paris that a distinguished French scientist has succeeded, after lengthy experimentation, in grafting garlic and cabbage plants. This is just another evidence of the trivial, futile and even vicious ends which science is compelled to serve by men lacking in a proper conception of its dignity and importance in the scheme of life.

There are varying opinions concerning the palatability of cabbage. There are hearty, robust souls who sing its praises, others with whom it finds little favor. Friends and critics alike agree, however, that it is an honest sort of vegetable, redolent of the soil, and with certain health-giving qualities that are really important to physical welfare. French encyclopedias define garlic as "an onion of an odor very strong." This is but a half-truth, gently expressed. Garlic is, in fact, something far different and infinitely worse than an onion with a strong odor. Its introduction into civilized society can be described only as cruel and inhuman.

Why then should the pure art of science be corrupted by the utilization of its powers for the grafting of garlic and cabbage plants? No acceptable answer can be given and righteous people can only lament the sins committed in the fair name of science.

As a rule, as you look so are you looked upon.

Time cures everything, but it takes such a long time.

Practice makes perfect, but who wants to be a perfect liar?

You can tell about how a boy will turn out if you know what time he turns it.

The ideal tax is one that gets the greatest possible revenue from the least possible number of voters.

The University of Nevada is establishing a school in divorce. The faculty, no doubt, will be recruited in Hollywood.

Now that it's been decided that there are no people on Mars, the joke seems to be on those citizens of our own planet who have been receiving messages from there.

Looking Back In Pickaway County

FIVE YEARS AGO

Appropriations for the city's operating expenses for the year totaled $76,000, an increase of $10,000 over the previous year because of the added expense of the new city hospital.

Dr. D. V. Courtwright, Robert Brehmer and C. A. Weldon were re-elected as members of the board of trustees of the Pickaway County club.

Mrs. Telitha Curni Wolford, 74, prominent Jackson-twp woman, died at her home, death being due to paralysis.

15 YEARS AGO

Frank W. Grice purchased the 90-acre farm of Ned Bell in Jackson-twp and expected to build a modern home there.

R. B. Anderson of Williamsport, miraculously escaped injury when a car which he was driving was struck by a train at Woodlyn. The car was demolished.

Stephen R. Washburn was checked in as local agent for the American Railway Express company. He succeeded R. E. Swope who had been in charge of the office for eight years. Theodore Hatz succeeded Washburn as cashier.

25 YEARS AGO

The Circleville postoffice in 1909 showed the largest volume of business in its history. The receipts amounted to $15,470.05.

Oliver Lanman, farmer near Robstown, was seriously burned about the face, neck, arms and legs when he attempted to revive the fire in a heating stove with kerosene. His clothing caught fire from the explosion.

George Roth, Jr., resigned as local agent for the Scioto Valley Traction company. He was succeeded by Harry B. Welch, who had been assistant agent. E. E. Reichelderfer was named as assistant to Welch.

Little Sister

by MARGARET WIDDERMER

READ THIS FIRST:

Leila Madison, an orphan, has been trying to halt the elopement of her reckless young sister, Bet, with Addison Huntington, a romantic radical. Jerry Redmond, a newspaper reporter, has been helping her because of his friendship for Addison's brother who was Jerry's roommate at Yale. They are all at Leila's home in Westchester where Addison and Jerry meet Aunt Minnie and Mrs. Johnston-Hedges, mother of Leila's sweetheart and aristocratic neighbor, Orton Johnston-Hedges. They have just come from Bet's New York apartment where Addison narrowly escaped the police who sought him for questioning in connection with the whereabouts of an acquaintance and alleged forger named Jarocki. Addison makes an impression upon Aunt Minnie and Mrs. Johnston-Hedges. Addison makes it clear he and his wealthy father do not get along, but Aunt Minnie doesn't know this. Bet borrows $5 from Leila to buy Addison a collar to replace the one left in New York when he disguised himself as a girl to fool the police. To Leila's surprise the dinner goes off very pleasantly. (NOW GO ON WITH THE STORY)

CHAPTER 17

"AUNT MINNIE, do stop rambling," said Bet.
Addison looked at Bet, a little shocked. He already liked Aunt Minnie. But Aunt Minnie was so used to being sat on by Bet that she answered her, sweetly unconscious. "Rambling, darling? Why, I wasn't rambling at all, I was explaining to Mr. Huntington why I was sure of dear Florrie's loyalty. Because of course poor papa's selling off the land made a difference. It changed our status with many of the more unthinking and purse-proud people. Especially when papa didn't get any money after all, owing to something they called reorganizing. Though it was the same men, and really I think they must have been dishonest. But Florrie simply said, 'Well, dear Minnie, my advice to you is to call on all the new people in these houses and keep in touch with them. They will then feel socially welcomed and will not be antagonistic elements. And as you can't give large affairs any more' it won't obligate the rest of us beyond my own New Year's reception yearly, which is free to all."

Bet snorted.
"But whole group makes me simply ill," said Addison. "So earnest and civic and what have you have been managing everything better than Tammany."

And Bet never pouted even. She continued to look at him with reverence.

As for Aunt Minnie, she smiled absently and said, "Yes, indeed." To her, men were a species of all powerful children, unreasonable deities, capable of the gift or the thunderbolt, but not what you paid attention to really.

"As I was saying," she went on, "Florrie came today with little Orton to tell me about this dreadful performance on the part of the improvements."

As Aunt Minnie spoke the word, an improvement might have been either a new type of plague germ or a band of irreclaimable savages. "Not that some of my best friends don't live in improvements," she added charitably. "Now where is that list of people to be telephoned to that Florrie gave me? Some of those I'll have to call on personally, of course. She says perhaps a small tea party might be the easiest way."

Trees & Forests

BY W. M. REID

As I travel over the roads of this and adjoining counties in the Scioto valley, I try to imagine the whole country covered as it once was with the magnificent forests that have been destroyed to make the fertile farms that now produce food for the thousands.

All that remains of the woods are a few scraggly woodlots and fringes of trees along the steep sides of the stream. One in a while a magnificent specimen may be sighted, but its top is broken and shattered by the storms from which it has no protection from the presence of its fellows.

When trees grow singly in open spaces or fields the branches grow near the earth, the tree spreads itself out over a wide space and is not of much account for lumber, but when it grows in a group with many of its fellows crowding it, the growth is upward toward the sunlight and the result is a long saw-log and fine cleargrained lumber. When a forest is lumbered off the remaining trees are soon ruined by storms and the top is battered by the winds and the body is split, or, as the lumber men say, wind-shaken. Very seldom do these trees last long. So it was unusual for us today to see a really large tree such as the early settlers saw when the country was new. Many of the original forest trees were three, four, and five or more feet in diameter.

Until a few years ago, there stood in the middle of the road, between Saitcreek and Pickaway-twps, a bur oak seven feet in diameter.

Henry Howe, in his Ohio Historical Collections, tells of a sycamore at Waverly that was used as a blacksmith shop, the hollow of which was so large that a man with a ten-foot fence rail could turn around inside without touching the sides. I remember when a boy of seeing the hollow stumps of a sycamore at Westfall that housed a dozen or more good-sized hogs. We admire the great size of Logan Elm, but in the primeval forest that covered the country there must have been many that surpassed it in size. This tree has grown in a comparatively open space as the height of its limbs indicate. It will be difficult to keep it alive very many years longer as it has probably reached the age of ripeness for its species and, like all living things, die of old age.

The early botanists had less difficulty in identifying the different species of trees than we have today. Then the trees were full size and their characteristics were outstanding. Today we have stunted counterparts of the originals, and saplings that have had a struggle to exist, on which to base identifications.

It is still possible to find specimens of all the trees that composed the original forest. No variety is believed to have disappeared but that specimens can be found growing from now on are not likely to be perpetuated on account of the prevalence of insect enemies that destroy most of the fruits before they can mature. The elms and sycamores are not so affected, and whenever opportunity is given they soon cover the surface with seedlings. So with the pines of southern and eastern Ohio. Plants are so persistent that I believe that if Pickaway-co was to be depopulated for 25 years and then we could come back to find the entire surface covered with forests again, not the mature growth that formerly existed, but forest trees nevertheless, elms, sycamores, and shrubs would first come because of their profuse seeding qualities with the others following as protection became better. The harder trees, such as the oaks, ashes, hickories, will grow best when in competition with other trees of less hardness.

We sometimes deplore the destruction of the original magnificent forest, but man must have food and as he could not eat trees he must destroy them to make place for fields of wheat and corn. But there are vast areas in the state that should be, and I hope soon, covered again with trees as conservators of water and producers of wood for the benefit of mankind.

GRAB BAG

Who said: "I purpose to fight it out on this line, if it takes all summer?"

What phantom ship may be seen off Cape of Good Hope in stormy weather?

What Spanish city and what Syrian city were famous for the quality of the steel weapons which they manufactured?

Correctly Speaking—

Capitalize club, company, society or any other common noun, when it is made a component part of a proper noun.

Words of Wisdom

When we desire to confine our words, we commonly say they are spoken under the rose.—Sir Thomas Browne.

Today's Horoscope

Persons born on this day do not fling money away lavishly, and have much ambition.

Answers to Foregoing Questions

1. Ulysses S. Grant, in a dispatch to Washington, May 11, 1864.
2. The Flying Dutchman.
3. Toledo, Spain, and Damascus, Syria.

Today's Yesterdays

January 16, 1580—English Parliament imposed a fine of $100 for absence from church.

1793—King Louis XVI of France sentenced to death.

1874—Birth of Robert W. Service.

1893—Hawaiian monarchy overthrown and throne abolished.

1918—All manufacturing plants east of Mississippi, Minnesota and Louisiana ordered to close for 10 following Mondays.

1920—15th (prohibition) amendment went into effect at midnight.

One Minute Pulpit

For thus saith the Lord: Like as I have brought all this great evil upon this people, so will I bring upon them all the good that I have promised them.—Jeremiah 33:42.

But she was really very sweet, she thought seven or eight might be done over the telephone.

"Sweet!" said Bet with scorn, and then stopped, eyeing her lord. Leila said nothing at all. She wondered whether it would be quicker to do it herself, or—which was the alternative—find number after number for her aunt, get the people in question, and deal them out to Aunt Minnie one by one till all the conversations were over. Aunt Minnie had never been able to take telephoning easily; unless Leila bore the brunt of it, a session of the sort she so lightly heartily assumed made her ill for two days following.

"Tell me more about the improvements," said Addison with—could it be real love? "Indeed, I should like to know what an improvement is."

Aunt Minnie, who was accustomed to talking on in spite of a half fear that nobody wanted her, to gaze at Addison with gratitude, and began again.

"This is Fernwood Manor. The improvements—not that they are, you know—the Fernwood gardens and woods and hills and hollows and gates; not that they have any such things," said Aunt Minnie with just disapproval. "It's like a wishing well tea room I once got Leila to drive me 40 miles to wish at—things were really very bad financially and you never knew it was a help—and there wasn't any well, it was just that they thought it was a good name. Nothing but tea, and toast they had to be told to butter, just like the English. In fact, they were English."

"And what are they doing that you don't like?" Leila asked in mercy.

"Well, it seems that the manor, that is, of course, the real Fernwood, owns a bathing beach. Of course only property owners living here can use it. The improvements haven't any waterfront except a big marsh beyond Fernwood gardens. Up to 1923 the others were very careful about our beach, they went off to fashionable beach clubs, but since then they haven't wanted to afford clubs. So they are trying to stir up enough votes at the village meeting with all the Fernwoods. Of course, we have till October 10 to influence public opinion," said she, obviously quoting her friend. So I have a lot of civic duty ahead of me influencing public opinion. The Madison name still stands for something, you know."

(TO BE CONTINUED)

Heard & Seen

BY KAY JAY

BACK IN 1906

Circleville and Pickaway-co were well represented at the inauguration ceremonies, and, as the old-time cross-roads correspondent would express it, "a good time was had by all." The news dispatches tell us that the party was a success from every standpoint and that the reins of government were given into new hands without any casualties. The old boys stepped down and out, and the new ones stepped in—just like that—and when the smoke cleared away, the music and hilarity faded out, the state's business was resumed as usual.

Many local people have recalled the inauguration of Governor John M. Pattison, which took place early in January, 1906, and I've heard quite a number of remarks concerning the inclement weather of that day. The kind that provided a brass rail in front of a long counter were shot deep in slush carried in on the feet of the customers, and it required a number of "hot ones" to offset the effects of atmospheric conditions and wet feet. Imbibing was freely indulged in by saint and sinner alike, as it was on another memorable occasion—November 11, 1918. Remember?

Pattison's inauguration was a colorful event. The Democrats were hungry for the limelight, as they had been entirely out of the political picture in Ohio since Governor Harmon retired in 1890, and they gathered in Columbus from all parts of the state to celebrate the first Democratic gubernatorial victory in 16 long years. And what a day of celebration it was!

Governor Pattison was not well the day of the inauguration. He returned to his home in Clermont county that night, and was never in his office afterward. He died the following June. Many believed that exposure to the inclement weather during the inauguration ceremonies hastened his death.

So far as this writer knows, he was the last of Ohio's governors to wear a full beard.

Factographs

Stock exchanges as institutions had their origin at the time of the creation of public debts on the modern plan, at the close of the seventeenth century.

An inquiline is an insect which lays its eggs in a nest of some other insect, thus living parasitically at the expense of the host.

A severe epidemic in 412 B. C. described by Hippocrates and Livius, is thought to have been influenza.

Limestone consists of carbonate of lime and some impurity which gives the stone its color.

BACK ON THE CONCRETE AGAIN

THEATRES

AT THE GRAND

"Grand Canary," the fascinating best seller, by A. J. Cronin, is Warner Baxter's next starring vehicle, coming to the Grand Theatre, Wednesday. It is a truly magnificent love story, which gives Baxter one of his finest romantic roles.

The story opens with Baxter as an eminent young doctor and scientist boarding a ship for Canary Islands. His career is apparently wrecked, and he believes he is sailing to oblivion. On the same ship is Madge Evans, sailing from an unhappy marriage. Although they are irresistibly drawn to one another, their sense of honor prevents them from admitting their love.

AT THE CLIFTONA

Is an officer of the law justified in protecting his sweetheart by allowing her to escape from the scene of murder? Must the age-old problem of love versus duty again be decided in favor of the latter?

These questions are dramatically answered in Columbia's "White Lies," featuring Walter Connolly, Fay Wray and Victor Jory, which comes tonight and Thursday to the Cliftona Theatre. In one of its most poignant situations, Victor Jory, as the officer, is called upon to arrest his affianced, Fay Wray.

who has been found in an apartment with a murdered man. The drama is effectively heightened when it is known that only Jory is aware of her presence, and by permitting her to leave can save her from any implication in the crime.

How Jory acts in this predicament and the dramatic consequences that follow make for one of the most interesting and nerve-rattling climaxes.

The screen play is from the pen of Harold Shumate and was directed by Leo Bulgakov, former member of the Moscow Art Theatre, who is now in Hollywood for the first time.

Poems That Live

A KISS

Rose kissed me today.
Will she kiss me tomorrow?
Let it be as it may.
Rose kissed me today.
But the pleasure gives way
To a sorrow of sorrow.
Rose kissed me today.
Will she kiss me tomorrow?
—Austin Dobson

GLAD DAY

Here's another day, dear,
Here's the sun again
Peeping in his pleasant way
Through the window pane.

Rise and let him in dear,
Hail him "hip hurra!"
Now the fun will all begin
Here's another day!

Modern Treatment for Rheumatic Heart

Vaccine Has Been Successfully Used in Lessening Severity of This Dreaded Complication of Rheumatic Fever

By ROYAL S. COPELAND, M. D.
United States senator from New York
Former Commissioner of Health,
New York City

EVERYBODY is familiar with the term "rheumatism" and applies it to all sorts of aches and pains. The real disease, known to the doctors as "acute rheumatic fever," is one of the most serious ailments of modern life. It is especially dangerous because it commonly affects children and leads to that dreaded complication known as "rheumatic heart."

In former years little was known about this serious disorder. It was considered a fatal or disabling. Though the actual cause of the disease has not been discovered, various methods of treatment have been developed which have lessened its severity.

Modern Treatment

The use of a vaccine has been of considerable value in the treatment of rheumatic heart. This vaccine is obtained from a growth of a special strain of a germ with a big name, the "streptococcus." Even though this particular germ has not been proved to be the actual cause of rheumatic fever, it is commonly encountered in most cases of the disease. It is taken from the throat of a patient suffering from acute rheumatic fever or from one who has recently recovered.

In addition to the use of this vaccine, successful results have been obtained from the reaction produced by the injection of other substances, such as milk or horse serum. The chosen substance is injected under the skin.

Following the injection, the patient has a chill, increased fever, and an increase in the number of white cells in the blood. After this there is a decline in fever and lessening of the symptoms. The results have been extremely beneficial in some cases, but I am sorry to say, equally disappointing in others.

Local Infections

Of great importance in the treatment of children and adults suffering from rheumatic fever, is the elimination of all centers of infection. Infected tonsils, teeth, nasal sinuses and similar conditions anywhere else in the body are detrimental to the health and recovery of the patient. Of course, such localized infections cannot be given attention during an acute attack. But it is advisable to take care of them as soon as the acute symptoms subside.

Since rheumatic fever is rarely encountered in tropical and subtropical climates, it is sometimes advisable for the sufferer from this affliction to move to a warm climate. For those who can afford it, a prolonged stay in Florida, Bermuda, Cuba or in Puerto Rico is of great benefit. I realize that for most of us this is impossible, but in any event sunshine, fresh air and a nourishing and liberal diet will be of great help to the sufferer.

It is probable that it won't be long before a definite cure for rheumatic fever will be developed. But at present careful and prolonged medical attention is essential to recovery. Every effort should be made to prevent such serious complications as rheumatic heart.

Answers to Health Queries

R. M. Q.—What do you advise to clear the complexion of pimples and other blemishes? I am a boy of sixteen and feel embarrassed by the condition of my face.

A.—Proper diet and regular habits should bring about general improvement. For full particulars send a

ON THE AIR

WEDNESDAY EVENING

7:15—Just Plain Bill, CBS; Plantation Echoes, NBC.
7:30—Arthur Tracy, the street singer, WGN.
8:00—Mary Pickford, modern plays and players, NBC; Jenthouse party, Mark Hellinger and Gladys Glad, WLW.

8:15—Edwin C. Hill, "The Human Side of the News," CBS.
8:30—Lanny Ross, NBC; Everett Marshall's Broadway Varieties, CBS; Henry Thies, WLW.

9:00—Town Hall Tonight, Fred Allen, WLW; 20,000 Years in Sing Sing, Warden Lewis E. Lawes, NBC.

9:30—John McCormack, tenor, NBC; Burns and Allen, CBS.

THURSDAY EVENING

6:00—Xavier Cugat's orchestra, NBC.
7:15—Whispering Jack Smith, NBC.

7:30—Al Bernard and the Merry Minstrel, NBC.

7:45—Boake Carter, news, CBS.

8:00—O. Henry stories, NBC; Vallee's hour, WLW.

8:30—Forum of Liberty with Edwin C. Hill, CBS.

9:00—Show Boat with Lanny Ross, NBC; The Caravan, Walter O'Keefe, Annette Hanshaw and others, CBS.

9:30—Fred Waring's music, CBS; Unsolved Mysteries, WLW.

self-addressed, stamped envelope and repeat your question.

Anxious. Q.—What can be done for a patient suffering from high blood pressure? What foods should be avoided in such cases?

A.—Red meats, eggs and salt should be greatly restricted under such circumstances. For full particulars send a self-addressed, stamped envelope and repeat your question.

Anxious. Q.—What foods should be avoided by a patient who is suffering from a gall bladder and liver condition?

A.—All highly spiced and seasoned foods, etc., should be avoided in this case. For full particulars send a self-addressed, stamped envelope and repeat your question.

H. B. Q.—What causes an empty feeling, accompanied by nausea, shortly after eating a full meal? This condition is sometimes accompanied by pain and discomfort in the stomach.

A.—Indigestion and hyperacidity would be apt to cause symptoms such as you describe. Watch the diet and elimination. For full particulars send a self-addressed, stamped envelope and repeat your question.

Mrs. E. Z. Q.—I am only 27 years of age, but have been troubled with numbness for about three years. I have been told the condition is due to nerves but I have had no relief. What would you advise?

IN SOCIETY

Miss Helen Crist, Editor, Phone 551

D. A. R. Has Annual Dinner at Watts Home; Dr. Murphy Talks

When Pickaway Plains chapter Daughters of the American Revolution held its annual covered-dish dinner in honor of husbands and guests of the organization, a large attendance was noted. The pleasant evening was spent at the home of Dr. and Mrs. C. C. Watts, E. Main-st., Tuesday.

A bountiful dinner was served at 6 o'clock under the chairmanship of Mrs. Watts, Mrs. Anna Ball, Mrs. William T. Uhl, Mrs. R. R. Bales, Mrs. Charles Edward Wright, Miss Mary Wilder and Miss Charlotte Caldwell.

A brief business session ensued with Mrs. James Moffitt serving as acting recording secretary and corresponding secretary. The treasurer's report was given by Mrs. William Mack.

Letters were read from Lancaster and Washington C. H. D. A. R. chapters responding to the invitation to the benefit card party, Jan. 24, at 8 p. m. at Memorial hall post room sponsored by the local chapter. The public is invited and those desiring to attend can make reservations with Mrs. George Foreman, Mrs. Frank Bennett and Mrs. Harry Heffner.

Mrs. Frank Bennett, chairman of 1935-36 program committee, made a few requests in regard to committee's work.

Delegates were elected to the State D. A. R. conference in Cleveland in March. They include Mrs. Harry J. Dunlap, Mrs. G. P. Hunsicker, Mrs. Bryce Briggs and Mrs. Orion King. Alternates are Mrs. Glenn I. Nickerson, Mrs. Ella Hornbeck, Mrs. William Mack and Miss Sallie Caldwell.

Mrs. G. K. Hunsicker will attend the conference as a state officer.

Delegates to the National D. A. R. congress in Washington

in April will be Mrs. Harry J. Dunlap and Mrs. G. P. Hunsicker; Alternates, Mrs. George P. Foreman, Mrs. Ella Hornbeck, Mrs. Bryce Briggs and Mrs. Orion King.

Music for the program was furnished by Hillaire Haecker, who played a number of entertaining accordion selections.

Dr. D. J. Murphy, head doctor of the Veterans' hospital near Chillicothe, was introduced as the speaker of the evening by Mrs. Harry Dunlap, presiding regent.

He told of the care of World War veterans in that institution, which was turned over to the U. S. Public Health Service. Many hospitals were erected. In 1924 a reorganization took place and in 1931 congress asked the President to consolidate.

There are two classes of veterans administration buildings, the hospitals and domiciles or homes to the number of seventy-seven. While there were accommodations for only 450 patients at the hospital in the opening of that institution there are now accommodations for the 1115 individuals being treated there.

Dr. Murphy stated there was a manager over the Medical, Finance, Supply and Utility service. Graduate nurses, only, are employed and expert dieticians plan the menus for the day when some 1500 persons are fed.

A vineyard, orchard, dairy and garden with poultry, hogs and beef are available as a source of food

TENNESSEE'S REIGNING BEAUTY

Mary Ellen Baldock

Picked from more than 2,000 students, Mary Ellen Baldock is the new beauty queen at the University of Tennessee, at Knoxville.

A senior, she was selected by a committee of prominent artists from a group of 24 beauties chosen by the student body.

DAUGHTER OF HALLSVILLE RESIDENTS IS MARRIED

Of interest here and in the Hallsville vicinity is the marriage of Miss Pauline Elliot, daughter of Rev. and Mrs. H. C. Elliot of Hallsville, to a noted Mexican baritone and opera singer, Senor Alejandro Rosas, which took place recently in New York.

The bride formerly made her home in Columbus. She is a distinguished pianist and organist having studied pipe organ in Columbus with William Dalton and later piano at Cincinnati Conservatory of Music. She is at present a member of the dance, music and drama faculty of the University of the State of New York.

Her brother, Mr. Floyd E. Elliot, is an instructor of violin and conductor at the Capital Conservatory of Music in Columbus.

Senor Rosas has studied music in New York and Milan, Italy. He made his debut in Italy and toured that country in an operatic career. At present he is singing over the National Broadcasting company.

The marriage took place at the West Park Presbyterian church in New York city with Dr. Alexander Evans officiating.

LARGE CROWD EXPECTED AT FIRST OF DANCE SERIES

A large crowd is expected to attend the first of a series of three dances to be sponsored by the Memorial hall association at Memorial hall. The first is to be held this Friday night.

Walt Sears and his eleven piece orchestra of Chillicothe will furnish the music from 9 until 1 o'clock. The orchestra features Chet Grimm, vocalist, and Bobby Meeks, accordionist.

Proceeds of the dance will help pay for material used on the hall during the remodeling last fall.

Salt Absolute Necessity
Salt is an absolute necessity to human life because it is necessary to form the hydrochloric acid in the stomach.

Household Arts

by Alice Brooks

Transform Your Tracks With Crocheted Neckwear

PATTERN 5258

Are you looking for something real feminine to add to your clothes? Here is your answer in crocheted neckwear at its daintiest. The collar and cuff set, decorated with the dainty crocheted medallions, can be made of net or georgette and is especially lovely in white or a delicate pink. The scarf is the sort of thing that is flattering to every woman. Done in cotton, it is made entirely in the well-known knot stitch that gives such a lacy effect. Only the border introduces a different stitch to get the fan-like design. The collar, in the simple net pattern, with the dots the only design employed, is as pretty in back as in front, for it has the square sailor effect so popular now. The bow is done in the same stitch as the collar and could, of course, be omitted entirely if desired. This collar, too, is made of cotton.

In pattern 5258 you will find complete instructions for making the set shown; an illustration of it, of the stitches needed; material requirements and color suggestions.

To obtain this pattern send 10 cents in stamps or coin (coin preferred) to The Herald Household Arts Dept., 124 W. Main-st., Circleville, O.

NOTICE!

SEWING MACHINES REPAIRED
SAWS FILED
LOCKS FIXED
CLOCKS CLEANED
SHEARS SHARPENED
TOOLS OF ALL KINDS SHARPENED.

Sausage grinder plates and knives sharpened.

Any article around the house that is broken bring it to the

FIXIT SHOP

E. E. GHEEN, PROP.

212 Mingo St. Circleville, O.

WHEN THE WEATHER IS BAD! STAY AT HOME AND TELEPHONE

All of the Advantages of the Famous European Spas... Near Your Home

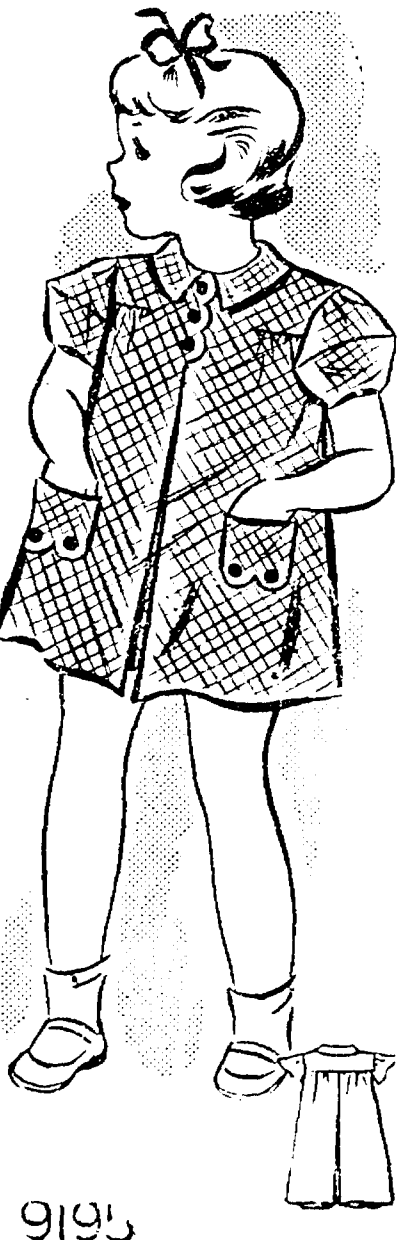

Thousands—in good health—come annually to the Park Hotel to take the Baths and Drink the water of the Famous MAGNETIC SPRING—Why?—To maintain that good health, Excellent Cuisine, Sleepy Beds, Delightful Surroundings.

Medical and Nurse Service PARK HOTEL Treatment Baths
HEALTH AND PLEASURE RESORT
Open Entire Year

Marian Martin Pattern

Complete, Diagrammed Marian Martin Sew Chart Included.

PATTERN 9195

The mother of an active little girl, knows there are two things to ask when selecting her play frocks—first, "is it pretty?" and second, but just as important, "will it be pretty after hard wear and many tubbings?" Here's a demure little design that is just right for any of the wearables, washable cotton fabrics. It's certainly full of small-girl chic as you can see by the perky little round collar, scalloped bodice, closing and patch pockets. There isn't one little fussy detail to catch and tear either when sister is romping in it or when you are laundering it. Well-cut, roomy bloomers included in the pattern.

Pattern 9195 may be ordered only in sizes 2, 4 and 6. Size 4 requires 2 1/2 yards 36-inch fabric. Send FIFTEEN CENTS in coins or stamps (coins preferred) for EACH MARIAN MARTIN pattern. Be sure to write plainly your NAME, ADDRESS, the STYLE NUMBER and SIZE of each pattern.

Do not miss our WINTER PATTERNS BOOK of smart, easy-to-make clothes designed by an authority, MARIAN MARTIN. Styles for every age and all occasions. PRICE OF BOOK FIFTEEN CENTS. BOOK AND PATTERN TOGETHER TWENTY-FIVE CENTS.

Send your order to The Herald Pattern Department, 124 W. Main-st., Circleville, O.

Social Calendar

WEDNESDAY

Ladies' society of Ringgold Lutheran church to meet at 2 p. m. at the home of Mrs. William May and Mrs. Roy May.
You Go 1 Go sewing club meets at 2 p. m. at the home of Mrs. Ada Wilson, W. High-st.
Intermediate choir of Trinity Lutheran church will have a special rehearsal at 7 p. m.
Sewing circle of the D. U. V. will meet at 2 p. m. in the Post room at Memorial hall.

THURSDAY

Shining Light Bible class of the United Brethren church will meet for a short business session at 7 p. m. in the class room of the church. After the business the class will attend in a body the union services at the church at 7:30 p. m.

Major's temple Pythian Sisters have bi-monthly meeting at 7:30 p. m. in the temple. New officers will serve the lunch.
Papyrus club will have meeting at 2:30 p. m. at the home of Mrs. Charles Gilmore, S. Court-st.

Tarleton Presbyterian Ladies' Aid will meet at 7:30 p. m. at the home of Mrs. Earl Ketterman of Leistville.

FRIDAY

Women's Social club of the Presbyterian church will meet Friday at 7:30 p. m. in the church basement. Mrs. George McDowell is chairman of the program-committee and Mrs. J. O. Eagleton, chairman of the hostess committee.

Pickaway-co Garden club will meet at 7:30 p. m. at the home of Mrs. Harry Lewis, E. Main-st. Dr. Howard Jones will be the speaker of the evening.

Merri-mak's sewing circle of the Eastern Star will meet at the home of Mrs. Robert Denman, N. Pickaway-st. at 2 p. m.

MONDAY

Monday club to meet in Library trustees' room at Memorial hall at 7:30 p. m. The World government's division, under the chairmanship of Mrs. Charles Gerhardt, will be in charge of the program. Papers will be given by Miss Carrie Johnson and Mrs. Arthur Wilder.

TUESDAY

Circleville chapter Order of the Eastern Star will have a regular business meeting at 7:30 p. m. followed by initiation after which a social hour will be enjoyed. Each member is requested to bring sandwiches.

Logan Elm Grange will have installation of officers at 7:30 p. m. at the Pickaway-twp school.

MRS. GIVEN ENTERTAINS CLUB AT DINNER PARTY

A delightful informal dinner party was entertained by Mrs. Bishop Given, S. Court-st., Tuesday evening, when she assembled members of her Tuesday night card club and two guests, Mrs. Melvin Yates and Miss Virginia Given, at her home for dinner at 6 o'clock.

Calendulas centered the attractively appointed tables for the delicious dinner. The gaiety of the dinner hour was prolonged throughout the evening spent at the card tables.

At the conclusion of the interesting contract bridge game Miss Helen Hitler was awarded high score prize.

Enjoying the affair were Mrs. Yates, Miss Given, Mrs. Mark Armstrong, Mrs. Glen Gebb, Mrs. Joseph Burns, Mrs. Ralph Wallace, Miss Thelma O'Hara, Mrs. Sterling Lamb and Miss Helen Hitler.

Miss Hitler, W. Mound-st., invited the club to meet at her home in two weeks.

D. U. V. INSTALLS THREE OFFICERS

Following the regular meeting of the Daughters of the Union Veterans Tuesday evening at Memorial hall in charge of the new president, Mrs. Charles Stofor, three officers were installed.

The officers, installed by Mrs. Stofor, who were unable to be present at regular installation services, included Mrs. Adie V. Morris, secretary; Miss Nellie Palm, guide, and Mrs. Irene Jenkins, color bearer No. 4.

SALLY'S SALLIES

The best example of a square meal is a dog biscuit

GRAND Theatre
Tonight and Thursday
WARNER BAXTER with MIDGE EVANS in
"Grand Canary"
News Vitaphone Act Comedy
Family Night Prices.

Eggshell Pajamas

These sleeping pajamas are in a dainty eggshell color and are almost like a nightgown. The scalloped edges and the sashlike belt add to their daintiness. Josephine Hutchinson, formerly of the New York Theater Guild, but now starring in films, is the model.

OBITUARY

Stephen A. Douglas Burgoon, the son of John and Elizabeth Hurrel Burgoon, was born in Vinton-co, Ohio, Aug. 19, 1860; and departed this life in Circleville, Ohio, Dec. 29, 1934 at the age of 74 yrs., 4 months and 10 days. Death was due to complications from which he had suffered for a long period of time.

He was united in marriage with Elizabeth, Wyatt, in Vinton-co, Ohio, on Jan. 14, 1881; and to this union six daughters were born. His wife, father, mother, four brothers, four sisters and three daughters having preceded him in death, he leaves to mourn their loss: three daughters, Mrs. Charles Graham, Mrs. John Peters of Circleville, O.; Mrs. Lave Baker of Williamsport, O.; one sister, Mrs. Margaret Woodruff of Bloomsburg, O.; 18 grandchildren and 7 great-grandchildren. Also a host of other relatives and friends.

He was converted several years ago and became affiliated with The Bible Christian Church at that time; remaining under that faith until his untimely departure. He testified just short time before going, saying "It won't be long until I will cross the river of Jordan."

He will be remembered as a very good neighbor and will be greatly missed by those who knew and loved him.

We read in Ecclesiastes 12:13-14 "Let us hear the conclusion of the whole matter: Fear God and keep his commandments: for this is the whole duty of man."

For God shall bring every work into judgment, with every secret thing, whether it be good, or whether it be evil."

Father dear! We'll miss you now, that you have gone away. Just how much, it would be, Oh! so hard to say.

We'll miss your company and song And memory, naturally will linger on;

When evening comes, and the lights are low, We'll think of you, with your kindly brow,

Remember your songs, you sang for years, We too will try to sing them through our tears.

God loved us all, and Jesus gave his life, That we might have a right to the "tree of life"

And to His will and wishes we bend, And to His righteous judgment, we'll say,

"Amen."

"When you try to fool yuh fellow man," said Uncle Eben, "you simply give him a good excuse for foolin' you if he gets a chance."

furnas Ice Cream
The Cream of Quality.

COUNTY BILLS ARE REPORTED

The following bills were allowed by the County Commissioners, Monday, January 14.

J. D. Adams Company, repair parts for grader, $17.51.

Allis-Chalmers Mfg. Company, repair parts for grader, $13.85.

Barrere & Nickerson, hardware supplies, $22.23.

The Circleville Publishing Company, publishing notice "Drawing of Jurors," $1.50.

Circleville Iron & Metal Company, material for repairing trucks, $7.76.

E. E. Clifton Parts & Service, repairs and parts for trucks, etc., $48.81.

Circleville Lumber Company, lumber for bridges, etc., $44.37.

Turney Clifton, hauling and spreading gravel, $62.56.

A. E. Cooper gasoline for motor grader, $14.50.

J. H. Drum, mileage distributing food, $10.00.

Fitzpatrick's Printery, supplies for Probate Judge, $48.50.

Fitzpatrick's Printery, supplies for Clerk of Courts, $4.25.

Fitzpatrick's Printery, pencils for County Recorder, $2.95.

Herman Goldfrederick, assisting Food Distributor, $4.00.

Elmer Gheen, sharpening saws, $2.60.

Gordon Tire & Accessory Company, tire repairs and batteries, $30.39.

W. & L. E. Gurley, supplies for Deputy Sealer of Weights, $6.00.

Hamilton & Ryan, supplies for jail, $8.31.

Hamilton & Ryan, janitor supplies, $1.60.

A. Hulse Hays, stamps for Common Pleas Judge, $10.00.

Helvering & Scharenberg, gasoline for motor grader, $8.71.

The F. J. Heer Printing Company, supplies for County Treasurer, $23.80.

Hubman Supply Company, supplies for Court House janitor, $17.00.

Paul A. Johnson, supplies for Probate Judge, $53.45.

Johnson Insurance Agency, premium on bond of Deputy Sheriff, Robert Armstrong, $20.00.

Jack Justus, hauling and spreading gravel, $75.90.

D. Kiger, hauling and spreading gravel, $35.53.

The Ohio Law Reporter Company, subscription for Common Pleas Judge, $6.00.

Railway Express Agency, expressage for County Auditor, $3c.

Shell Petroleum Corporation, gasoline and oil for trucks, etc., $218.76.

Vernon Shellhammer, hauling and spreading gravel, $69.20.

Ed Shellhammer, hauling and spreading gravel, $63.80.

Sinclair Refining Company, gasoline for motor grader, $42.21.

Total—$995.78.

Also: "Rugby" Cartoon and Travel.

STATE OF OHIO
DEPARTMENT OF AUDITOR OF STATE
Bureau of Inspection and Supervision of Public Offices

ANNUAL FINANCIAL REPORT

WASHINGTON TOWNSHIP, PICKAWAY COUNTY, OHIO
For the Fiscal Year Ending December 31, 1934

Population—775 1930
Total Salaries and Wages Paid During the Year 1934 $ 3,534.92
Tax Valuation 1,296,180
Tax Levy 2.39

STOUTSVILLE, OHIO, JANUARY 15, 1935
I hereby certify the following report to be correct.
HOWARD HUSTON, Township Clerk.

GENERAL TOWNSHIP FUNDS RECEIPTS

General Property Tax $ 250.00
Gasoline Tax 1.10
Inheritance Tax 16.04
Cash Payment for Coal 4.00
TOTAL MISCELLANEOUS RECEIPTS 4.00

Depository Interest 30.63
TOTAL RECEIPTS 4,070.72

GENERAL EXECUTIVE SERVICES PAYMENTS

Compensation of Trustees 672.50
Compensation of Clerk 250.00
TOTAL GENERAL SERVICES 922.50

BOUNTIES ON ANIMALS 922.50
Sparrows 6.75
TOTAL BOUNTIES 6.75

Medical Services 288.00
Burial Expenses 52.00
Other Poor Relief 115.54
TOTAL POOR RELIEF 455.54

HIGHWAYS—Road Maintenance and Repair—Labor and Materials 2,857.75
Road Machine and Tools 16.65
TOTAL HIGHWAYS 2,874.40

CEMETERIES—Compensation of Officers and Employees 11.20
TOTAL CEMETRIES 11.20

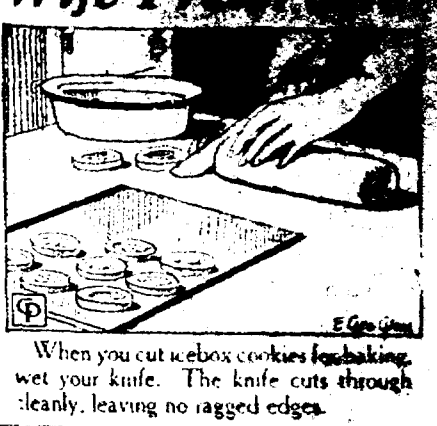

MISCELLANEOUS—General Supplies 31.91
TOTAL MISCELLANEOUS 31.91

TOTAL PAYMENTS 4,402.30

WILL YOUR CHILD GROW UP TO BE STRONG and STURDY ?

McKesson's COD LIVER OIL

Wife Protection

When you cut a box corner for baking, wet your knife. The knife cuts through cleanly, leaving no ragged edges.

PUBLIC SALES

Mr. Farmer, let us print your sale bills and advertise your sale in The Herald. We will then list the sale in this column daily without charge to you.

Thursday, January 17—J. S. Mossbarger.
Saturday, January 19—Harry Short.
Tuesday, January 22—Charles Gentzel.
Friday, January 25—Administrator of estate of Barton Walters.

Unique Chateau
The Chateau of Cheneceux in France is unique in its position, having been built right over the River Cher.

CLIFTONA

MODERN THEATRE
Tonite & Thursday

CRUCIFIED for a HEADLINE!

Screening head lines wouldn't leave his past die... So they drove him to murder! ...Hunters give made him a wreckage at 5c a copy....!

WRAITH WHITE LIES

WRAITH WHITE LIES
WRAITH WHITE LIES
WRAITH WHITE LIES

Also: "Rugby" Cartoon and Travel.

TIGERS BEAT BEXLEY, 26 - 19

GRANT LEADS QUINT TO WIN

Knocks East Columbus Crew Out of First Place Tie; Lineup Juggle Helps.

Coach Pete Herberholz' Tigers upset the apocryphal of the Bexley Lions, Tuesday evening, and today Grandview rested in first place in the Central Buckeye league all by its lonesome.

The Tigers put on a second half spurt that bewildered the invading gladiators of Carlton Smith. The half ended 11-10 with Bexley on the long end but its not long ere Freddie Grant and his teammates heated the C. A. C. court to a queen's, or king's, taste, and it was too bad for Bexley.

Last night's Central Buckeye league scores were:

Circleville, 26; Bexley, 19. Grandview, 32; Delaware, 27. Westerville, 29; Marysville, 19.

TAKE EARLY LEAD

After the first few moments of the game it was evident that a struggle would ensue. Jenkins, Speakman, Kirwin and Grant all connected from the floor to give the Red and Black a lead of 8-5 at the end of the period. Bexley scored once from the floor and three times from the free throw line in this session. The second period found the play hot and heavy with Bexley holding the edge. The period ended 11-10 in favor of the Lions.

But the intermission proved of benefit to the Red and Black and immediately a barrage of basketball flying through the air found their way into the Circleville net. Grant scored six points in this quarter while Jenkins' pretty follow low shot and Speakman's long one from the side just about sewed up the contest. Two free throws by Startzman were all Bexley could get in this period, and the final quarter started with Circleville leading 20-13.

The fourth period was just as hard fought as any of the others but the Tigers protected their lead each team scoring six points. Grant scored again in this session with Kirwin's pretty execution of a follow shot proving a highlight.

MANY WITH FOULS

The game ended with three Circleville men, Kirwin, Melson and Speakman, all sporting three personal fouls. Grant and Jenkins each had two.

The contest was rough from the go and was not efficiently officiated. Boyd, of Lancaster, who last year was one of the best to appear on the local court, appeared all evening as though he had a chip on his shoulder. We'll wager he missed a lot more fouls committed by Bexley men than he called.

The victory, surprising as it was, was the result of a lineup juggle. Grant went to forward with Melson at center and they remained that way throughout. Melson failed to score any points but his defensiveness in which he held Myers, starting center scoreless, and Neutzling, the big fellow who succeeded him, to three points. Grant's offensive work was the best he has ever shown in high school while

About This And That

BY THE SECOND GUESSER

BOOK HOUSE OF DAVID

A real court attraction will be brought to Circleville Monday, February 4, when the House of David basketball team provides opposition for the Circleville Athletic club. Manager Judy Gordon announced today that he has booked the bewhiskered team, one of the best attractions in the nation today.

McKINNON ANGERED

Appointment of Fritz Mackey, Ohio Wesleyan line coach, as Dick Larkins' successor at Ohio State handling the frosh grid squad, was put on the pan Tuesday evening by Bill McKinnon, WBNS sports commentator. McKinnon said he believed the appointment was made without the sanction of Coach Francis Schmidt who would have named his freshman coach from Texas Christian University.

Though Mackey may be what Ohio State, rather Director L. W. St. John wants, we doubt very much if he can be compared with Dick Larkins.

STOOGIES IN FORM

The Stogie club should receive a lot of credit for the showing of the high school varsity team Tuesday evening. The Stooges couldn't go on the court and help put out a better brand of noise-making than we've heard at a high school game for a long while.

The Stogie cheerleaders, Harold Rummel and George Rader, are the Stoogiest Stooges of them all. Two weeks ago Westerville followers lauded the Stooges and last night it was Bexley's turn to praise the enthusiasm created by the club.

Some cage scores:

High School Academy, 24; Canal Winchester, 22. Central, 47; Aquinas, 32. Middletown, 23; Dayton Steele, 15.

College

Capital, 32; Ohio Northern, 26. Columbia, 44; Yale, 31. Carnegie Tech, 34; Geneva, 29. Akron, 29; Kent, 24. Wittenberg, 36; Heidelberg, 17. Muskingum, 36; Marietta, 27.

George Speakman's long shots came at critical points in the game.

The lineup: CIRCLEVILLE—26

Kirwin f (C) 2 0 0 3 4
Grant f 4 2 6 2 10
Melson c 0 0 0 0 0
Speakman g 2 1 0 3 5
Jenkins g 3 1 0 2 7
Burgett g 11 4 6 13 26

BEXLEY—19

Bailey f 2 2 1 1 5
Emig f 0 0 1 0 1
Hutchins f 1 0 1 1 2
Myers c-f 0 0 0 2 0
Neutzling c 1 1 2 2 3
Startzman g (C) 1 4 2 1 6
Burgett g 0 2 1 0 2
Total 5 9 7 8 19

RESERVES BEATEN

The high school reserves wilted in the second half Tuesday evening and lost 21-14 to the Bexley reserves.

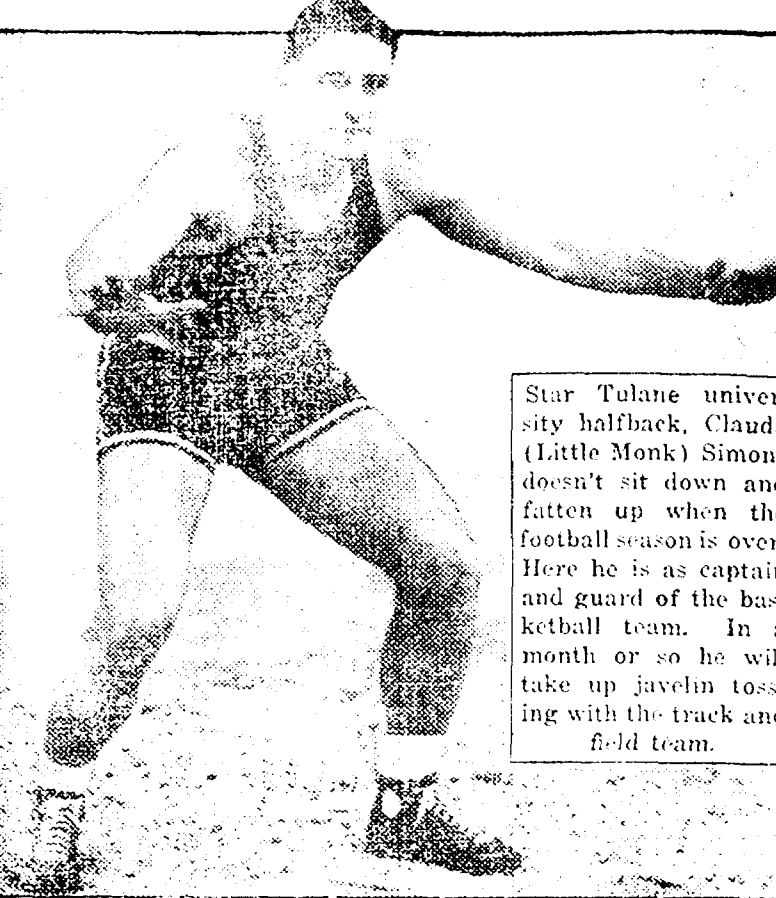

The lineups:

BEXLEY—21
Ehrenbach f 4 0 8
Hogan f 3 1 7
Brooke c 0 0 0
Holzbacher c 0 0 0
Hamilton g 1 1 3
Emig g 1 1 3
Cahill g 0 0 0
Total 9 3 21

CIRCLEVILLE—14

Plum f 0 0 0
Jackson f 0 0 0
Bell f 1 0 2
Griffith c 2 1 5
Andrews g 2 0 4
Filey g 1 1 3
Total 6 2 21

"LITTLE MONK" KNOWS NO REST

Claude (Little Monk) Simons

MACKAY GETS POST AS BUCKEYE COACH

COLUMBUS, Jan. 16—Regarded as one of the up-and-coming football mentors, Frederick Charles (Fritz) Mackey, named yesterday to succeed Dick Larkins as freshman football coach at Ohio State University, is looked upon by observers here today as a strong addition to the Buck's gridiron staff.

Although only 39 years old, Mackey already has a reputation built up as a result of his coaching experience at Ohio Wesleyan and at Butler University in Indianapolis. His experience, which has given him a firm belief that offensive football is the best, is expected to jibe completely with the technique of Head Coach Francis A. Schmidt.

STUDENT OF GAME

Observers here, who have watched Mackey's activity at Ohio Wesleyan, looked upon him as a serious student of the game who gets a big kick out of studying gridiron tactics and plotting styles of attacks against the known quantities of his opponents.

Part of Mackey's reputation is built upon his ability as a scout, which is expected to be a valuable asset to the Buck's gridiron campaign.

Even before he took up coaching as a career, Mackey had a reputation established on the Ohio State campus here. He was a star tackle for State through three years of his student life here and he also was a member of the Buck's baseball team for three years, serving as captain in his senior season.

In coming to Ohio State, Mackey will replace Larkins who has accepted the post of head football coach at the University of Rochester—a job that will carry about twice the salary he received here.

BEGIN NEXT FALL

Mackey will assume his new post next fall when Larkins goes to Rochester to take over his new job.

The new frosh coach is married and is the father of a ten-month-old baby. He is a native of Galion.

CLEVELAND AFTER NOTRE DAME FRAY

CLEVELAND, Jan. 16—A merry battle between Columbus and Cleveland for the Ohio State-Notre Dame football game next fall was forecast here today following the announcement that Cleveland stadium had lost the 1935 Pittsburgh-Notre Dame game.

Walter Davis, stadium commissioner, returned from South Bend last night and announced that the underwriters of the Irish stadium have insisted on holding the Pittsburgh game in the Notre Dame bowl next fall.

Davis also said he is working on plans to bring the Ohio State-Notre Dame game here next Nov. 3 and that he is planning on visiting L. W. St. John, athletic director at Ohio State, in the near future to try to complete the arrangements.

"One-Punch" Lee

A victory for Rodak, who has 22 professional victories to his credit, would mean an inevitable championship match with Ross, perhaps next summer, it was conceded.

The other ten round feature Jan. 31 will pit Babe Risko, Syracuse middleweight who stopped Teddy Farnsworth, the champion, against a foe yet to be chosen.

HORSE SALE

Will sell at Public Auction at the Floyd Dunlap cattle barn, W. Main-st., near of old Ohio property, in Circleville, Ohio, on

Saturday, Jan. 19, '35

Commencing at 1 P. M. sharp, the following head of horses:

25 Head of Mares 25
Good Farm Mares Weighing from 1300 to 1700 Pounds
Mostly all young. Colors are grays, sorrels, roans, bays, browns and blacks.

Several Mated Teams
Two colts coming two years old. If you are interested in buying a horse, or any horses, you should not miss this sale.
All sold on a guarantee to be as represented.
TERMS CASH.
Harry Short

Circleville's Most Popular Buying and Selling Medium

The CIRCLEVILLE HERALD and THE UNION-HERALD CLASSIFIED ADVERTISING INFORMATION

All ads are restricted to their proper classification and to the regular Circleville Herald style of type. The publishers reserve the right to edit or reject any classified advertising copy.

Advertising orders for irregular insertions takes the one-time rate and is taken for less than a basis on three times. Count five average words to the line on paid advertisements.

Charged ads will be received by telephone and if sold at Circleville Herald office within six days from the first day of insertion cash rate will be allowed.

Ads ordered for three or seven times and stopped before expiration will be charged for only the number of times the ad appeared and adjustment made at the rate earned. All ads ordered seven times will be published in the Union-Herald (Weekly) and will be counted as one insertion, as will three-time ads ordered printed in Tuesday's or Wednesday's issue of the Daily.

Ads received up to 10:30 A. M. will be inserted the same day. A charge of 50 cents is made for publishing Card of Thanks and special rates for yearly advertising upon request.

Correct attention given to mail orders. Rates per line for consecutive insertions: One time, 10¢ per line. Be per line. Three times for the price of two. Seven times for the price of three. Publishing Card of Thanks Classified furnished on request.

The publishers will be responsible only for one incorrect insertion of our advertisement.

Announcements

7—Personals

NOTICE
To Descendants of JOSHUA BROWNELL and his Daughter ELIZABETH BROWNELL wife of CALER EVANS, JR.

Joshua Brownell came from New York State to Pickaway County, about 1820 and had a daughter, Elizabeth Brownell, who married Caleb Evans, Jr., October 16, 1822, the son of Caleb Evans, Sr., the first pioneer in Pickaway Township who built the first log cabin in 1796.

The undersigned, E. E. Brownell, would like information as follows:

1. When and where did Joshua Brownell die, the name of his wife and his children.
2. When and where did Elizabeth Brownell, wife of Caleb Evans, Jr., both die and were buried.
3. Did Caleb Evans, Jr., and wife have any children, if so, give their names and their descendants.
4. To all parties interested, please address E. E. Brownell, 1418 Walnut Street, Philadelphia, Penna. This very important to all descendants. THANK YOU for your assistance.

DAD, I've resolved not to eat between meals. A stick of Wrigley's Juicy Fruit is just a good and does not spoil my dinner. Bud.

STOMACH ULCER, GAS PAINS, AND INDIGESTION victims, why suffer? For quick relief get a free sample of Uldga Tablets, a doctor's prescription, at Hamilton & Ryan.

10—Lost, Strayed, Found

LOST—2 Second National Bank books. Mrs. Mary F. Schleyer. Reward.

Business Service

18—Business Services Offered

AUCTIONEERING Reasonable rates. Boyd Horn, 225 Walnut-st. Phone 1073.

CIRCLEVILLE Transfer Co. Local and long distance moving. Storage. All loads insured. Phone 1227, 117 N. Scioto-st.

JOB PRINTING—Done at Fair Prices. Let us do your next printing job. Quality and Service Always. THE HERALD Job Shop. Phone 782.

Employment

33—Help Wanted—Male

MAN WANTED in this locality as Direct Representative of well known oil company to sell small town and farm trade. Experience not necessary. No investment required. Chance for immediate steady income. Write P. T. Webster, General Manager, 6610 Standard Bank Building, Cleveland, Ohio.

You Can't Go Wrong on Using Classified Ads

BUS SCHEDULE

VALLEY PUBLIC SERVICE CO.

NORTH BOUND
Leave Circleville, A. M.—6:38 8:08 10:08. P. M.—12:08 1:08 2:08 3:08 5:08 6:08 7:08 9:08 11:08

SOUTH BOUND
Leave Circleville, A. M.—6:57 8:37 10:37. P. M.—12:37 1:37 2:37 3:37 5:37 6:37 7:37 9:37 11:37
North Bound Buses leaving Circleville at 6:38 a. m., 6:08 p. m. go through Ashville.
South Bound Buses leaving Circleville at 6:57 a. m., 12:37 6:37, 11:37 p. m. go through Kingston.

Bus Terminal . . . Cook's Confectionery

128 N. Court St.

Livestock

49—Poultry and Supplies

BABY CHICKS—All from selected flocks well culled and blood-tested. First hatch-off Jan. 23. Cromans Poultry Farm and Hatchery, Circleville, O. Phone 1834.

BABY CHICKS—From improved and blood-tested flocks. Special discount on orders placed now for delivery anytime later. First hatch on Jan. 28th. SOUTHERN OHIO HATCHERY, Circleville, O. Phone 55.

Merchandise

51—Articles for Sale

DELAVAL Cream Separator, The Farmers Choice, only $92.50. Barfere & Nickerson.

FOR SALE—1 used gas range in first class condition, priced reasonable. Mrs. John Strawser, cor. Walnut & Clinton-sts.

57—Good Things to Eat

MIXED NUTS, still warm when sold. Take home a pkg. from Ebert's Soda Grill.

Specials at the Stores

USED AUTO RADIOS, 6 tube Majestic $18; Philco $25. Pettit Tire & Battery Shop.

Real Estate For Rent

69—Rooms for Housekeeping

FOR RENT—Rooms for light housekeeping. Call 1265.

FURNISHED ROOM FOR RENT—Steam heated and soft water bath. Phone 359.

76—Farms and Farmlands

FOR RENT—Farm 70 acres grain rent, good location. Call 1234, Circleville Exchange.

FOR RENT on half shares, fine 300 Acre Farm located in Licking County. Excellent soil. Write C. W. Irwin, 29 East Locust Street, Newark, Ohio. Phone 2957.

Real Estate For Sale

84—Houses for Sale

FOR SALE—A Country Home of 34 acres and the Justus Hotel and West Building on West Main Street at bargain prices. Circle Realty Company, Rooms 3 & 4 Masonic Temple.

FOR SALE—A dandy 172 acre Country Home on a good piece. A modern frame, double with garage, good location. Store-room building, including stock and fixtures, price $3000.00. A two story modern frame dwelling, including garage and shop, good location and investment. A dandy modern home, good location; Two story frame dwelling, $1600.00 and several other properties. Several business propositions and buildings. For further information, see or call Circle Realty Company, Rooms 3 and 4 Masonic Temple, Phone 234 or 162.

Classified Display

Automotive

GOOD

Used Cars

PRICED RIGHT

1932 Chev. Coach.....$365
1930 Chev. Coach.....$210
1929 Chev. Coach.....$165
1930 Chev. Coupe.....$215
1931 Studebaker Sedan $195
1928 Ford Sport Coupe $ 85
1930 Ford Sedan.....$225

The Harden

Stevenson Co.

132 E. Franklin St.

BUY SOMETHING YOU NEED . . . NOW

Automotive

FEEDS

FOR ANY PURPOSE

Poultry, Dairy, Stock and Horse Feeds. Bran, Middlings, Meat Scraps, Cottonseed meal and Tankage. We can sell them to you at a price that will save you money—see us first!

WE ALSO GRIND AND MIX YOUR OWN GRAINS.

PICKAWAY GRAIN CO.

Western Ave. Phone 91

BUY SOMETHING YOU NEED . . . NOW

Automotive

ATTENTION!

If you are going to buy a New Car, do it NOW and save the Sales Tax.

Place Your Order Now!
BUICK—DE SOTO—PLYMOUTH

E. E. CLIFTON & DEWEY SPEAKMAN
Circleville, O. 119-121 S. Court St. Phone No. 50.

Classified Display

Automotive

GUARANTEED USED CARS

1934 V8 Tudor

1933 V8 Coupe

1932 V8 Sedan

1932 V8 Tudor

1933 Plymouth Coupe

1932 DeSoto Sedan

1931 Chevrolet Coach

1929 Pontiac Sedan

1929 Dodge Coupe

1934 V8 131 In. Truck

1931 Ford Pickup.

RELIABLE MOTOR CO.

W. Main St.

Authorized Ford Dealers.

Here It Is!

New 13 Plate Batteries

$2.89

And Your Old Battery.

Francisco Hot Water Heater

$6.45

Auto Glass for Any Car

$1.50 Up

2 Gal. Motor Oil

88¢

ANYTHING FOR YOUR AUTO.

Gordon Tire & Accessory Co.

432 E. Mound St. Phone 297.

Merchandise

We've Just Received a Carload of Woven Wire

FENCE AND BARB

All full gauge wire—at reasonable prices.

FENCE GATES

Buy before the sales tax goes into effect.

PICKAWAY GRAIN CO.

Western Ave. Phone 91

DO YOU NEED STOVE REPAIRS?

We can take care of all your requirements on stove repairs for any make stove. We also carry stove pipe and fittings. Trade in your old stove on a new Moors Air Tight heater or range.

J. R. WILSON

Pythian Castle Alley

FEEDS

FOR ANY PURPOSE

Poultry, Dairy, Stock and Horse Feeds. Bran, Middlings, Meat Scraps, Cottonseed meal and Tankage. We can sell them to you at a price that will save you money—see us first!

WE ALSO GRIND AND MIX YOUR OWN GRAINS.

PICKAWAY GRAIN CO.

Western Ave. Phone 91

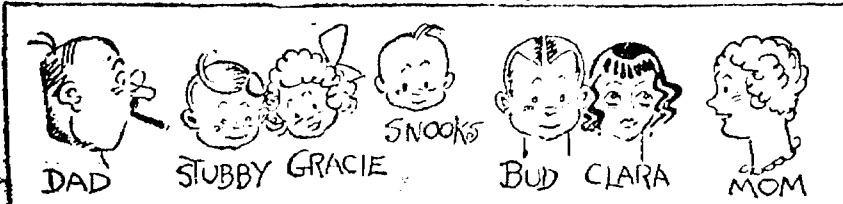

Just Among Us Girls

It's only what some women can coax out of their husbands without even half crying.

THE TUTTS

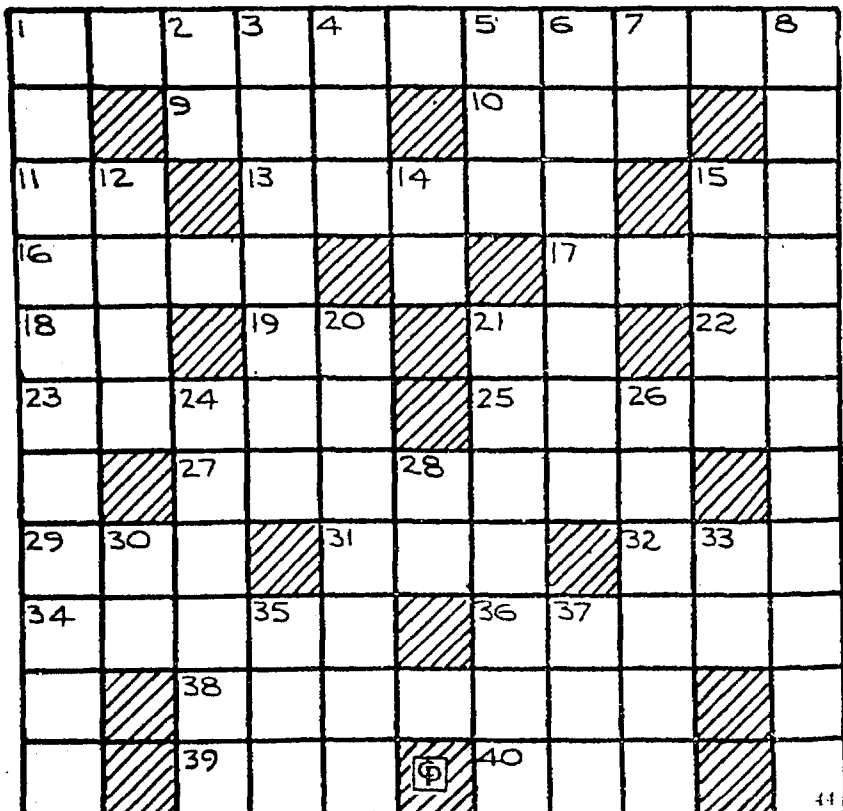

By Crawford Young

DAD HATES A NICE LONG TETE-A-TETE AT THE DOOR.

CROSSWORD PUZZLE

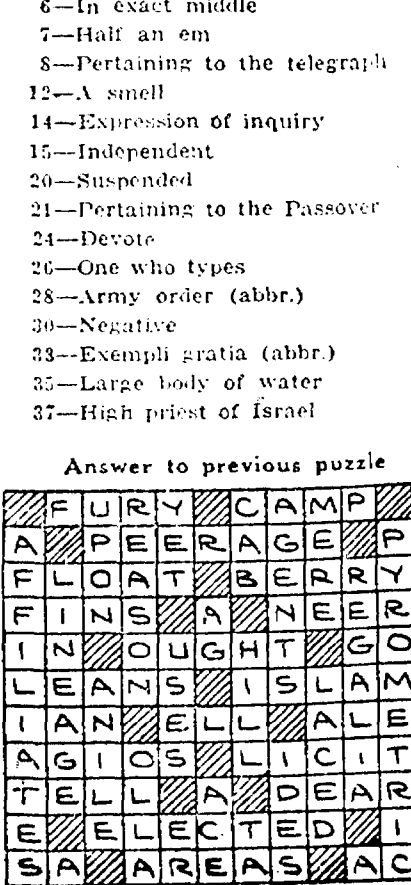

ACROSS

- 1—Betterment
- 9—Compensation
- 10—An iniquity
- 11—To render
- 13—Cupidity
- 15—Florin (abbr.)
- 16—Inactive
- 17—Female horse
- 18—Company (abbr.)
- 19—New Providence (abbr.)
- 21—An Italian river
- 22—Egypt (abbr.)
- 23—Vestige
- 25—A kind of flower
- 27—Successive race of kings
- 29—Conclusion
- 31—Doctor (nickname)
- 32—Vim
- 34—A clamor
- 36—Exclamation to attract attention
- 38—Weights of one hundred pounds
- 39—To make an edging
- 40—Ignited

DOWN

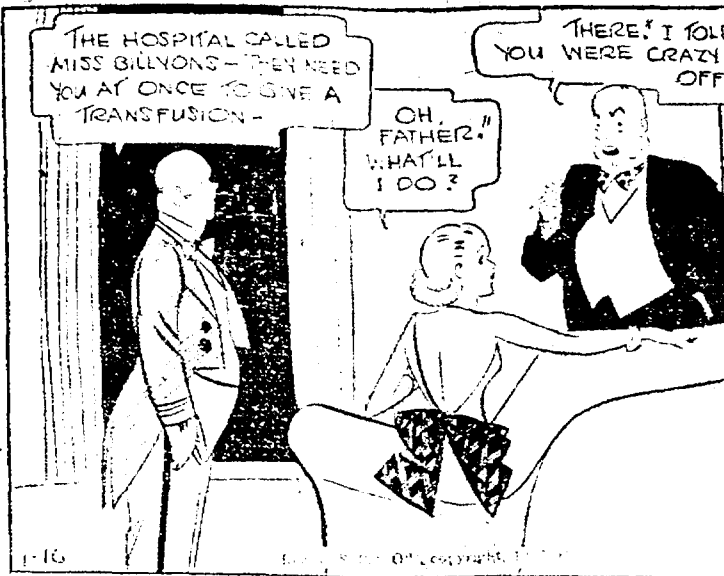

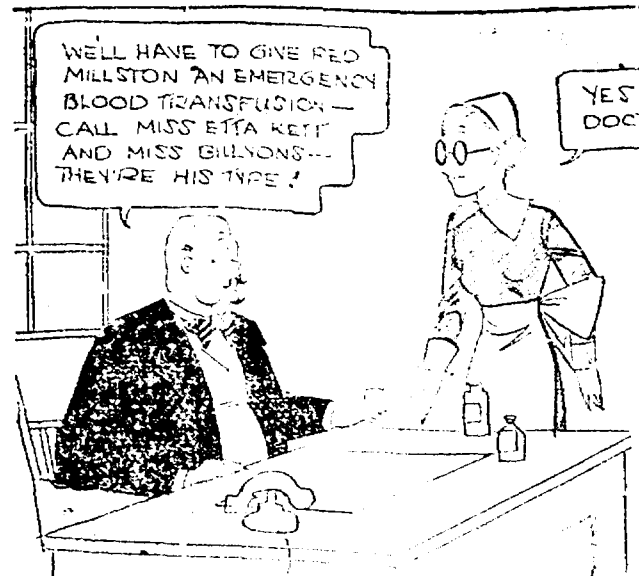

- 1—Formal accusations
- 2—Preferred (abbr.)
- 3—Deputed government
- 4—Over (poetic)

Answers to previous puzzle

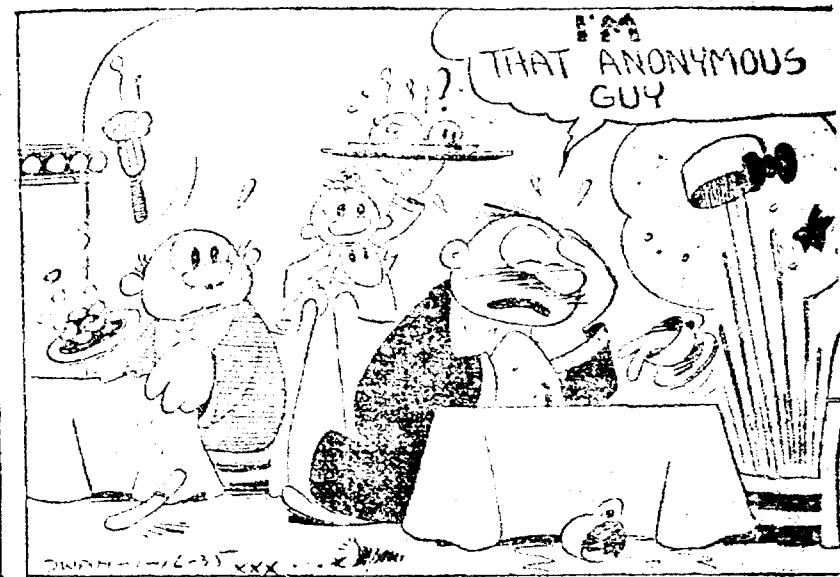

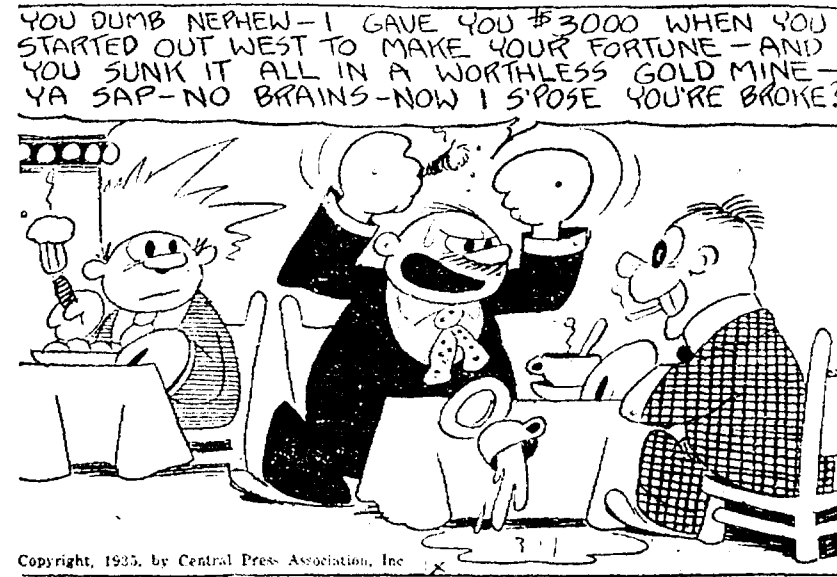

Etta Kett

By Paul Robinson

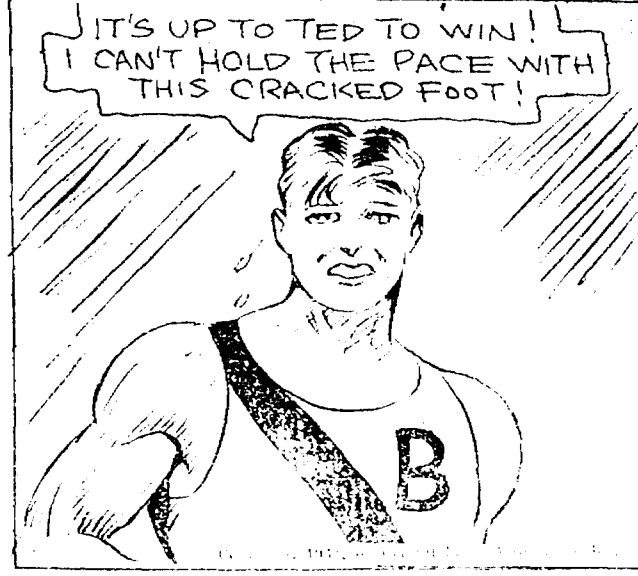

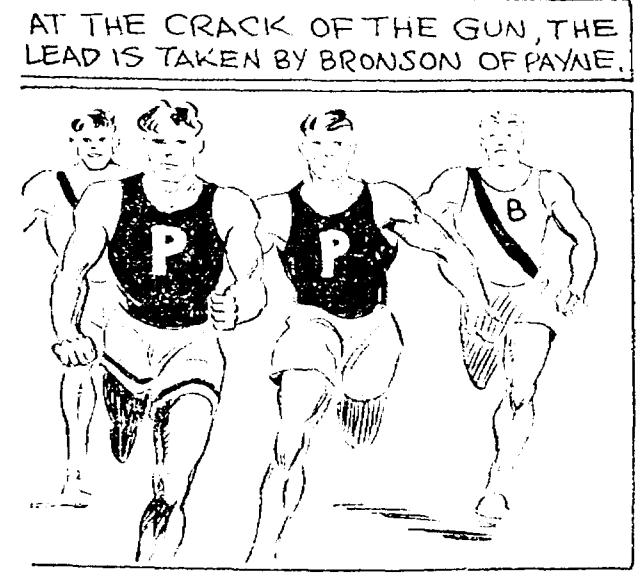

High Pressure Pete

By George Swan

Chip Collins' Adventures

By William Ritt and Jack Wilhelm

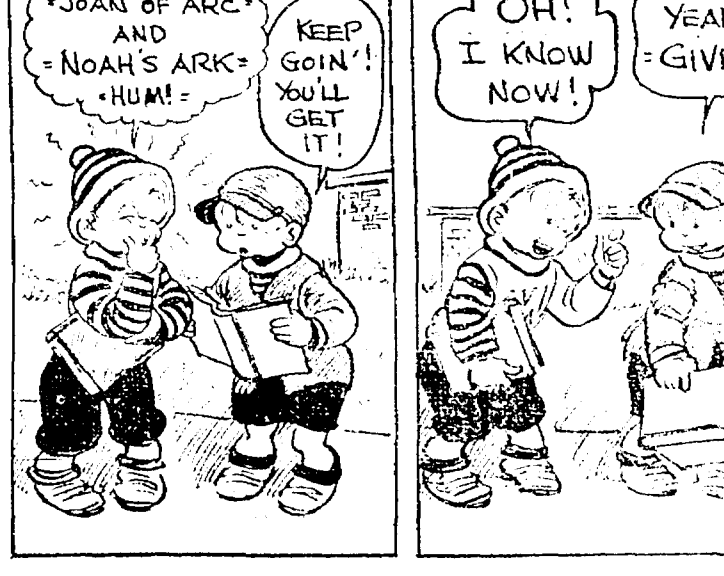

Big Sister

By Les Forgrave

Muggs McGinnis

By Wally Bishop

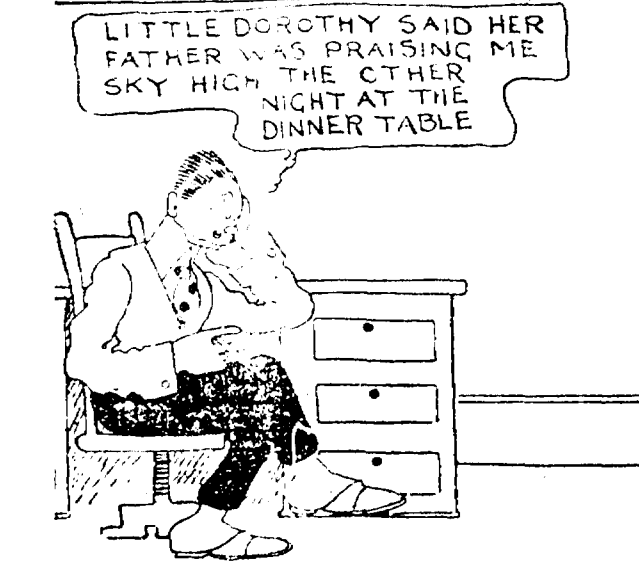

Brick Bradford With Brocco the Buccaneer

By William Ritt and Clarence Gray

Dorothy Darnit

By Charles McManus

GERMAN EQUALITY DEMANDED BY HITLER IN INTERVIEW

VOTE IN SAAR THRILLS NAZI

No Substitute For Equality Will Suffice, He Tells American Reporter.

By PIERRE J. HUSS
(Copyright, 1935, by International News Service.)

OBERSALZBERG, Germany, Jan. 16.—In his snow-blanketed Bavarian mountain home, Adolf Hitler, chancellor and fuhrer of Germany, today gave the first interview he has granted to an American newspaperman since his assumption of complete power in the Reich and demanded full equality for Germany.

Sitting on a glass-enclosed porch within glimpsing distance of the Austria where he was born, Hitler reiterated to me in his expressive and compelling manner that actual equality only is acceptable to Germany, and that no substitute will suffice.

Below us spread a Germany madly celebrating its victory in the Saar.

The fuhrer does not ask for charity. He offers France, as a reward for her consent to Germany's equality, a complete renunciation of all the fatherland's other territorial claims.

But the Versailles treaty as a whole will once more be exorcised by him as an instrument incapable of giving peace to the world.

EXTENDS GOOD WILL

To the Saar's former dissidents, willing to renounce their former opposition creeds, he offers full assurances and extends good will.

He asks the American people to look upon the Saar plebiscite as a graphic reflection of present-day Germany.

Dressed in a gray golfing outfit with a simple black tie, Hitler appeared in the best of health and a jovial mood.

The victory had obviously had a tonic effect upon him. General Hermann Wilhelm Goering, premier of Prussia and still Hitler's busiest aide, was present at the interview, genial and fit in his mountain clothing. Dr. Otto Dietrich, press chief of the Nazi party, also was there, as well as Dr. Karl Boerner, head of the press department of cultural affairs. Alfred Rosenberg's foreign political office.

He laughed heartily with Goering over some incidents I related to him concerning the Saar, where I spent four days including last Sunday, when the fateful vote was cast. Both he and Goering were

IF YOUR BREATH HAS A SMELL YOU CAN'T FEEL WELL

When we eat too much, our food decays in our bowels. Our friends smell this decay coming out of our mouth and call it bad breath. We feel the poison of this decay all over our body. It makes us gloomy, grouchy and no good for anything. What makes the food decay in the bowels? Well, when we eat too much, our bile juice can't digest it. What is the bile juice? It is the most vital digestive juice in our body. Unless a pint of it is flowing from our liver into our bowels every day, our movements get hard and constipated and 80% of our food decays in our 28 feet of bowels. This decay sends poison all over our body every six minutes.

When our friends smell our bad breath (but we don't) and we feel like a whipped tomato, don't use a mouthwash or take a laxative. Get at the cause. Take Carter's Little Liver Pills which gently start the flow of your bile juice. But if "something better" is offered you, don't buy it, for it may be a calomel (mercury) pill, which loosens teeth, gripes and scalds the rectum in many people. Ask for Carter's Little Liver Pills by name and get what you want for 25¢. ©1934, C.M.Co.

THESE PICTURES SHOW

Modern Three-Minute Way to Ease Sore Throat

1. Crush and stir 3 BAYER Aspirin Tablets in a third glass of water.

2. Gargle Thoroughly—throw your head way back, allowing a little to trickle down your throat. Do this twice. Do not rise mouth.

3. If you have a cold, take 2 BAYER Aspirin Tablets. Drink full glass of water. Do this every 4 hours, following directions in package.

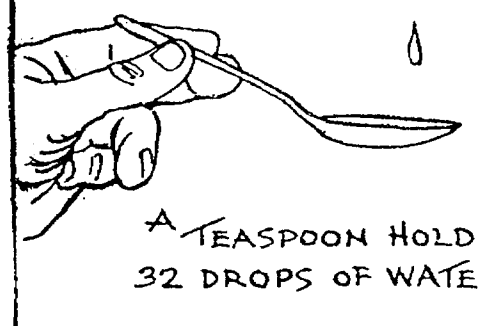

PRICES on Genuine Bayer Aspirin Reduced on All Sizes

SCOTT'S SCRAPBOOK

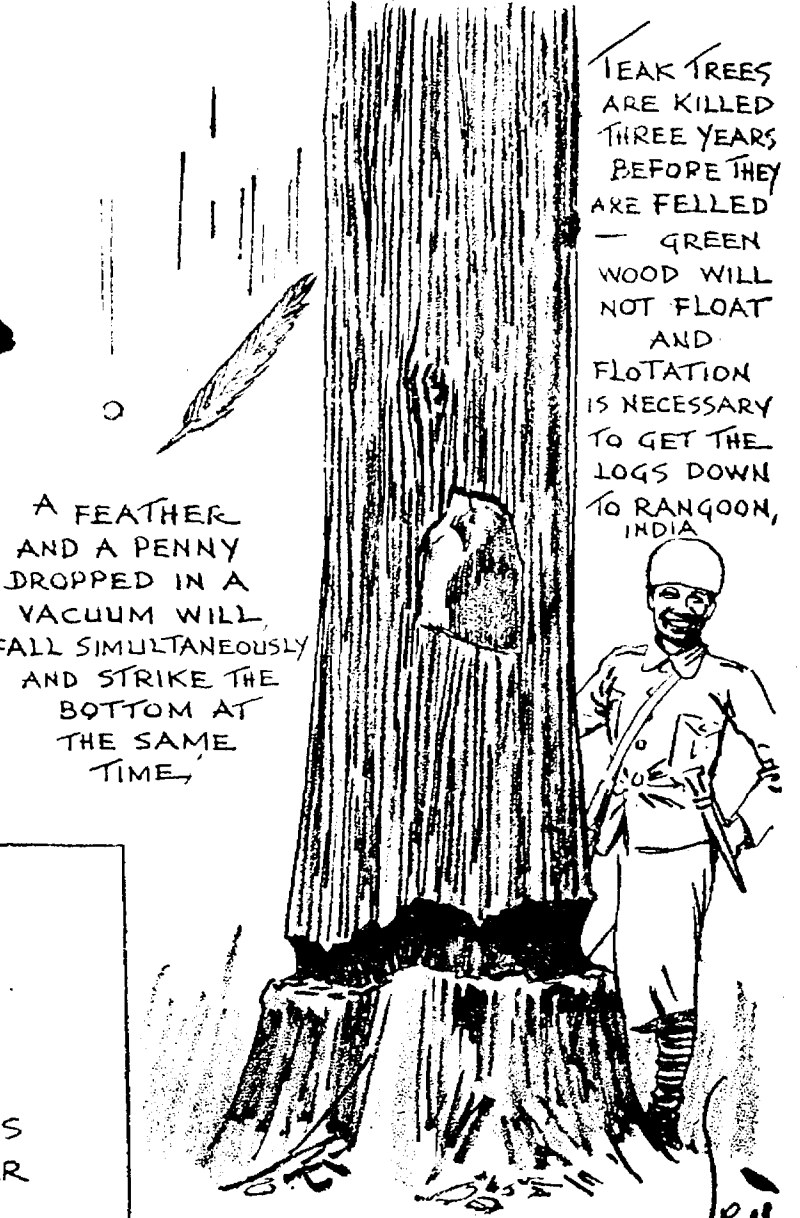

By R. J. Scott

THE OLD MAN OF BITTERROOT FOREST—A NATURAL FORMATION IN MONTANA

A TEASPOON HOLDS 32 DROPS OF WATER

A FEATHER AND A PENNY DROPPED IN A VACUUM WILL FALL SIMULTANEOUSLY AND STRIKE THE BOTTOM AT THE SAME TIME

Copyright, 1935, by Central Press Association, Inc.

eager for impressions brought from there by a neutral observer. "But what do you think of the plebiscite results, Herr Reichschancellor?" I asked finally.

"The plebiscite result," he said, "fills me as well as every single one of my collaborators with everlasting pride for the German people."

"It is at the same time a subsequent condemnation of the Versailles treaty that is of veritable historical importance. For in this treaty, this territory was torn away from Germany with the assertion that in it lived 150,000 Frenchmen."

RULED BY LEAGUE
"After 15 years of mastery by the League of Nations, that is to say indeed by France, it has been established that not 150,000, but hardly 2,000 Frenchmen live in this territory."

"In any one thousand inhabitants, one does not find even four Frenchmen. Can one be astonished that a treaty which was built upon such untrue arguments cannot bring to mankind happiness and blessings?"

FAVOR CORCORAN FOR FRANKLIN JOB

COLUMBUS, Jan. 16.—It is freely reported that Lawrence Corcoran, attorney, has been selected as the logical successor to Walter F. Heer, as chairman of the Franklin County Democratic executive committee. It is said that Corcoran is agreeable to both Governor Davey and Congressman Lamneck.

Presbyterians Have Preparatory Service

Rev. E. S. Toensmeier, of the First Presbyterian church, will use as his topic at preparatory services this evening, "Waking From Sleep."

The meeting starts at 7:30 and is in preparation for communion next Sunday.

BANK ROBBERY

(Continued From Page One)

gram. Sheriff Vincent has requested a copy of that message.

Rose formerly lived at Hamilton and has three brothers there. Shortly before the Adelphi bank robbery he lived at Newark where he was engaged in the coal trucking business. Newark authorities informed Sheriff Vincent that Rose had given bad checks there but had always made them good.

The Hamilton county police chief received a letter from Rose Monday morning in which he denied he took part in robberies at that city. He offered to arrange a meeting with the officer to make an explanation.

Rose's automobile was used by two men who robbed 10 stores and gasoline stations in Hamilton but it was by others, the writer said.

Rose has been sought by Hamilton county authorities since Jan. 4, when Jos Vollmer, Newark, died in General hospital, Cincinnati, of the wound suffered when he was shot by a Hamilton officer in an attempted gasoline station hold-up. Fay Knott Vollmer's girl companion had the police on the trail of Rose. He was traced to Florida and back to Chattanooga, from where he mailed the letter to the Hamilton police chief. Authorities at Hamilton believed he would stop at Mt. Vernon and asked officers of that town to apprehend him.

WAHL APPOINTED BY HIGHWAY HEAD

COLUMBUS, Jan. 16.—Carl G. Wahl, defiance-co surveyor, has been appointed assistant state highway director by John Jaster, Jr., highway director. Jaster's successor, F. F. Bullock, Columbus, has been named Jaster's secretary. It was necessary for Wahl to resign as surveyor.

GRAIN MARKETS

Furnished by The John W. Eshelman & Sons.

WHEAT
May—High, 96 3-4; Low, 95 3-8; Close, 96 3-4, 1-2.
July—High, 88 3-8; Low, 86 7-8; Close, 88 3-8, 1-4.
Sept.—High, 86 5-8; Low, 85; Close, 86 1-2.

CORN
May—High 86 3-8; Low 84 7-8; Close 86 1-8.
July—High 81 5-8; Low 80; Close 81 1-8, 1-4.
Sept.—High 77 3-4; Low 76 1-2; Close 77 3-8, 1-2.

OATS
May—High 42; Low 41; Close 41 3-4.
July—High 44 7-8; Low 44; Close 44 3-4.
Sept.—High 42; Low 41; Close 41 3-4.

Cash Prices to Farmers Paid in Circleville
Wheat—90c.
New Yellow CSorn—82c.
New White Corn—89c.
Soy beans—$1.20.

(Furnished by the Pickaway County Farm Bureau.)

CLOSING LIVESTOCK
CHICAGO—Hog receipts 20,000, 990 direct, 5,000 holdover, 10c lower; mediums 200, 7.50-7.75.
PITTSBURGH—Hog receipts 800, 25c lower; mediums 180 8.15-8.25; sows 6.75-7; lambs 5.00-5.90.
CINCINNATI—Hog receipts 3,000.

BANDITS MURDER
STRETCHER, Ill. Jan. 16.—Chas. Bundy, 42, president of the Lenox, Ill., state bank near here, was shot and killed today by four robbers. After the shooting, the bandits fled empty-handed.

CUT LIQUOR COST!
COLUMBUS, Jan. 16.—Governor Martin L. Davey is expected to recommend to the legislature that prices on liquor sold in the state stores be reduced.

DAVEY DRAFTS

(Continued From Page One)

"I am told that 60 to 75 per cent of the liquor now sold by licensed retailers is the product of bootleggers," he declared. "Our present discount of 15 per cent to legitimate dealers is insufficient."

"No one can operate on that basis. We either force the legitimate dealers to put his prices as high that dealers in bootleg liquor have a great advantage, or we force them to cheat."

DELAY NAMING SPAGHT
Davey said he would not send the appointment of Oakley Spaght of Shaw, to the senate for confirmation as liquor director until after further investigations that Spaght, being a member of the legislature that created the office, would not be eligible under the constitution to fill it prior to Jan. 1, 1936, or one year after his term expired.

If he becomes convinced of Spaght's ineligibility, the governor said he hoped to find someone equally well fitted for liquor director. While paying highest tribute to the ability and integrity of Joseph H. Scobell, appointed liquor director by former Governor White, Davey said Scobell will not get the position if Spaght cannot qualify.

"Whoever I appoint as liquor director must be someone responsible to me alone," he reflected. Davey hopes that he can prevail upon Lucius S. Frazier, Reams to head his envisioned public safety department, which would take over the work now being done by the highway patrol, the liquor department enforcement division, the fire marshal, bureau of criminal identification (now operated by convicts at London prison farm), and motor vehicle records.

Reams, often mentioned as a potential candidate for attorney general in the future, would be ideal in the public safety position, in the governor's opinion, because of his success in coping with gangsters in Toledo where he is credited with breaking up the notorious Licavoli gang.

DELAYS MORATORIUM
For the time being Davey is going to forget about the 2-year moratorium on the principal of maturing subdivision bonds, he indicated. He feels no necessity for such measure, one that brought him much criticism in the election campaign, now that the sales tax has been enacted and will provide revenue immediately.

Discussing the financing of poor relief, the governor said he is opposed to raising the necessary revenue through sale of bonds, saying it is "wrong in principle to borrow against the future to pay for the present."

In the past the state has raised its share of poor relief funds almost entirely through sale of poor relief bonds issued by counties, but underwritten by the state and to be retired from selective sales tax receipts collected prior to suspension of that tax on Jan. 1, due to enactment of a general sales tax. Under the latter levy, a certain amount is to be earmarked annually for retiring outstanding poor relief bonds.

Davey was asked whether his aversion to borrowing against the future might be taken to mean he had abandoned his campaign idea of floating a huge state bond issue to finance a gigantic Ohio public works program in the interest of the unemployed.

He said he had not discarded it, but that with the federal government contemplating a four billion dollar work-relief program, he hoped Ohio's share in this would be large enough to make an independent state public works program unnecessary.

DAVEY DRAFTS
Davey said he would not send the appointment of Oakley Spaght of Shaw, to the senate for confirmation as liquor director until after further investigations that Spaght, being a member of the legislature that created the office, would not be eligible under the constitution to fill it prior to Jan. 1, 1936, or one year after his term expired.

If he becomes convinced of Spaght's ineligibility, the governor said he hoped to find someone equally well fitted for liquor director. While paying highest tribute to the ability and integrity of Joseph H. Scobell, appointed liquor director by former Governor White, Davey said Scobell will not get the position if Spaght cannot qualify.

"Whoever I appoint as liquor director must be someone responsible to me alone," he reflected. Davey hopes that he can prevail upon Lucius S. Frazier, Reams to head his envisioned public safety department, which would take over the work now being done by the highway patrol, the liquor department enforcement division, the fire marshal, bureau of criminal identification (now operated by convicts at London prison farm), and motor vehicle records.

Reams, often mentioned as a potential candidate for attorney general in the future, would be ideal in the public safety position, in the governor's opinion, because of his success in coping with gangsters in Toledo where he is credited with breaking up the notorious Licavoli gang.

DELAYS MORATORIUM
For the time being Davey is going to forget about the 2-year moratorium on the principal of maturing subdivision bonds, he indicated. He feels no necessity for such measure, one that brought him much criticism in the election campaign, now that the sales tax has been enacted and will provide revenue immediately.

Discussing the financing of poor relief, the governor said he is opposed to raising the necessary revenue through sale of bonds, saying it is "wrong in principle to borrow against the future to pay for the present."

In the past the state has raised its share of poor relief funds almost entirely through sale of poor relief bonds issued by counties, but underwritten by the state and to be retired from selective sales tax receipts collected prior to suspension of that tax on Jan. 1, due to enactment of a general sales tax. Under the latter levy, a certain amount is to be earmarked annually for retiring outstanding poor relief bonds.

Davey was asked whether his aversion to borrowing against the future might be taken to mean he had abandoned his campaign idea of floating a huge state bond issue to finance a gigantic Ohio public works program in the interest of the unemployed.

He said he had not discarded it, but that with the federal government contemplating a four billion dollar work-relief program, he hoped Ohio's share in this would be large enough to make an independent state public works program unnecessary.

CUT LIQUOR COST!
COLUMBUS, Jan. 16.—Governor Martin L. Davey is expected to recommend to the legislature that prices on liquor sold in the state stores be reduced.

Jocelyn Lee Weds Producer

Jocelyn Lee Seymour and "Hubby."

Only relatives and close friends of the actress and her producer, Seymour, associate film producer, Hollywood. They are planning a honeymoon wedding of Jocelyn Lee, red-headed actress, and James Seymour, associate film producer, as soon as the bridegroom is able to leave work at his studio.

FISCH FORGED

(Continued From Page One)

German copyist, were to have sufficient of the writing of Hauptmann, or any one else, he would be able to do a pretty good job of copying the ransom notes, wouldn't he?"

But Walter answered: "In my opinion, impossible."

In questioning Tyrell, who starred in the celebrated Loeb-Leopold murder trial in Chicago, the defense showed him the handwriting of Fisch, from whom Hauptmann says he got the $14,600 ransom money found in his garage. They tried hard to bring out that the tell-tale hyphen which appeared in Hauptmann's writing between the word "New" and "York" in New York also was evident in Fisch's writings, if placed somewhat differently than in Hauptmann's. But Tyrell was confident beyond all doubt that Hauptmann wrote the ransom note and nobody else.

When the handwriting experts finish their testimony, the state plans to switch to another phase—the finding of the slain Lindbergh baby. William Allen, negro, of Trenton, who found the baby near a roadway not far from the Lindbergh home, and Orville Wilson, who was with him, will take the stand and describe this happening. They will be followed by the coroner of Mercer-co, the doctor who conducted the autopsy, various police officials and possibly Mrs. Dwight Morrow, mother-in-law of Colonel Charles A. Lindbergh.

Hospital News
Forest Valentine, W. High-st, is improving at University hospital, Columbus, where he underwent a major operation last week.

DANCE!
MEMORIAL HALL
Friday, January 18
Auspices Monumental Association of Howard Hall Post, American Legion.

MUSIC BY WALT SEARS
AND HIS 11 PIECE BAND
Admission 50c per person.

YOU ARE INVITED TO ATTEND FREE

John Deere Tractor Day

Under the Direction of Practical Tractor Men

WILL BE HELD AT

Davidson Hardware Co.

Friday, January 18th

Beginning at 10 a. m.

As this is a short, practical course, we suggest that you be on hand early and get the benefit of both the educational features and entertainment.

SEE AND HEAR—
The New Power Farming Picture—

"PARTNERS"
—A Full Hour of Entertainment and Education

LEARN ALL ABOUT THE IMPROVED JOHN DEERE MODEL D TRACTOR....

Davidson Hardware Co.

107 E. Main St.

NEW TALKING MOTION PICTURE TO BE SHOWN

Interesting New Sound Picture Will Show Latest Tractor Developments.

A new talking motion picture entitled "Partners" will provide a full hour of entertainment and education to farmers who attend John Deere Tractor Day, to be conducted at the Davidson Hardware Co., Friday, local farm equipment dealer, aided by representatives of the John Deere organization.

This picture which is being enthusiastically received by farmers in other localities, takes the audience into the huge John Deere Tractor plant at Waterloo, Iowa, and shows how tractors are built and tested.

From the factory, the camera takes the audience out into the field to see John Deere Tractors at work.

Woven into the picture is a story of how a father and his son became partners on the farm.

The meeting will be in session beginning at 10 a. m. at the Davidson Hardware store in Circleville.

"We invite every farmer in this section to be our guest and we particularly want the boys to come, too," says Mr. Davidson. "The program will be in charge of men who are thoroughly familiar with tractors. It is plain, understandable language and illustrations they will demonstrate the latest developments in tractors and the best ways to keep the farm tractor tuned up for greatest efficiency."

"We are planning to make this a social affair, but at the same time a very worthwhile affair to farmers and their families. We are counting on a big crowd coming in to enjoy the big day with us."

John Deere Tractor Day is proving exceptionally popular with farmers as evidenced by the picture above which shows an interested group at one of these meetings.